

COLUMBUS DAY PARADE
PERHAPS BEST OF KIND
HELD IN LOWELLCAPT. WALTER R. JEYES
Chief Marshal

Marchers of many nationalities, attractive floats, excellent marching, good music and good weather featured in the big parade in Lowell yesterday in celebration of Columbus day. The number of marchers in line was estimated at between two and three thousand. More than 60,000 persons thronged the line of march to witness the spectacle. It would be impossible to conceive of more perfect weather and there was just breeze and snap enough in the air to give the marchers the proper uplift. The parade was a little slow in getting away and the spectators were becoming the least bit fidgety when the words "here they come" was heard all along the line. It was stated later that the parade actually got underway very close to 1:30 o'clock, but at the courthouse in Gorham street, a five minute wait was ordered by Chief Marshal Jeyes to enable one out-of-town organization to get into the line. After that, however, there were no stops or waits of any consequence.

U. S. PATROL
COAST

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—It was stated here today that the American destroyer patrol in connection with recent submarine activities had been ordered effective from New York to Galveston, Tex. This statement lacks official confirmation, however.

12 DESTROYERS ON DUTY

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A dozen destroyers of the United States navy are patrolling the ocean highways to and from North Atlantic ports today, but for what purpose is known only to naval authorities. It was reported that they went out to maintain the neutrality of American waters but Rear Admiral Knight, commandant of the naval station at Narragansett Bay, is authority for the statement that no official action toward establishing such patrol had been taken. He said, however, that this soon would be done.

The seaward dash of eleven destroyers from Newport yesterday aroused much speculation. At least one other United States destroyer is known to have been on guard outside New York since the German submarine raid off Nantucket last Sunday. Efforts to explain the activity of the destroyers ranged from a reported discovery of a foreign submarine base to a rumor that a liner had been driven into Bar Harbor by a German submarine stationed off Rockland, Me. All these stories lacked verification.

Rear Admiral Gleaves, commander of the torpedo flotilla at Newport, said the sending of the destroyers to sea had no connection with the sailing of the White Star liner Adriatic from New York for Liverpool yesterday. "There have been important developments," said he, "but you could not call them submarine developments because they are not on the submarine end."

Since the advent of the German submarine off Nantucket the navy department has shut down all wireless stations. Navy officers have been sent to the Seagate station, Tuckerton station, the National Electric Signalling company's Brooklyn station and all local wireless plants, to instruct the operators as to the exact meaning of neutrality.

It was stated that one newspaper wireless station here had sent out last Sunday to ships at sea an announcement of the raid of the U-52 and that this was regarded as an unusual act, in violation of the president's proclamation issued two years ago.

The deportation of aliens from New York and Boston has been suspended by the bureau of immigration until the submarine peril is past. About 300 foreigners are at Ellis Island awaiting deportation. Half of these are Germans or Austrians.

The British steamship Madras, which was overhauled by the United States destroyer Sterrett and brought back to New York harbor last night when she attempted to pass out to sea, is expected to sail again today.

The British steamship City of Madrids later resumed her interrupted voyage sailing from quarantine about 10 o'clock.

WM. J. BRADLEY DEAD
CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 12.—William J. Bradley, a republican leader of New Jersey and president of the American Dredging company, died in a Philadelphia hospital today following an operation. He was sixty-four years old.

U. S. FLEET SEEKS REPORTED NAVAL BASE OFF COAST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Admiral Mayo, commanding the Atlantic fleet, notified the navy department today that he had ordered a survey of the New England coast to investigate reports that belligerent ships had established a base there, or that wireless plants were being operated in violation of American neutrality.

In announcing Admiral Mayo's action, Secretary Daniels said today that several destroyers already had been dispatched from Newport north and that the work would be done under the admiral's direction and with-out instruction from Washington. Naval officials here characterized the reports as an outcome of the recent operations of the German submarine U-53 off Nantucket shoals. Numerous reports of the same character have been received by the department since the beginning of the war. Investigation was made in each instance but was unproductive.

TO ENFORCE NEUTRALITY

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 13.—A far flung patrol line of torpedo boat destroyers, charged with the double duty of enforcing neutrality observance and saving lives in the event of further submarine raids on shipping off these shores, went into service from Bar Harbor, Me., to New York today. Official authority from the statement that such a patrol under such orders was ordered from Washington was obtained this morning although the officer withheld use of his name.

The limits of the line of coast surveillance, as at present effective, were shown today with the arrival of the destroyer Paulding of Bar Harbor, Me., and the activity of the destroyer Sterrett in New York harbor. Between these two outposts, nine other destroyers were weaving a net of observation that extended for a considerable distance out to sea, well beyond the limit of coastwise vessels.

In Narragansett bay seven other destroyers were kept at routine target practice with steam constantly up, available for an emergency call. The fuel ship Jason, which left here recently with a full supply of oil, came in during the night for more. All vessels, it was said, were well provisioned.

The operations of the patrol are being directed from the flagship Birmingham, headquarters of Rear Admiral Albert Gleaves. The Birmingham is at this point, also in readiness to move at any moment.

Except in war game maneuvers, the const has not been covered by naval forces in such manner for years.

Two destroyers are operating at Boston harbor, fulfilling the new orders by which the neutrality service of recent months has been increased. They are the Warrington and Reid with the Davis, a new destroyer, almost ready for commission.

Another destroyer was added to the patrol forces just before noon when the Cummings headed out of Narragansett bay at top speed.

SAW CRUISERS AND DESTROYERS

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—A fleet of foreign cruisers and destroyers is off the American coast, according to Capt. Linderoos of the Russian steamship Hesperus, which arrived here today from Helsinki, Spain.

To the pilot who boarded his vessel this morning, Capt. Linderoos reported that "a lot of cruisers and destroyers" passed his vessel off Cape Sable, N. S., on Wednesday, heading southwest. At their rate of speed he said they must be off the coast by now.

The Hesperus had not heard of the German submarine's raid of last Sunday, having no wireless equipment on his ship.

CHICAGO POLICE CHIEF UNDER ARREST

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Warrants charging Chief of Police Charles S. Neely with conspiracy and with malfeasance in office, will be applied for by State's Attorney Macoy Hoyle this afternoon, Mr. Hoyle announced today.

"I shall probably ask for the arrest of other persons," said Mr. Hoyle. "The charges are said to have their root in the chief's administration of the law with regard to vice, saloons and gambling."

CARMEN IN MOURNING

Wear Black Bows as Tribute to Late George Fellows—Delegation to Attend Funeral

The executive board of the local Street Railway Men's union held a special meeting to take action on the death of George Fellows, a member of the organization. It was voted to drape the charter for a period of 30 days; also to have all men wear black bows on the lapels of their coat for one month. A committee was appointed to draw up a set of resolutions, one copy to be spread on the records, a copy to be sent to the family of deceased, and another to be sent to the publishers of the motorist and conductor's journal. A delegation was selected to attend the funeral on Sunday afternoon.

Fred Crowley, president of the local carmen's union and chairman of the joint conference board, was a bearer at the funeral of the late Fred Ray, organizer for the carmen, on Wednesday. There were over 1500 carmen at the services.

URGE CONGRESS TO ADOPT DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN

"TURN THE CLOCK FORWARD" COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT AGITATIVE CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Spurred by reports from many cities that various municipal chambers of commerce approve the "daylight saving plan" the "turn the clock forward" committee composed of a number of leading New York business men, announced today its purpose to campaign actively for adoption of the plan by congress, to become effective in the summer of 1917.

A referendum vote is to be taken soon by the United States chamber of commerce.

BIG U-BOAT OFF COAST
OF NEW YORK

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—A submarine of unidentified nationality was reported about 200 miles east of New York by the steamer Bovie in a wireless message today. The course of the submarine was not stated.

The Bovie, which is due to arrive in New York today or tomorrow from Manchester, England, reported sighting the submarine in latitude 40.17 north, longitude 68.77 west. It was added that the submarine was "astern," but whether pursuing the Bovie or keeping an independent course was not stated. The figures of longitude as received are not correct, the degrees given being wrong, but it was said the error probably was one of only a few degrees.

The Bovie is a British freight steamer owned by the White Star line. She sailed from Manchester on Sept. 30. Her commander, who probably made the report of the submarine having been sighted, is Capt. Summers.

SAID TO BE GERMAN CRAFT

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 13.—Confirmation that the British steamship Bovie sighted a submarine off the coast was contained in a statement by a naval official here today. He said that "a passing steamer reported to Nantucket shoals lightship that she had sighted a German submarine well astern this morning." No position was given nor was the direction being followed by the submarine stated.

NEWS FROM CITY HALL
SEWER QUESTION

Mayor O'Donnell was particularly well pleased with the manner in which the parade was policed yesterday, street wiring, etc., and he sent a letter to the superintendent today in which he commended him and asked that the commendation be transmitted to the men of the department. The letter:

October 13, 1916.

Redmond Welch, Supt. of Police, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir—Having participated in Thursday's parade, I was in a position to observe closely the police arrangements and the men on duty, and I am pleased to state that the arrangements were excellent, while the men presented a fine appearance.

Kindly accept my commendation and transmit it to the men of the department, including Electrician Michael J. Burns and his assistants, for the very capable manner in which the city was policed, on that occasion.

Respectfully,
James E. O'Donnell,
Mayor and Commissioner of Public Safety.

Phoenix Avenue Sewer

Charles J. Morse, commissioner of streets and highways, stated today that he would ask the mayor to call a special meeting of the municipal council tomorrow to take action on a matter having to do with the Phoenix avenue sewer. The sewer runs through land owned by Edward Cawley, and Mr. Cawley ordered Mr. Morse to suspend operations there unless certain things were done to protect his property. Mr. Morse spoke today in the presence of the city solicitor about something that Mr. Cawley had said relative to the matter, and the solicitor said there would be no grounds for the action threatened. The commissioner, however, seemed disposed to think that there is some virtue in what Mr. Cawley claims and believes that the matter can be fixed up so as to make things satisfactory on all sides. The city engineer has prepared a plan that will be presented to the council, calling for a 200-foot extension to the sewer and also providing that a 10-inch surface pipe laid by Mr. Cawley be allowed to remain intact. It seems that there was some misunderstanding of the beginning as to the location of the sewer in question and when the actual is paid to mouldeers elsewhere.

Asking for More Pay
Commissioner Newell F. Putnam is being besieged by water department employees seeking an increase in wages. On Wednesday of this week the pay of four clerks, seven stationary firemen and one moulder was increased per order of Mr. Putnam and just for that overlookly wants a raise. Mr. Putnam feels that the raises granted Wednesday, amounting in all to about $1500 a year were well deserved, and he stated today that he did not intend to make any more increases this year. The amount that the clerks are to receive are the same as they received under Commissioner Barrett three years ago. James H. Carmichael, succeeded Mr. Barrett as commissioner and took away from the clerks the increase granted by his predecessor.

St. W. Harrington, who has charge of the hydrants, succeeds Thomas Holland and works seven days a week. The stationary firemen are receiving $2.75 to $3 a day. Arthur McQuade, the moulder, will receive under the new schedule only the same wage that pipe in question and when the actual is paid to mouldeers elsewhere.

RADICAL CHANGE IN TREATMENT OF MAILS
LAWYER KILLED
MANY SHOT IN STRIKE RIOT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Radical changes in the treatment of mails on neutral ships are promised in the reply of the British and French governments to the American protests against interference with mails. The changes, which are short of an abandonment of the contention of the right to search for information of value to an enemy, are regarded by the allies as sufficient to meet the wishes of the United States.

Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market St.

BAYONNE, N. J., Oct. 13.—City authorities hoped today that the 5000 strikers from oil plants at Constance Hook, who have been rioting in the streets of Bayonne for two days, would be dispersed by the police yesterday and that there would be less shooting and sniping by the strikers and their sympathizers today.

The police planned to repeat their performances of yesterday when they swept twice through the strike district in the Garfield neighborhood during the strikers of the streets, into the houses, returning the shots of snipers stationed on roofs and in windows, wrecking saloons kept open in defiance of the mayor's order and arresting the proprietors.

One Killed, Score Wounded

One man, a lawyer, who was innocent of any part in the rioting, was shot and killed yesterday, and it was estimated that nearly a score were wounded, some of them spectators.

Three persons, one a young man, have been killed, and it is estimated that more than a hundred have been injured since the rioting began and there has been much property damage. It was reported today that many of the families were removing from the strike district or the city to escape the danger of bullets.

The body of an unidentified man was found lying in the street some distance from the strike centre today with a bullet wound in the head. Nothing was known as to the cause of the killing.

Quies prevailed during the early hours today after the battle scenes enacted in the streets near the oil plants yesterday afternoon and last night.

The police asserted that virtually all those wounded have been hit by bullets from the guns of strikers and that the police have shot over the strikers' heads. They admitted that individual policemen were not patrolling the strike section in the night hours for fear of being shot at from roofs. Nevertheless, the commissioner of public safety, Henry Wilson, declared the police had regained control. The "peace" set by the police beyond which the strikers were not permitted to gather, had been pushed back a few blocks toward the oil plants.

Strike leaders have offered to organize a special force of 300 men to aid in suppressing the rioters. Their offer was accepted but has not yet been made effective.

A strong detail of police made a tour of the strike zone this forenoon and reported "everything quiet."

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 13.—Prompt arrival of firemen from Pittsburgh and nearby towns prevented a serious conflagration at McKee's Rocks, a suburb, early today when fire destroyed the pattern and coach erecting department of the shops of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, together with several Pullmans, passenger coaches and other valuable rolling stock, causing a loss estimated by railroad officials to be $225,000. Six firemen were slightly injured by a falling wall. The flames destroyed a portion of the company's high tension wires and all of the great shops are crippled for lack of power.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Edmond H. Peltier, a sparrow man employed at the junction of Moody and Baker streets, one of the most dangerous corners in this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury late Wednesday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile while at his work.

The machine, a large touring car, containing six passengers was going through Albee street at a fair rate of speed, while Mr. Peltier was employed at the junction of Moody. The latter claimed there was ample room for the machine to go by, but the chauffeur did not seem to take the right measurements and struck the sparrow man. Mr. Peltier was injured on the leg, but his injuries will not be serious. The chauffeur stopped his car and took the name and address of the sparrow man.

CURIOSITY CAUSED ARREST

Wheeler, Charged With Auto Larceny at Lawrence, Taken Under Strange Circumstances

LAWRENCE, Oct. 13.—City Marshal M. P. McKenna and Inspector John J. Kelleher of the local police department returned from Washington, D. C., yesterday afternoon with Albert M. Wheeler, who will be arraigned in superior court on the charge of larceny of an automobile from the Robinson Hardware company.

Wheeler's curiosity as to what action the grand jury had taken in his case led to his being located by the police. Recently a letter was received from Washington inquiring as to the reputation of Wheeler. Suspecting that he was the author of the letter or that he had instigated it, the local authorities sent his photograph to the Washington police and his arrest followed. Wheeler is said to hail from Fitchburg.

THE FRENCH MAID SAYS

UTILIZING AN UNESED DOORWAY

"You know that door from the sitting room to the hall?" queried Marie. "A closed doorway makes a very nice landing to Marie one morning. 'Well, we place for a bookcase or bric-a-brac are going to keep it closed and I shall,' answered Marie. 'The door thought I might put some shelves up should be covered with burlesque and into the jamb the shelves are built. With good bracing these may be rounded out to make them deeper than the ordinary door frame would allow for. When installed, the shelves may be stained or enameled to correspond with the other woodwork in the room.

"I remember there is an arched niche between the two closets in your bedroom. Built-in shelves will make a desirable bookcase or dressing table. In the latter case one shelf should be made at the usual height of a bureau or table.

"One lower than this can be hidden by a cretonne curtain gathered to the shelf above. A looking glass in the niche above, which should, by the way, be papered in white or a plain pale tint, will complete a very attractive little corner.

"The niche is, I am sure, large enough to accommodate a desk. In this case several roomy shelves can be built in above, or a hanging bookshelf can be bought to place there.

"Again the niche can be made into a cozy seat by the aid of a home-made bench and some cushions.

"The fact that Iceland is so seldom visited by tourists is and almost a 'terra incognita' to American traders has caused a false impression to obtain in this country concerning its commerce but on the whole highly intelligent people. Indeed, it has been estimated that in proportion to its population more books are purchased in Iceland than in any country of continental Europe.

"When the Scandinavian sea rovers discovered Iceland about the middle of the ninth century they found a small colony of Irish Culliees in possession. During the succeeding century and a half there was a steady immigration from the British Isles, and in addition to the Norse nobles and the vikings there came Queen Aud, widow of Olaf White, king of Dublin, and numerous followers. Trade with the island underwent many cycles in succeeding centuries, being closed first to the Jews, then to the smuggling merchants of Bristol, England, and later the Hanseatic towns of Germany. WITH SUIT OR OVERCOAT ORDER

When some people see my advertisements at $12.50 or $15 they jump at the conclusion that the goods must be something terrible to sell at such prices.

Any man who thinks that way was never more wrong on anything in his life; far from being ordinary or average, the goods I sell you are as high class as the industry in America produces. Let us understand each other on this custom clothing question at my prices.

You can't buy better goods in any store in America or any tailor shop in America than I can show you. I am safe in making this assertion because from one source or another I get goods from all of the best makers we have.

I am a firm believer in the theory that life is always getting better—that the people are coming up and not going down. I know the people want good things—better, maybe, than they can afford. More power to them I say—the best is none too good for any man, and believing this, I try to live up to it when I buy the goods you in turn buy from me. Understanding that, you may believe me when I say I am giving you as good as the best of them—a whole lot better than many of them.

NOW THEN LISTEN! You will get cold weather soon enough—it was cold last Tuesday and Wednesday. You will need an overcoat. I offer you now the chance to get an overcoat for less money than the ordinary clothing dealer can put that overcoat on his counter for. Suitings in worsted—not this soft, flimsy kind—but double and twist. Worsteds from such mills as SHERIFF'S, PARAGON, WANSKUK and DUNN'S. This is positively the greatest trade of my career, and that means something.

Will you order now—take the suit or overcoat when the weather compels you to wear it?

TRIUMPH FOR GERMANS

NEW YORK, Oct.—The German electrical industry is scoring a triumph in the midst of the distractions of the war by building the largest generator and transformer in the world, according to advices received here. The Siemens-Schuckertwerke of Berlin are building a generator and transformer, each sixty thousand K.W., the transformer having the power to transform the voltage to 110,000 volts. The order is being executed for the Rheinisch Westphalian Electrical works. It is said the largest turbo generators in the United States are 35,000 or 40,000 K.W.

WILSON DENIES CHARGE OF SECTIONALISM

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13.—President Wilson yesterday replied to the republican charge that the democratic party is a sectional party with the statement that "any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation."

The president came to Indianapolis to address meetings of good roads advocates and farmers, review an automobile parade celebrating Good Roads day of the Indiana Centennial, and attend a non-partisan luncheon of leading Indians. He was seen by crowds which packed the streets for blocks. In his first set speech he spoke of the good done by highways in preventing sectionalism.

He Alone Is National
"My fellow citizens," he continued, "I need not tell you that I did not come here to talk politics, but there is one thing that is pertinent in this connection, which I cannot deny myself the privilege of saying. Any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation. He shows himself a provincial, he shows that he himself does not know the various sections of his own country, he shows that he has shut his own heart up in a little province, and that those who do not seek the special interests of that province are to him sectional, while he alone is national. That is the depth of anti-patriotic feeling."

President Wilson spoke in part as follows:
"My fellow citizens, we have had time and opportunity until the present to do pretty much what we wanted in America, and to do different things in different parts of America. But just as soon as this great European war is over, America has got to stand for one thing, and only one thing, in the world, and she must be ready with united force. We can't play with the elements of our life any more."

Why America Exists
"America came into existence, my fellow citizens, not in order to show the world the most notable example it had ever had of the accumulation and use of material wealth, but in order to show the way to mankind in every part of the world to justice and freedom and liberty."

"So that the words I want you to carry in your mind are these: First, nationalization; getting all the fibres of this great vital people united in a single organism; second, mobilization, getting them so related to each other, so co-ordinated, so organized, so united, that when they move, they move as a single, great, irresistible, conquering force. And the third word that I want you to consider is the word that I suppose affects the key to doing these things. That word is the word of co-operation."

Not the Way to Build

"I wish that each one of us could fix in his mind the difference between the way we have been trying to do things and the way we ought to do things. We have been trying to do things by combination, by getting off one powerful group against another, by setting up groups in particular industries or spheres of our life which try to exclude all other groups by the power or by the method of their destroying competition. That is not the way to build a nation together. That is the way to build it up into warring elements."

"There is one field in which we are particularly sluggish in relation to this, I mean the relations between capital and labor. Nothing can be for the interest of capital that is not in the interest of labor; and nothing can be to the interest of labor which is not in the interest of capital. If men want to get rich, they must have human relationship with those who help them to get rich. That is a lesson that men have been exceedingly slow to learn, slower than any other lesson of co-operation in America."

Counsel for the Nation

"I pray God that their eyes may be opened and that they may see that the life of this country lies in their co-operation, open, candid, cordial, and nothing and only one thing, in the world, and she must be ready with united force. We can't play with the elements of our life any more."

"I have said and shall say again that

What Thin Folks Should Do To Gain Weight

Good Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs who, having tried advertised flesh-makers, food-cakes, physical culture stunts and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered combination of assimilative agents has made fat grow after years of thinness, and it is also unequalled in its ability to strengthen the nerves, purify the blood, and improve the digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable preparation is called Sargol. Six strengthening, fat-producing assimilative elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this preparation, which is endorsed and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A few weeks systematic use of Sargol should go far to purify, flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying nourishing fats to the blood. If not, every doctor who sells it is authorized to return the purchase price. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fact that thin people need are thus provided. Lowell Pharmacy and other leading druggists supply Sargol and say there is a large demand for it.

when the great present war is over it will be the duty of America to join with the other nations of the world in some kind of league for the maintenance of peace.

America Has Kept Poise

"Now, America was not a party to this war, and the only terms upon which we will be admitted to a league, almost all the other powerful members of which were engaged in the war and made infinite sacrifices when we apparently made none, are the only terms which we desire, namely, that America shall stand for national aggression, but shall stand for the just conceptions and bases of peace, for the competitions of merit alone, and for the general rivalry of liberty."

"Are we ready always to be the friends of justice, of fairness, of liberty, of peace, and of those accommodations which rest upon justice and peace? In these two trying years that have just gone by we have forgotten, we have not followed, we have seen to it that America kept her poise when all the rest of the world seemed to have lost its poise."

"Only upon the terms of retaining that poise and using the splendid force which always comes with poise can we hope to play the beneficent part in the history of the world which I have just now intimated."

PIRES, WILSON GREETED

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 13.—When President Wilson stopped here for a few minutes early today, a small crowd with as many men as possible, stepping down to the station platform to greet the president.

The president received word on his way to Long Branch from Indianapolis today that Pennsylvania day at Shadow Lawn tomorrow will be attended by more than 3000 voters.

The president is due to arrive at Shadow Lawn at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The return trip from Indianapolis was made without any long stops. The president worked in his private car this morning on public correspondence.

AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

A high mass for the members of Lowell council, Knights of Columbus was celebrated at St. Peter's church yesterday morning with a very large congregation in attendance. The service was held at 2 o'clock with Rev. W. George Mullin, chaplain of the council, as the celebrant.

The members of the organization gathered at their rooms in the Associated building and at 3:30 o'clock formed in line with the salaried infantry band at the head. The men marched to the church by way of Merrimack, Central and Gorham streets. The sermon was given by Rev. Fr. Mullin, who spoke at length on the life of Christopher Columbus, what his deeds had accomplished in helping mankind in general and the wonderful attainments resulting from his discoveries. Present at the service was the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. J. Keeler, who at the close of Fr. Mullin's sermon delivered a brief address of commendation, extending his compliments to the K. C. for their fine appearance and their faithfulness to their religious duties. During the mass appropriate hymns were sung by the regular church choir under the direction of James E. Donnelly. At the close of the service the members of the society returned to their quarters where they were dismissed until parade time.

MAN RUN DOWN AND KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Edward Powers, 35 years old, of Weymouth street, Cambridge, was killed in Weymouth last night by an automobile operated by Harrison Loring Wirt of 1653 Beacon street, Brookline, a nephew of Attorney Loring, with whom he makes his home. Wirt is a student of Technology.

With Wirt in the car were his two brothers and two women. The women gave the names of Martha Beren and Aida Torgren, and both gave their address as 1653 Beacon street.

Struck Head-On

Powers, who was formerly a driver in the Boston fire department, was leading two horses from an auction stable in Weymouth to Hingham. Wirt was hitting about 50 miles an hour, the police say, and he struck the man head-on.

He was hurled into the air and fell on the side of the road and into a shallow ditch. Wirt stopped the car and picked up the man, then he dashed at top speed for the Quincy City hospital, but the man was dead when the hospital was reached.

Wirt told the Weymouth police that he could not see the man in the road. He was arrested for manslaughter and released in $5000 bonds furnished by his uncle, Attorney Loring.

UNITARIAN CONFERENCE HELD

The 11th session of the North Middlesex conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches was held Wednesday forenoon and afternoon with the First parish of Tyngsboro. Rev. Frank B. Crandall of Ayer made the opening prayer and Mrs. Wendell Blanchard of Tyngsboro played the organ for the congregational singing of hymns. The president of the conference, Thomas H. Elliott of Lowell, presided.

WHAT THE COOK SAYS

A simple method of pressing embroidery is done over a heavy padding or toweling, says Cook. Turkish toweling is excellent, but the imprint is apt to show, especially if the embroidered article is of a delicate material. To avoid this, place an old piece of fine muslin between the toweling and the embroidery.

The majority of people press directly on the back of the embroidered article with the iron. This is a great mistake, as the iron may catch on a thread and cut or strain the stitches. Always place a thin piece of muslin over the wrong side and press over it. You will find that your embroidered articles, etc., will last longer, as it is largely due to careless laundering that many pieces wear out so quickly.

Cook serves these following recipes regularly to us as they are great favorites with all of our family.

Eggs baked with cheese are made by melting three tablespoons of butter, blending in three tablespoons of flour and adding by degrees one and a half cup of milk. Cook, stir until smooth and season with half a teaspoon of salt, a pinch of pepper and a few grains of cayenne. Four half of this in a shallow buttered baking dish, break over it six or eight fresh eggs, cover with the remaining sauce, sprinkle with half a cup of grated cheese and two tablespoons of fine crumbs moistened with melted butter. Bake about ten minutes or until the eggs are set and serve at once.

Cook has given me instructions on how to clean highly polished woods such as pianos. She says there is nothing better than raw cider vinegar half a pint and pure cedar vinegar half a pint. Put this into a bottle and shake until it becomes creamy. Dampen a piece of cheesecloth and go over the article to be cleaned, then with a dry, soft cloth rub the piece of furniture until it is dry and shines. This will not only clean the furniture but will preserve its new appearance. It is fine for leather furniture, polished floors, etc.

An excellent wall paper cleaner is two cups of flour, one cup of salt, one cup of cold water and one teaspoon of kerosene. Mix and cook until transparent, then knead into a ball and when cool use on the paper.

To clean brass bedsteads dampen a cloth with ammonia, rub briskly over a piece of pumice stone and then over the brass. Very little rubbing is required.

Meat far lids which have become corroded from dampness may be made as bright as new by being kept for several hours in hot water to which a large amount of baking soda has been added. Put the solution and the lids into a granite pan and let stand on the back of the stove.

If powdered borax is put around the edge of your carpet it will keep the moths away. A little borax in the water before washing red or red bordered tablecloths and napkins will prevent their fading.

Turpentine and kerosene to the consistency of thin cream makes a fine polish for leather upholstered furniture.

When you find you cannot finish the ironing after the clothes are thoroughly dampened, just slip the ironed ones into the lower part of the refrigerator. They will not mildew even if left there for three days.

Walnut molasses cookies made as follows are nice to serve occasionally.

Watch Your Step

Many people fail to realize that the common habit of coffee drinking may, sooner or later, handicap ability and hinder progress.

It is a scientific fact that coffee contains a harmful drug, caffeine, which with many, through regular use, causes nervousness, headache, heart flutter, or other annoying ills.

The wise move is to quit coffee and use

The Subscription Card

In order that the many persons interested in the Lowell Boys' club, who cannot be reached by the volunteer corps aiding in raising the fund of $50,000 in the public campaign that ends tomorrow, may subscribe to the "better citizenship fund," a pledge-card is printed herewith. The subscriptions are payable either in cash or in five semi-annual installments beginning Nov. 1. The executive committee, of which Albert D. Miliken is chairman, requests that the residents filling out the subscription blanks mail them to the treasurer, Lowell Boys' club, 227 Dutton street, as early as possible so that they may be reported at tomorrow's rally luncheon and the former's case was continued for disposition until next Wednesday. Bergeron after being found guilty of larceny was sentenced to four months in the house of correction and after pleading guilty to neglecting to provide for the support of his two minor children an additional sentence of five months in the house of correction was imposed.

As related in Wednesday's issue of The Sun, Ayard and Bergeron have been stoning the copper bonding wire from the rails of the Lawrence division of the Bay State St. Ry. Co. and they claimed they had disposed of it to Byaski.

When Byaski was called this morning he was asked to plead to a complaint charging him with the larceny of 17 pounds of copper wire valued at 23 cents per pound and the larceny of 2 pounds at 23 cents per pound. The first witness called for the government was Charles Ayard who said he was 18 years of age and that he and Bergeron had stolen considerable wire from the rails along the Lawrence road and sold it to Byaski. He said that on the third of this month they went to the defendant's house and sold him 17 pounds of copper wire. He said he knew where they got the wire and told them that there was a better opportunity to get it along the Lawrence road where much of it was exposed. Witness said that Byaski gave them a saw and hammer in order to expedite matters in getting the wire.

Award said that on the 5th of October he and Bergeron sold Byaski about 40 pounds of the wire for which they received $9.

Bergeron corroborated the testimony told by Award. Patrolmen Kennedy and Breaud who arrested the two young men were called and testified relative to the arrest and Lieut. Martin Maher testified as to his going to the defendant and accusing him of receiving the wire, knowing that it was stolen.

Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN

The teams that started the campaign to increase the membership of the Y.M.C.A. to 2000 will make their second report at a luncheon to be held at 6:15 o'clock this evening. From what could be learned today the workers have met with good success since Wednesday noon's meeting and it is expected that a much better report will be made than at the first meeting.

Two banners will be awarded, one to the division bringing in the largest number of members and the other to the team with the highest number. A clock has been built and placed on the front of the association building, showing the progress made each day.

JUNK MAN GOES TO JAIL FORGERY CASE HEARD

John Byaski, a junk collector, was this morning sentenced to four months in the house of correction at Cambridge by Judge Enright after being found guilty of receiving copper bonding wire which had been stolen from the rails of the Bay State Street Railway company by Albert Bergeron and Charles Ayard. Both Bergeron and Ayard had pleaded guilty to charges of larceny and the former's case was continued for disposition until next Wednesday. Bergeron after being found guilty of larceny was sentenced to four months in the house of correction and after pleading guilty to neglecting to provide for the support of his two minor children an additional sentence of five months in the house of correction was imposed.

W.E. HALL LEAVES SHAW STOCKING COMPANY

William E. Hall, treasurer and general manager of the Shaw Stocking company, Smith street, for 19 years, has resigned his position to enter the Wood, Putnam & Wood Co. of Boston. The Sun learned last evening that Mr. Hall had resigned, but also learned that the board of directors was sorry that he had determined to quit the company. It was stated, too, that all influence possible would be brought to bear on Mr. Hall to have him remain. The Sun located Mr. Hall at the mill today and asked if it were true that he had resigned. "It is true that I have resigned," he said, "but I don't suppose any others than the directors knew it and I thought it would not be announced until I had actually finished here. But I presume it makes no difference, and if you consider it an item of news I will not ask you to withhold it."

Mr. Hall then stated that he had engaged in an official capacity with the Wood, Putnam & Wood Co. of Boston, but that he will still continue to make his home in Lowell. No one has yet been named as Mr. Hall's successor.

SOLDIER BOY SHOT AND KILLED IN GUARD TENT

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 13.—Leo C. Graham, of Frankfort, Mass., a private in the Thirty-first Michigan Infantry, was shot and fatally wounded in the guard tent of that regiment by Alvin Sauer, a member of the guard of that regiment, early last evening. Some mystery appears to surround the manner in which he met his death. Officers of his regiment say he was accidentally wounded, but surgeons who tried to save his life and who talked with him prior to his death think he was shot as the result of a card game.

Graham's regiment is now on a hike with the tenth army division, but he and Sauer, having been confined to the guard for a number of days, were left behind with other prisoners.

Last evening just before 5 o'clock a report of a rifle was heard in the guard tent, and Graham immediately afterward staggered out of the tent and fell in the road, near by. Blood poured from holes in his back and chest, the bullet having entered the back on the right side and emerged through the chest on the left side.

Guards ran over to the Ninth Massachusetts regiment headquarters, a few yards away, and asked for medical assistance. Lieutenant Joseph O'Connor, a Worcester physician, a line officer in the Ninth, hurried to the wounded man's assistance, giving orders at the same time that the doctors of the division hospital be notified.

ROMANIAN KING MAKES APPEAL TO ALLIES

PRAYS THAT ALLIES WILL NOT PERMIT HIS COUNTRY TO SUFFER FATE OF BELGIUM

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Times publishes an interview given to its correspondent with the Romanian king, which the monarch appeals to the allies not to permit his country to suffer the fate of Serbia and Belgium. "The Romanians will not falter," the king said, "in their allegiance to the cause, nor can the enemy wear them from their faith in their allies. Yet the Romanians pray that in spite of their isolating exigencies and their own large problems the allies will not allow the affairs of Rumania, who has staked her all in this conflict to pass into the hands of their enemies and to suffer her to meet the fate of either Belgium or Serbia."

King Ferdinand said Rumania had been moved to enter the war by her expediency but that her decision was based on the biggest principles of nationality. "Against Germany," continued his majesty, "there was, at the beginning of the war, no hostility, rather perhaps friendship, for economically Germany was an asset to the development of our industry and a potent instrument in forwarding the prosperity of our country. But with the progress of the war, Rumania began to feel the subtle forces of enemy intrigues, endeavoring in every way to force us into the struggle against our own real interests.

"If Rumania has been criticized heretofore, let the world consider her position. A small power with a small army surrounded by giants faced a most difficult problem. With a western frontier nearly seven hundred miles long, which alone was greater than the English and French frontiers combined, and Bulgarian frontiers, almost unguarded and near her capital, stretching for other hundreds of miles to the south, she had to await the time when she could act with real assurance of protecting herself and of having the support of her allies."

"A small country in a great war, which promises to last for at least another year, faces certainly internal sacrifice and the consumption of her resources. But such is the confidence of Rumania in the justice of her cause and the faith of her allies that she has cast her lot with them in the conviction that her great associates will see that she does not prove to be the third small power destroyed in this great conflict."

THE IRON GATE IS LAST DEFILE OF THE DANUBE

OPENING OF WATERWAY OCCASION FOR GREAT CELEBRATION—3 MONARCHS PARTICIPATED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct.—The Iron Gate, the last great defile of the Danube in its course to the Black Sea and the first point at which the Austrians launched an offensive against their new enemies, the Romanians, is described in the following way geographically by the National Geographic society issued today:

"Contrary to the general belief of readers to whom the term 'Iron Gate of the Danube' is familiar, this famous defile of the chief waterway of Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria and Serbia does not derive its name from the precipitous walls of rock through which the waters dash in a narrow channel, as at the Kazan Defile, but from the dangerous boulders that fairly litter the river bed for a distance of nearly two miles, beginning at the once strongly fortified island of Ada Kaleh, which was captured by Hungary in 1878 and is still inhabited by a picturesque colony of 500 Turks. Opposite this island, on the left bank of the Danube and at the mouth of the inconspicuous Bachina river, which here forms the Hungarian-Rumanian boundary, is the attractive little Rumanian customs village of Feciorova, the Buda-pest-Bucharest railway, 237 miles west of the latter city."

"It was not until 1890 that work was begun in a definite and comprehensive manner to rid the Iron Gate of some of its gravest dangers. In 1900, a Hungarian engineering company undertook the and stomach trouble.

While talking to Mr. Healy the

Tintie Man at William L. Davis

Cos. Drug Store, Worcester, Mr.

Pilz said:

"I have suffered from indigestion and acid stomach, also catarrh of the head which gave me a great deal of trouble. I have suffered from catarrh of the head for so long, I thought it was chronic, nothing seemed to give me any relief. After eating an acid liquid would back up in my throat and I belched a great deal of gas. I thought Tanlac because it was recommended to me by a friend in Louisville, Ky.

"Tanalac has put my stomach in line shape, inside of a week's time.

Just as soon as my stomach got well, of course my head commenced to clear up and today I feel perfectly well."

"I suffered so much that I am glad to tell anyone who has stomach trouble or catarrh of the head that Tanlac is certainly a medicine of great merit."

The above testimonial was witnessed the 21st day of June by Louis

Adams, master of the place. Continuing Mr. Pilz said:

"My stomach, the people of Worcester are certainly to be considered on the introduction of Tanalac into their homes. Tanlac is certainly one grand medicine. I have one thing and that is, Tanlac sells more on its merits than any other medicine I ever heard of. I am perfectly satisfied with what it has done for me. The public of Worcester ought to learn what a wonderful medicine Tanlac is. I can't say too much for it."

Tanalac is now being introduced in thereabout, a buffet lunch was served to invited guests, including the lieutenant governor, members of the governor's staff, visiting mayors and others. The mayor marched with Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, receiving a very flattering reception all along the line of march. Upon reaching city hall and while the parade was going up Moody street, his honor left the line and went over through the building, to the reviewing stand on the Merrimack street side. Lieutenant Governor Calvin Coolidge was received by the mayor and others at city hall, but because of a Boston engagement the lieutenant changes in it. The composition was specially dedicated to the Knights of Columbus. Dennis A. McCarthy, the poet-author and lecturer, who wrote the words for the march, was the guest of Mr. Gilday over the holiday and was with Mr. Gilday on the reviewing stand.

The Lowell aerie of Eagles and the Buffalo club had floats that attracted a great deal of attention and it was plain to be seen that a great deal of care had been exercised in their preparation. The Buffalo float represented Columbus greeting the Indians and was replete with Indians and Indian girls. It was a splendid feature and very appropriate. Riding on the Eagles' float were a number of little girls dressed in the national colors.

B. Drury, Commissioner Nowell F. Putnam, Commissioner William W. Duncan, Robert F. Marden, president of the board of trade, Henry T. Gilday, Dennis A. McCarthy of Boston, Daniel J. Gallagher of Boston, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, George C. Shields of Mansfield, master of the Fourth degree, K. of C. Mr. and Mrs. James F. O'Donnell, Mrs. James E. O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. James Healy, Miss Katherine Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Connor and Miss Dorothy Connor, Harold A. Varnum and Edward H. Foye, City Messenger Owen F. Monahan and others.

First Division
Supt. Redmond Welch and Capt. Thomas R. Atkinson were in advance ment all along the route.

Next in order came the Royal Club Italian band of Lawrence which headed the St. Anthony of India society, Italian, of this city. Large banners of green and red and American flags were carried by the members of the Michelene society, Portuguese, which was headed by the Nafao Portuguese band of this city.

The Royal Italian band of Lawrence headed the Christoforo Colombo society and following this organization came the Bellini band of Lawrence, the members wearing long white ostrich plumes in their hats. The St. Jose Portuguese society was next in order, there being about 250 members in line. As this organization was passing the reviewing stand they uncovered their heads and waved the small American flags which they carried.

Next in line came the German-American club which had about one hundred men in line.

One of the features of this division was the showing made by the Benevolent Order of Burialists who besides having a large number of members in line they had a float which represented the first greetings to Columbus extended by the Indians. There were numerous outriders made up as Indians, cowboys and cowgirls.

Fourth Division
The fourth or civic division was headed by Cornelius J. O'Neill and John J. Gilbride was the chief of staff.

The American band was at the head of this division and then came the members of the Young Men's Catholic Institute, with President John Cox leading. Rev. Frs. L. F. Tighe and O. P. McQuaid, O.M.I., occupied a barouche.

Ess' band of Lawrence led about 400 members of the Holy Name society of St. Michael's church. Rev. Francis J. Mullin, chaplain of the society, headed the line.

The Mathew Temperance Institute was headed by the South End drum corps. Patrick Kane and Edward F. Slattery were prominent figures at the head of the line.

Next came the Hellenic band of this city after which were about 100 Boy Scouts headed by Scout Executive Luther W. Faulkner and Executive Alex. Williams. Large scout flags and the American colors were very conspicuous.

Next came the Butler Vets hauling their band tub and after the veterans came the Lowell fire department, headed by Chief Edward F. Saunders and District Chiefs James C. Sullivan and Daniel H. Crowley, followed by about 75 men in uniform.

Then came the fire machines including nine pieces of motor apparatus and twenty pieces of horse-drawn apparatus.

Fifth Division
The fifth division of the parade was made up of members of the Knights of Columbus, the greater part coming from cities and towns of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Flittingly enough, owing to the name they bear, the knights made the most impressive showing of the parade, and their splendid appearance was widely commented on by the people along the line of march.

Thomas B. Delaney was chief marshal of the division with Walter H. Hickey as his chief of staff. Both men had worked untiringly for the success of the day, and the result was due to their efforts. Twenty mounted aids, among whom was Rev. W. George Mullin of St. Peter's followed, and music was supplied by the Lowell Military band.

The chief aids to Marshal Delaney were P. J. Garity and John A. Hart, the aids were: James J. Donahue, Boston, representing Bishop Cheverus assembly; James D. McKee, Manchester, N. H.; William H. Lomenager, Manchester, N. H.; John F. Reynolds and Peter Graham, Lawrence; P. J. Sweeney and Arthur Walsh, Haverhill; Thomas Collins, Newburyport; T. F. McDonald; Amosbury; Charles McCue, Mystic Nobles of Granada, Boston, and the following from Lowell: Christopher J. McSorley, William Gallagher, Patrick Cogger, Mark McCann, Thomas Tobin, George Tobin, Joseph E. O'Neill, John Lawton, Jr., John Lawton, Sr., John P. Roane, Jr., and James Reynolds.

After the chief marshal and his staff came the impressive Bishop Cheverus assembly four degree of Boston. There were over 200 in line and all wore tall hats, frock coats, swords, and the effect was magnificent. The men were led by the master, Frank Ferguson, faithful navigator of the assembly, walked at the head.

The Mystic Nobles of Granada, headed by St. Mary's Cardinal Cadet band of 30 pieces, afforded a picturesque feature. The men wore red fez caps and as they passed the reviewing stand they made a deep salaam. Bunker Hill council followed, headed by a Charlestown band.

An impressive showing was made by Manchester, N. H. council, which was next in line with the Manchester military band. Grand Knight Charles McKee was in command, and Joseph Cyr followed with a delegation from Nashua council.

One of the largest groups in the division was the Lawrence council, headed by Dr. James Fleming. The eighth regiment drum corps furnished the music. Grand Knight Bernard L. McDonald led the Andover council. Haverhill council, with the Haverhill Military band, made a good showing. Daniel P. Fitzgerald led the contingent. The Haverhill City band led the Knights from Newburyport, its specialty being spirited Irish music that was roundly applauded all along the route. Joseph O'Donnell was in charge of the Newburyport men.

Amesbury council was headed by the Haverhill Brass band, and after them came members of the fourth degree Waltham under Grand Knight Charles McKee. The Amesbury council was commanded by Grand Knight Hurley.

At the close of the division were the Lowell Knights who made a showing of which the city might be proud. The Salem Light Infantry band of 30 pieces played the "National Emblem" as they went by the reviewing stand, and there with over 300 men in line. District Deputy William F. Thornton headed the group with Grand Knight Joseph P. Bourke. Mr. Thornton as chairman of the executive committee was one of the hardest workers for the success of the parade and Thomas B. Delaney and Walter Hickey were also untiring workers. Dr. Hugh Walker appeared as faithful navigator of the fourth degree which made a very impressive showing.

Entertained Visiting Councils
The local council Knights of Columbus had made ample arrangements for the entertainment of out-of-town delegations, and their efforts were appreciated. Bishop Cheverus assembly, Bunker Hill council, the Mystic Nobles and others were served luncheon in the high school annex, and enough food was left over to feed a regiment. The men from Lawrence and Andover were served at the hall of the street railway annex, Haverhill and Amesbury marchers got lunch at the rooms of the Y.M.C.A. and those from Manchester, Nashua, Waltham, etc., were served in St. Patrick's school hall on Suffolk street. Provision had been made for 2500 persons and the food left over was sent to charitable institutions of the city. Both as paraders and as hosts the local knights established a high reputation and the men from out-of-town were loud in their praise of their enthusiastic and kind reception.

The Decorations
The decorations along the route of the parade were magnificent, many of the business men having decorated the front of their establishments in a very elaborate way. City hall was aglow with numerous American flags, one floating from each window and this scene was very attractive. The committee in charge of the parade having been left with $50, which had been intended for the hire of an extra band, and which was found not to be needed, spent the money by having the poles of the Bay State Street Railway Co. decorated from Tower's corner to city hall, the decorations of national colors extending out from the pole arms over the streets.

parade was presented at St. Michael's on Sixth street where over 300 children were lined in tiers in front of the building all waving American flags as the parade passed by. It is usual in such cases that the spectators applaud the paraders but in this instance many of those in the parade clapped hands as they passed in recognition of the beautiful scene presented. Standing behind the children were the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw and Rev. Fr. Lynch, one of his assistants. Several of the Dominican sisters in charge of the school were also seen in the background. The building was elaborately decorated as were the parental residence and the sisters' convent.

While the children were awaiting the parade they sang a number of patriotic songs and ended the occasion immediately. Chief Marshal James expressed his admiration of the spectacle presented by the children and in this he voiced the sentiments of all in line.

M'CALL SAYS STATE TAX LESS BY $1,725,000
GARDNER, Oct. 12.—Gov. McCall at a republican rally held here last night discussed his administration and declared that the state government had made real progress upon important lines, which could not be paralleled in recent years.

"The contribution of the cities and towns to the state under the tax of the present year, is $1,725,000 less than a year ago," Mr. McCall said. "From mounting upward the rising flight of the state tax has been stopped and it has abruptly declined. The contribution of Gardner is nearly $5000 less than a year ago."

Gov. McCall said with regard to the questions affecting the workingman, it had been his aim to deal with them in a spirit of the utmost fairness. Nothing permanent could be based on injustice. He said the principle of the workmen's compensation act had been maintained.

"I take satisfaction in having supported both in the committee of ways and means and upon the floor of the house legislation doing away with the hideous disease growing out of the manufacture of white phosphorus matches, and the same energetic treatment would do away," he said, "with similar evils growing out of our industrial system and without the slightest injury to anybody."

TWO KILLED AND ONE INJURED IN AUTO MISHAP
HOOKSET, N. H., Oct. 12.—Deloide Proulx and Ernest Paquin, both of Manchester, were killed when their automobile skidded in a sandy stretch of road here yesterday and was overturned, throwing them on a pile of rocks. Antonio Provost of Nashua, driver of the car, sustained a fracture of the skull.

ant governor was obliged to leave before the parade reached city hall.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield, democratic nominee for governor, was on hand, having made the trip from Boston by auto. He first called at Mr. Humphrey O'Sullivan's headquarters in the Associate building and then went to city hall where he met several of his friends and admirers. It was not the time, day nor place to talk politics and to the question as to how things were lining up for the campaign, the stalwart, smiling Mansfield answered "beautifully." That was the nearest approach to politics spoken at city hall.

One of the features of the occasion and a very pleasant and important one, especially to the composer, was the playing by at least three of the bands of the march "Columbian," composed by Henry T. Gilday of this city. The march was eagerly awaited everywhere and gave great satisfaction, though Mr. Gilday, after the parade, stated that he would make some

The float held big bouquets of flowers placed on the top of pillars with a monster eagle, wings expanded, keeping watch over all and ready to swoop down at a moment's notice.

The procession formed on Highland and Thordike streets and proceeded to Davis square, to Gorham street, to Appleton street, to South, to Middlesex, to Central, to Merrimack, to Bridge and across central bridge, to Fifth street, to Read, to Sixth, to Bridge, to Merrimack square, to Merrimack street, to Moody street, to Allen street, to Merrimack street where the line was reviewed at city hall and later dismissed at Dutton street. The route was about three miles long. But for the countermarch those in line would have seen but little of the procession. It took 50 minutes to pass a given point at a brisk marching gait.

On the reviewing stand were Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield, Mayor Hurley of Lawrence, Mayor Bartlett of Haverhill, Capt. James N. Greig, Hon. John

of the parade. They rode in a wagon and passed the reviewing stand at just 2 o'clock. That was about one hour and twenty-five minutes after the parade started. Following them were two mounted police officers, John Clark and John Kelley. A platoon of eight police, commanded by Capt. James Brownson, led the parade, and a finer or better drilled platoon was never seen in Lowell.

Chief Marshal Walter R. Jeyes wore the uniform of a captain of the National Guard. Lieut. Winifred C. MacDermott was chief of staff and Thomas J. O'Donnell, chief aid. The chief marshal had a mounted staff of 20 aids, representatives from the various divisions in line.

The approach of the first, or military division, was made known by a little Boy Scout, carrying a marker. Then came the Sixth Regiment band, Z. I. Bissette, chief musician. The band was playing the "Columbian" march. The battalion of militia, composed of Companies K, C and G of the Sixth regiment was commanded by Major Colby T. Kittredge, with Lieut. Schuyler R. Waller as adjutant. Company K was commanded by Lieut. Melvin E. Metter, Company G was commanded by Lieut. Thomas Doyle, and Company C was under command of Lieut. James J. Powers. The men wore the fatigue khaki uniforms and marched splendidly. Their military bearing and fine appearance elicited great applause all along the route.

Second Division
The second division composed of semi-military organizations was headed by Gilbert W. Hunt of the Spanish War Veterans as marshal and Col. Albert Bergeron of the Second regiment, F.A. V.B. of the U. S., as chief of staff, and proved to be one of the most attractive in line, for the marching of the various organizations, particularly that of the French Meteries was perfect, while the various handsome uniforms worn by the companies in line presented a pretty scene.

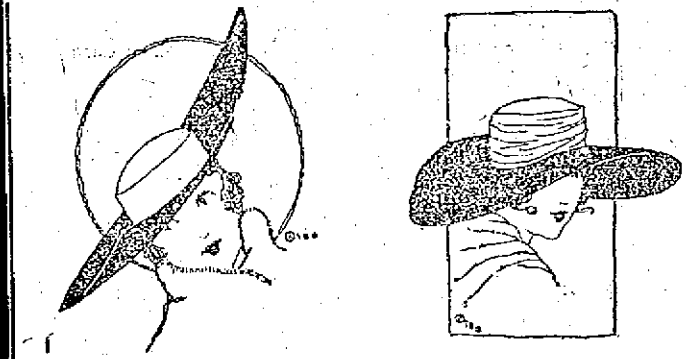

This division was headed by the U. S. Cartridge Co.'s band, which while passing the reviewing stand played the "Columbian" march. The band was perfect, while the various handsome uniforms worn by the companies in line presented a pretty scene.

A battalion of Irish guards with Major Daly in command came next headed by the Fifth Irish Regiment Drum corps. This battalion was composed of the Wolfe Tone, Sheridan and Meagher guards and their marching was good. Next in line were the French Cadets and a battalion of the A. G. Cadets, all connected with the French-American Volunteer brigade of the United States, and this section of the parade made a decided hit, receiving considerable applause all along the route for their excellent marching and general appearance.

The first company in line was Garde Frontenac with Lieut. Alphonse Vallier in command. Then came Garde Sacre-Coeur, Capt. Horace Deslattes; Garde d'Honneur followed next with Capt. Nelson Phillips in command and Garde St. Louis, Capt. Arsene Guy. The A.G. Cadets' battalion of four companies with Major Heffernan in command and Garde Nationale of Haverhill, Capt. A. St. Jean, took up the rear of the French companies. The Cadets were headed by the A.G. Cadets' brass band, J. B. A. Lebrun, leader. Company P of the Boys' Brigade of the First Congregational church came next and they were followed by the O.M.I. Cadets' "army," in command of Major William Connors. The boys turned out in large numbers and were preceded by 18 mounted orderlies and scouts. The O.M.I. Drum Corps furnished music for this organization, which received favorable comment throughout the route of the parade.

Third Division
Patrick J. McCann was marshal of the third or fraternal division and he had a large mounted staff. Following the staff came the Spindis City band which led the first section of the parade. In this section was a float containing little girls who were attired in the national colors. The float was decorated in an artistic manner, many bouquets surmounting the pillars.

The second section of the Eagles was headed by St. Mary's Cadet drum corps of Lawrence. There were about 500 members of the Eagles in line and they presented an excellent appearance, keeping good step and align-

KINGSTONIAN NOT A SUBMARINE VICTIM

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—Rumors that the British steamer Kingstonian was not among the victims of the German U-boat off Nantucket, Sunday, were confirmed yesterday, when John H. Thomas, Boston manager of the International Mercantile Marine, owner of

RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS, AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you must injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forns gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes its promptness, certainly and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

the Kingstonian, stated that he had received advice that the Kingstonian was at a far distant port on a trip for the British admiralty. He stated he could not name the port.

It is now certain that the toll of the German raider was five instead of six steamers. It is thought the story of the sinking of the Kingstonian was the result of an error in transmitting the news of the sinking of the Christian Knudsen, the Norwegian steamer which was destroyed by a U-boat. Last night the group of British steamers at this port which has been in effect since the news of the raider's activities was received here early Sunday, was broken when the steamer Corunna sailed from here for Louisburg, Cape Breton. The steamer brought a cargo of coal here and returned in light trim. The Leyland liner Monaghan, with a gigantic cargo, including nearly 100,000 bushels of grain, also sailed last night for Manchester, England.

Today the American steamer Kanawha will leave port for St. Nazaire, France, and Genoa, Italy, taking out 1500 horses and a large consignment of steel. Her delay here has been costly to her charterers, the France-Canada line, for the vessel costs them $2200 a day whether she lies at a dock or is ploughing her way through the Atlantic.

No orders have been received concerning the sailing of the steamer Great City or the Lord Cromer. The Murengo of the Wilson line is expected to sail this morning for Hull, England, via New York.

Yesterday morning, the White Star liner Canopus with more than 1400 passengers from Mediterranean ports and the Azores raced into port, completing the fastest passage she has ever made from the Azores to this port.

FOR CLEANER STREETS

Board of Trade Sends Out Request to Large Number of Merchants Relative to Disposal of Rubbish

The board of trade has sent out a communication to 670 merchants asking them to cease the practice of sweeping refuse into gutters, to sweep it into piles instead and pick up the refuse for deposit in barrels. The suggestion has been made to the board of trade that the public be induced to take a hand in this clean-up campaign, not alone the storekeepers but householders who often sweep refuse into the gutters.

The following is a copy of the letter sent out to the merchants:

Lowell, Mass. Oct. 6, 1916.

One item of the clean-up campaign now being planned for Lowell is something in which you and every storekeeper in Lowell can assist without cost or material difficulty. With you not instruct your sweeper not to brush anything from the sidewalks into the street, but rather to accumulate all refuse, whether inside or out, in proper refuse barrels to be carried away. Every ounce of litter or rubbish that is swept into the street simply transfers the nuisance from one location to another, and remains equally offensive to you and to the public. We believe the streets and sidewalks can be kept clean, but that they cannot be so long as the sidewalk accumulations are swept into the street.

The board of trade committee desires your hearty co-operation. The committee feels that it is not asking much, but that the effect of the general adoption of this sweep-up idea established, will be tremendously effective in helping the city to keep clean.

We ask your co-operation.

Yours respectfully,

John H. Murphy,

THE LADY'S WORKBAG

The gift drawer is the thing now and into it go all pretty boxes, pieces of ribbon, scraps of silk, tissue paper and articles that do not seem to fit into any particular place in the home. Any gift suggestions clipped from magazines or paper should go into a labelled envelope. Many pieces of finished handiwork and gifts picked up now and then.

A dainty envelope-shaped case for a nightdress, made of fine white pique and embroidered in white, is a very acceptable gift and one that most of us have felt the need of when traveling. The edges may be scalloped and the flap finished with initials, or they may be a design for eyelids and solid work if you have time and courage for something more elaborate.

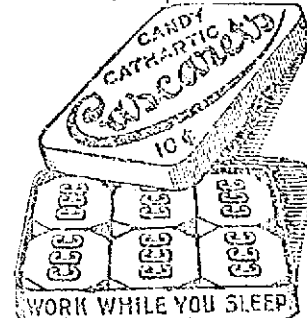

When hemstitching, if after the hems are basted, the corners are worked first and then the edges, you will find that there is no trouble in having the work slip along and making the corners uneven.

To prevent the finger from becoming pricked when hemming or embroidering, put a small piece of surgeon's adhesive plaster over it. This plaster can be easily removed, and a roll may be kept in the work basket for this purpose. This device is much more practical than the celluloid and silver finger shields that can be bought.

CASCARETS SELL TWENTY MILLION BOXES PER YEAR

Best, safest cathartic for liver and bowels, and people know it.

WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Tonight sure! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the pleasant, liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or bother you all the next day like calomel, salts and pills. They act gently but thoroughly. Mothers should give Cascarets, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascarets any time. They are harmless and children love them.

On the beach your bathing costume may have the most conventional of skirts, along with a daintily trimmed bodice in the prevailing style for swimming costumes but as soon as you are in water up to your hips you can turn the conventional skirt into comfortable swimming bloomers in a twinkling.

The skirt overlaps at the front and back and there are stopping panels or revers which run from the belt to the hem at each side of the front and the back centre, and button to the skirt with snap fasteners or loops and buttons.

When in the water these panels may be snapped or buttoned to each other at either side of the skirt, the panel at the front fastening to the panel at the back and the fullness at the side of the skirt is held close against the leg, bloomer fashion.

Under this clever skirt is a short, scantily cut bloomer attached to the knee with an elastic strap and buckle. In black or navy pussy willow taffeta with trimmings of striped satin this suit is particularly fetching.

Where baby is concerned, crocheting is very much to the fore—quite as much so as embroidery. It is doubtful whether very small babies will ever wear anything but crocheted socks, for there is not anything that is quite so comfy. The small sock offers opportunity for the crocheter, for baby can't have too many pairs.

These socks may be all white or of the palest blue and pink, or they may be white ornamented with one or the two colors. It is quite an easy matter to prolong the sock into a stocking both for the little baby or for the somewhat older baby.

In home dressmaking a very important point to remember, especially in making coats and skirts, is the frequent use of the iron. Unless the seams are carefully pressed with a hot iron over a damp cloth the garment, however well cut, will have an amateur look.

Every sheer dress material should be pressed on a soft surface and without dampening.

A good play dress for a child can be made from a man's worn shirt. Cut in kimono style and the work is very little, not to mention the saving in the young one's clothes.

A travelling convenience that is as useful at home as abroad is made after the manner of the old-time needle book that rolled up. The foundation of it is a strip of ribbon about six inches wide and 20 inches long. Lay this flat and cover it with the thick, nesses of cotton batting; put a layer of coarse white flannel next to this and then one of orange hole and white net. Bind the edges together with a satin ribbon matching the outside of the convenience, and then turn up four or five inches of the bottom of the strip and tick the ends to form a pocket. About five inches from the top put a pin cushion with corners reaching to the edges; have this on each side and the dress is ready to wear. A strip of white thread, a third of a paper of needles and a fine pair of scissors are needed things for the pocket, or it could contain several packages or assorted hairpins. A ribbon sewed to the top which is cut in a point is tied about the convenience when it is rolled for traveling.

Among the collection of French neckwear is a very dainty collar and vestee which is given a very unusual appearance by having a triangular and square eyelets embroidered lavishly, instead of oval and round ones. The most difficult part about embroidering the new eyelets is to keep its regular form, but a little practice will soon make this possible. The square and triangular eyelets are made in the same way as the round eyelets. They are first outlined with a running stitch, the linen is then clipped and turned back with the needle to the wrong side, and the work is then done closely to the run-in line.

Eyelets of these shapes are not only effective on neckwear. They will serve beautifully to decorate tea, napkins, aprons, linen cases and centre pieces.

The woman who knows how to crocheted buttons of the material and embroidered in combinations of colors. When covering a mold with silk, first cover the top with a thin layer of cotton wadding, cut just a little larger than the mold and caught in around the edge with loose stitches. The silk must be cut in a circle nearly twice as wide in diameter as the diameter of the mold itself.

A good way to do is to cut a paper pattern—a circle of paper the correct size—then cut all the silk pieces like this. After the silk is cut it can be decorated in any pretty way you choose.

LEANNESS OF WAR TIMES

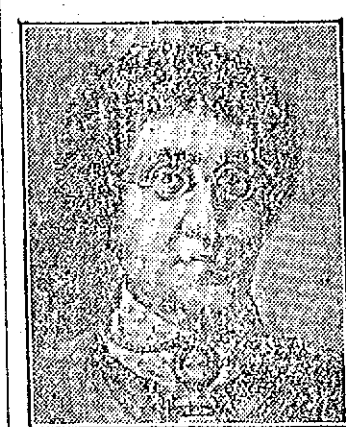

LONDON, Oct.—Is the national English type becoming thinner than it used to be? Professor Keith, before the British association at Newcastle, said that John Bull is reflecting in his physical being something of the leanness of war-times.

Professor Keith told the association that the face of the typical Englishman is becoming longer and thinner. London is now full of colonial soldiers—bronzed, spare, lean, aquiline and with prominent cheekbones, and the speaker infers that the English type in the future will come nearer in their faces to approximating these visitors than the bluff, country squire, John Bull.

It is pointed out that the typical "City Man" or financial district business man is becoming thinner than was his father. The farmer has lost his plumpness. The retired army officer is a sparer figure. Even the country squire—the last survival of the now fast-disappearing England—bears a closer resemblance to Don Quixote than to John Bull.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The British steamship City of Madras was overhauled off Ambrose channel lightship last night by the United States torpedo boat destroyer Sterrett and brought back to Chilton, Staten Island, after she had ignored the war vessel's signal to stop when she left quarantine.

Red Sox Again Win World's Championship by Completely Outclassing Brooklyn Dodgers

(By Sporting Editor of Sun)

Hail to the Red Sox, champions of the world!

By defeating Brooklyn yesterday by the score of 4 to 1 and thereby making it four out of five victories, the Sox again captured the highest honors in America's greatest game. Again the American league team triumphed over the National league entry, and again it was demonstrated that superior team work could smother individual slugging.

The greatest gathering in the history of the game, over 42,000 people, saw the fourth downfall of Brooklyn in five playing days and cheered with enthusiasm as the Boston batters hammered their way to a decisive victory.

Win Without Spoke and Barry

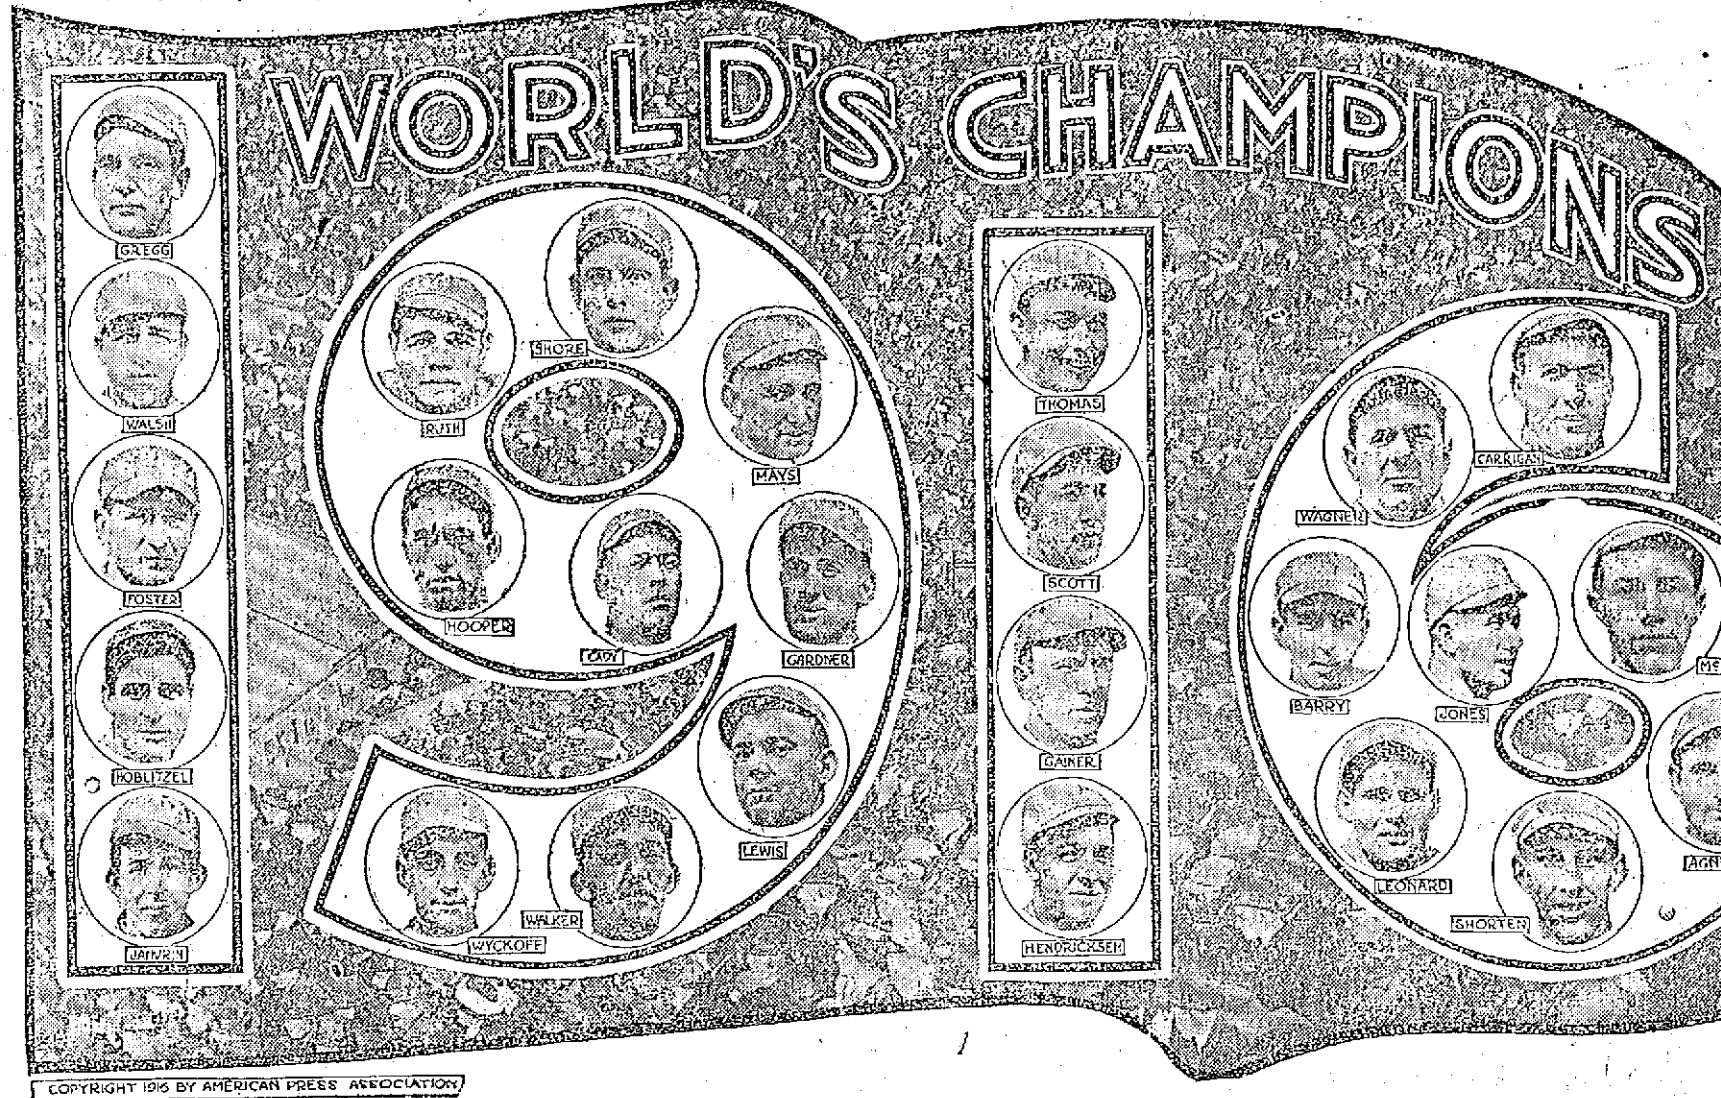

The Boston club, despite the loss of the great Speaker and the injury that incapacitated the brainy and brilliant Barry, showed during the series and the entire season that it is a genuinely smart ball club, game to the core and one that fights hardest when in the most desperate predicament.

To another club the "holes" created by the absence of two such stars would undoubtedly cause it to fall to pieces, but not so with the clan of Carrigan. Under the magnificent leadership of this brilliant manager they went into the games with the determination seldom if ever equaled by any ball club. While in their own league they encountered more strenuous opposition than ever before, they battered down these obstacles and then by completely routing the Brooklyn team they again rose to the highest pinnacle in baseball's hall of fame.

Tribute to Carrigan

Bill Carrigan, who led his team to this remarkable accomplishment, has, according to reports, ended his career as a baseball leader, and in his departure the game sustains a great loss. He has proven one of the greatest leaders the game has ever produced. He performed miracles with his charges. He said little, but thought much; he rarely attacked a player, but often praised him; he studied his men and his adversaries, and he knew all that he could get and he got it. He never lost faith in his players and they reciprocated, and he leaves the game with the respect of friend and foe alike.

Carrigan won two pennants and two world's championships as boss of the

Shore in Great Form

Long Ernle Shore had the honor of pitching the game that brought the title to the Red Sox. This lanky slabin, who opened the big classic and twirled a fine game for eight innings and retired with his team still leading, came back yesterday and gave a spectacular exhibition of pitching. He pitched one of the very best games ever shown in a world's series. But two legitimate hits were made off his pitching in nine innings. One scratch and clean singles by Mowrey and Stengel were all that the leading hitting team of the National league could accumulate. Shore passed but one man. His control was perfect and his fielding, especially his covering of first, was of a high order.

Janvyn Came Through

Janvyn, the youthful substitute for Barry, again came through with flying colors. He not only fielded his position in a Larry, but he connected with two hits, one a two-bagger. With Duffy Lewis, who also made two hits, he shared the honors of leading slink artist.

Janvyn's double and a three-bagger

by Lewis were the only extra base hits of the game. Scott, whose fielding up to yesterday had been sensational, made his first misplay of the series in the final game. He made two errors, but also executed several clever plays. Gardner, the home run king, failed to get a hit yesterday, but his fielding was especially good. Shorten contributed an opportune bingle, as did Cady and Hooper.

Wheat's Remarkable Catch

For Brooklyn, Big Jeff Pfeffer essayed the task of stopping the onrush of the Sox, but his efforts proved futile. While he pitched a fair game, his support was erratic and the inferior players around second, which was off color throughout the series, proved disastrous. While Wheat failed to come up to expectations in the series he contributed the fielding feature of the game yesterday. He made a wonderful catch of a blow off Shore's timber in the fifth inning. His throwing, however, was very mediocre and his fielding of Lewis' hit in the second was not up to the standard. This crack should have been cut down to a single, but by Wheat allowing the ball to go by him, it was converted into a triple.

Olsen's Playing On Color

Olsen at shortstop again fell down and he had the distinction of making two errors yesterday and it was the turning point of the game. With one out and first and second occupied by Cady and Hooper respectively and two strikes on Janvyn, Janny hit a bouncer to Olsen. With a double play in sight, the Dodger shortstop juggled the ball and then made a wild toss to Cady to force Hooper, with the result that Cady scored and Hooper went to third. Hooper later scored on Shorten's single. This was the break that brought ultimate victory to the Red Sox.

Chief Meyers, caught a good game for the vanquished team and worked hard to steady his mates. His efforts were in vain and he again emerged

Scenes at Game

The scenes attending the final game were inspiring. The vast multitudes, which formed a hedge of humanity around the largest ball park in the world, included many famous men and women, who came from all parts of the country to see the final struggle. Representatives from practically every state in the union, with newspapermen from Canada and even Cuba occupied seats in the elevated press box. Music was furnished throughout the game and when the band played the national anthem all stood and uncov-ered. This was a most beautiful spectacle. And when the final play was executed the band marched on the field and headed a parade around the massive grounds. Cheers for the winners and cheers for the losers were given. The Brooklyn players, led by Manager Robinson then rushed over to the Boston dugout and congratulated the victors. President Ebbets of

WAGON MARK LOWERED BY TROTTER STALLION

GREAT MILE AT LEXINGTON BY LEE AXWORTHY—COX THE BEST MONEY WINNER

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 13.—Lee Axworthy, champion trotting stallion of the world, driven to a wagon by one of his owners, Harry K. Devereux of Cleveland, yesterday lowered the wagon record of 2:05 1/4 for trotting stallions to 2:02 1/4 at the meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association.

Volga, champion 2-year-old mare, started to beat her mark of 2:04 1/4, but tired in the stretch after trotting the third quarter in 2:01 1/4 and completed the mile in 2:05 1/4.

The three races on the card were won in straight heats. Locust Blue took the 2:20 trot, Little Frank D the 2:10 pace and Binville the 2:12 trot. Valentine held the reins on Little Frank D and Locust Blue, putting him up among the leading drivers of the meeting. Cox leads the list with eight victories and Murphy is second with six.

In the first heat of the 2:10 pace The Deputy Sheriff fell going up the back stretch. Whitehead, driving Hal Leaf, was thrown, but was not injured.

WORLD'S SERIES MELON DIVIDED TODAY

PLAYERS MET AT FENWAY PARK AND SHARED SPOILS—CARRIGAN'S CHECK CALLS FOR $97,750.47

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—Melon cutting for the Boston Red Sox occurred at the club dressing room at Fenway park at noon today. Manager Carrigan dressed in haste after the game yesterday, pausing only before he left the field to empty his managerial satchel of baseballs, old and new, which he tossed into the crowd for souvenirs.

He hurried to the quarters of the National commission, whose members were lessening no time in hastening back to the lights of Broadway and Chicago. He received a certified check for the entire amount due the Boston players, 60 per cent of the receipts of the first four games, $97,750.47. This check is made payable to Carrigan's order, and he will deposit it at a local banking institution, receiving in exchange a new check book, with which he will return to the clubhouse gathering.

Practically all of the players will receive each a full share. It is reported that Herman Wagner and Vean Gregg will divide one and three-fourths shares, and that Pennock will be given a quarter share. Wyckoff and Walsh will divide one share, according to the same report.

The players voted on the question of division, and it is understood that Foster easily made a fine impression on his teammates by a speech in which he advocated an even break for everybody. The players were unanimous in voting Little Biley in on the cut, and prices will be made up for various attaches of the club out of the players' share.

TRACK RECORD CUT

TAUNTON, Oct. 13.—The Taunton Gentlemen's Driving club had its last meet of the season yesterday. W. J. Minkley of Providence driving Tony Jane and Barbara B. lowered the track record of 1:58 1/2.

In the bicycle events, R. M. Tenney of Revere won the mile race in 2:04 1/2, and J. J. Flynn of Whitestville from scratch won the five-mile handicap in 14m. 21 3/4.

SOME CLOSE FINISHES

WEYMOUTH, Oct. 13.—Close finishes featured the racing at the special holiday matinee meet of the Old Colony Gentlemen's Driving club at South Weymouth yesterday afternoon.

In the 2:17 class it required four heats to decide the winner, with Spir-it coming from sixth place in the first heat, beating out True Sail by small margins in the second and third and then leading the procession all away around the fourth mile.

In the free-for-all, pacing, the gelding Northern Spy won the fast two heats in 1:57 1/2 each, the fastest time of the afternoon, but was unable to repeat and the Lovando took the next three and the race. Spirit raced a mile in 2:19 1/4, the fastest of the meet.

FELTMAN MAY BUY ROBINS

Charles L. Feltman, proprietor of Feltman's restaurant in Coney Island and prominent business man of Brooklyn, may soon become the owner of the Brooklyn Nationals.

"I had a long talk with Mr. Ebbets about the sale of the Brooklyn club in Boston," said Mr. Feltman. "I have nothing definite to say on the matter. I believe that the owners of the Brooklyn club will take the matter under consideration."

According to one of the officials of the club, its franchise is worth $500,000 and the plant at Ebbets field $250,000.

President Ebbets controls 51 per cent of the common stock and Steve and Ed McKeever the remaining 49 per cent. There is $10,000 in preferred stock outstanding.

CARRIGAN TO RUN FOR MAYOR OF LEWISTON

LEWISTON, Oct. 13.—Bill Carrigan, the man who has given Boston two world's championship baseball teams, may or may not retire from baseball. Just now this is uncertain, and it may be a couple of months before the final decision comes. That it will come then is assured, for by that time Bill Carrigan expects to be mayor of his home city, Lewiston, Me.

Some Campaigning
If Bill is elected mayor, and there is every reason to believe he will be, it is quite likely he will retire from baseball, for up to date there never has been a mayor of any place holding down that job and acting as manager of a big league club.

Bill's campaign for mayor will be handled by himself, and as Boston fans know Bill is some campaigner. He is to be the standard bearer of the democrats and, although Maine was swept by the republicans in its recent election, people in Lewiston feel positive that when the day for the city election rolls around it will be a complete reversal—a clean sweep for Carrigan—something like the one he and his team mates have just handed the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Meets Fans After Game
At the conclusion of the game yesterday Manager Bill met many of the fans who have been his most ardent admirers and his most ardent admirers that he is to retire from baseball. In fact he let it be known that yesterday was his final appearance in professional baseball, and that he could find no more fitting way to observe his retirement than win a world's championship.

When the news that Carrigan was to retire became known in Boston, the team was on the road fighting hard for first place, and many fans were of the opinion that the announcement would untie the Red Sox and force them out of the race. Instead, the Red Sox plugged all the harder, and with Bill leading them they went into the den of the Tiger and the lair of the White Sox, and emerged victorious, holding aloft the American league pennant—another tribute to Carrigan's leadership.

Jack Barry May Be Manager
Rumors have had it that Pat Donovan will be the manager of the team next year, but those who know their cars close to the ground believe that Jack Barry, this year's captain, will be the one to step into Carrigan's shoes. They point out that Carrigan's great work in the series has shown the Boston boy to be a capable second-sacker, so Lannin need not worry on that score. This one particular thing he must be sure to get in a manager who can keep the team at the top, and that Jack Barry can do this is practically certain.

NEW BEDFORD RACES
NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 13.—Seven races were held at Evergreen Track yesterday under the auspices of the New Bedford Driving Club. Chertoff Charley defeated Prince Glenn in straight heats in the fastest event of the day. Nydor won from a field of five starters in the 2.20 class.

LOWELL HIGH ELEVEN BLANKS ACADEMY BOYS

Lowell high completely outclassed the Lawrence academy of Groton in an uninteresting football game played at Spalding park before a crowd of 1000 or more yesterday morning. After 44 minutes of play during which the Lowell boys tore through their opponents line almost at will the score stood 54 to 0.

Once more the followers of the local high school team were impressed with its work and they expect to see one of the best teams that has represented the school in many seasons. The pronounced superiority of the back line has been evident in the three games played this season.

After the game had been won and the cheering squads had quieted down, Coach Conway sent 10 substitutes onto the field, withdrawing all the regulars except McCann but even the second team fairly outplayed the weak academy eleven.

Warren Mansur, a substitute back, kicked a field goal from the field, something that had not been done by a Lowell high man in several seasons. Capt. Liston's work was a feature of the game. He scored four touchdowns and looted five goals. The other members of the backfield, Lynch, Heathcock, Mansur and Mahoney, gave some flashy exhibitions while the front line held like so many stones.

The first period ended with Lowell 26 points to the good, they added 19 more in the second, four more in the third and 13 in the last.

The lineup and summary:

HENIGAN WINS BUNTING MARATHON RACE

James Henigan, running under the colors of the Dorchester, A.A., was an easy winner in the modified marathon race held yesterday in connection with the eighth athletic carnival of the United States Cricket club and Athletic association. In spite of the cold wind that swept across

JIMMY HENIGAN

Bunting park there were about 500 on hand to see Henigan finish and to watch the list of track events that followed.

The marathon was run over a course of 12 miles, starting at the Vesper Country club and finishing with five times around the Bunting track. Henigan, in a field of 12, started from scratch. His time for the course was 49 minutes and 18 seconds.

Henigan ran a great race and finished strong with a half lap lead over Merchant, the second man. Merchant's time was 51 minutes and 21 seconds. F. Nagel and J. Starr of the St. Alphonsus A.A. took second and third places, respectively. Nagel's time was 51 minutes and 35 seconds and Starr finished in 54 minutes and 14 seconds.

Following the marathon a program of track events was carried out. The events were all of a high class order and provided plenty of entertainment for the spectators.

One of the features was a pursuit race between Michael Murphy and William Shore. One of the participants started from in front of the grand stand and the other half way around the track. Shore won the race. The summary of the events follows:

TOFALOS THROWS VOGEL TWICE IN 8 MINUTES

Demetrius Tofalos, of Greece, wrestler, actor and singer, by using a flying body hold threw Carl Vogel of Germany to the mat in just eight minutes in one of three bouts staged at the Playhouse last evening. A half minute later Tofalos made the second fall, throwing Vogel by a waistlock.

The preliminary was between Jim Pappas of Lowell and John Carlson, the clever Boston boy. Both struggled for 30 minutes and tried to execute all sorts of holds and tricks but neither was successful. Pappas was given a great hand when he entered the ring for his match with Young Hackenschmidt of Boston. Pappas, who comes from this city, threw his opponent twice in nine minutes and his followers shook the theatre with applause.

The matches were refereed by Joseph Luttig, one time American middleweight champion of America. It was announced that Tofalos had accepted a challenge from Dr. B. F. Roller of New York City and that a match between the pair might be arranged for this city.

WITH THE PADDED MITTS

Pete Hartley of New York knocked out a boxer named Johnny Duffy, who was in three rounds in Lawrence last night. Duffy put up a miserable exhibition and the management announced during the progress of the bout that the coupons would be good for the October 25th meeting. Walter Bartlett of California stepped in to replace Duffy in four rounds in the semi-final. Bartlett shaped up as a likely performer during the short time that he was in the ring and will show at the same club shortly.

At last Phinney Boyle of this city is to meet Willie Jones, the tough and rugged New Yorker. The pair will meet in the main bout at the commercial A.C. tonight. For some time Jones manager has tried to arrange a bout with Boyle and while the latter was not under Manager Wagner there was not a chance. It seems strange that at this time Jones should be obtained to replace Tommy Slegan who withdrew earlier in the week.

FOOTBALL NOTES

The Lowell Textile school eleven will open its season against Haverhill high in the down river city tomorrow. Coach Dave Morley has put in a whole lot of hard work recently shaping up the team and he expects to make a good showing.

Lowell high will journey to Lynn tomorrow to meet the Lynn Classical team. The local boys realize that they have a harder game on than any played thus far this season, but feel confident that they will make another good showing.

SO, ENDS TO MEET C.M.A.C.

Tomorrow afternoon Spalding park will be the scene of another battle royal of the Pitts 50. End team. This time they will meet C.M.A.C. Both teams have defeated every team worth while and of any account, and are therefore, out to win. A fine stuntman is announced in the fact that they will play for a purse of $200. No doubt this will be the real championship game of the season. The probable batteries for Pitts are Devlin and Freeman; and for C.M.A.C. Constantineau and Sullivan. Both pitchers are in fine condition and of course confident of their game. The usual supporters are ready to back up and defend their players, and feel that the world's series has nothing on this contest. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

FOOTBALL GAME

The Indians will play the Orientals of Winthrop at Bunting park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. John Nelson will referee the game. Williams, a former Colby star, will appear in the Indian lineup. The following players are expected to report at Bunting street tonight at 7:30 for practice: E. Donnellan, J. Quinn, J. Gleason, J. Moran, J. McIntyre, M. Flynn, J. Flynn, G. Rogers, J. Mahoney, C. Desmond, W. Laurin, J. Morse, L. Pope, S. Poullet, R. Williams, F. Rogers, R. Donnellan.

DEFECT IN THE CHARTER

Our city charter has several very grave defects but perhaps the worst of all is the provision by which the heads of departments or the administrative officers are made responsible to the municipal council as a whole instead of to the individual commissioners.

The municipal council elects the superintendents of the various departments so that the commissioners chosen by the people to conduct these departments often find themselves in conflict with their respective superintendents.

Suppose Commissioner Donnelly had a superintendent who showed disregard of the orders given him; it is plain that the business of the city could not be properly conducted so far as that department is concerned. There might be a conflict of authority equal to a deadlock or at least a lack of healthy co-operation. If the commissioner who bears the responsibility calls the superintendent to account for nonperformance of duty, the latter can snap his fingers at the official, feeling that he is responsible only to the body that elected him. Thus he can defy the commissioner unless the municipal council steps in to remove him; but in such cases the council usually evades the responsibility. It is not popular business to fire any superintendent, however well he deserves to be removed.

Here is where the chief trouble lies and where the city charter is woefully weak and defective. The commissioner who is responsible for a department has the power to hire and fire his subordinates. Vested with that power he will not be hampered by the contention of any superintendent who may be badly affected with a feeling of exaggerated ego.

The differences aired in the press between Mayor O'Donnell and Supl. Welch of the police department illustrate the point. Mayor O'Donnell is responsible for law enforcement; but the superintendent holds that unless he has absolute control of the department, which the charter does not permit, he cannot guarantee an enforcement of the law.

If Mayor O'Donnell had the power as he should have, we have no doubt he would reply: "Very well, Mr. Superintendent, if you cannot enforce the law with the entire department at your command, I will find a man who can."

If His Honor could remove the superintendent, there would be none of this haggling over what is beyond question the ordinary exercise of the mayor's functions as commissioner of public safety.

It would be well to have the charter amended so as to have all superintendents accountable to the commissioners in charge of the various departments. Until this is done there will still be more or less trouble such as we now find between Mayor O'Donnell and the head of the police department. With the power of removal vested in the commissioner of public safety, there would be no question of divided responsibility and there would be nobody to blame but the mayor if the law were not strictly enforced in every particular.

If we are ever to have an ideal charter the defects should be noted and remedied as soon as possible.

THE WRONG WAY

If a park or a street be needed in any part of the city and if no more pressing things demand immediate attention the park or the street should be provided; but to form parks or streets as an excuse to get rid of a block of buildings is not a good policy and it is not good business. Therefore, the extension of Dummer street stands as an example of a mistaken policy and of bad municipal business.

If what was done at Dummer street as a result of the mistaken zeal of a previous administration were done everywhere else, the city would have more street and park space than it has building space—and we surely need more building space than we have. If the problem of congested and ramshackle properties could be solved by street extensions, it is about time we extended every street in Lowell as far as to blot out our bad spots. If pursued in the neighborhood of city hall even, the municipal place would eventually stand in the middle of a space as large as one of the commons, and with few other buildings in the vicinity.

The Sun did not favor the Dummer street extension from the first and time has shown that The Sun's view was sound. There was no general demand for the "improvement" even though the few who favored it may have been pressing in advancing its advantages. Pedestrian traffic there is not unduly heavy and there is practically no terminal. The two streets that run parallel to the extension more than take care of all practical needs, and so far as the park argument is concerned, it is not needed and it is not important enough to make any change in existing conditions. Then again, the city cannot afford to spend $100,000 in expertal whims while so many real needs go begging for attention.

The extension of the street was foolish, and the park plan as far as Broadway is equally so. If the administration acts wisely the present plan will stand where it is, and indeed it would be a benefit to the people of Lowell if the action could be rescinded and a public hall or some other beautiful and useful building erected where it is proposed to have two unnecessary streets and a negligible park.

WILSON'S NEUTRALITY AGAIN

President Wilson's neutrality in this war has been nowhere shown more strikingly than in the note which has just been sent to France, Great Britain, Russia and Japan on the submarine issue. Those who accuse him of too great firmness against Germany and too great partiality to the allies ought to read the full text and then ask if there is any intimation in it that the president takes his policy from anything but sound American doctrines and established canons of international law.

Looking with apprehension on the success of the submarine and fearing that it might be developed so as to menace their naval interests, the allies sent a note to the neutral powers, stating plausibly that the submarine should not be given the privileges of warships. In other words, the allies would like very much to have the United States tell Germany that German submarines could not enter our harbors or remain for the established 24-hour period. The allied demand had special application to the merchant submarine Deutschland and if the United States conceded their point no other merchant submarine would be allowed to land here.

To give point to their arguments the allies hinted that the submarines of neutrals might be sunk at sight by them, being mistaken for German submarines. This, by the way, may make for new complications if German submarines operate as one or more did last Sunday off Nantucket, with the American fleet in the immediate vicinity.

In his answer, President Wilson flatly refused to take the dictation of the allies as to American procedure. He said that so long as submarines obey international law and respect American rights, we shall give them the same privileges that we give warships of the allies. He says also that if any belligerent fires on an American ship, it will have to answer to this government and cannot hide behind new excuses of expediency. Was there any indication of weakness or lack of neutrality in that stand? And wherein is it contrary to sound American doctrine?

THE SECTIONAL ISSUE

Echoing the most partisan of all the campaign cries, Mr. Hughes goes through the country crying that under President Wilson the "South is in the saddle." It is a catchy phrase, but using it is a very dangerous game, especially when it is untrue. When the cry was raised after the Civil war, it used to be called "waving the bloody shirt," but Hughes was not expected to go to such extremes. Already it is having its reaction, like the rumpus raised by the foreign sympathizers. President Garfield of Williams college, son of former President Garfield and a life-long republican, recently declared in favor of President Wilson and after praising him for his achievements said: "Permit me to add that the sectional issue raised by some of our republican leaders is repugnant to the American spirit and the welfare of our institutions. Under the circumstances it offends the sense of fair dealing with political opponents, it tends to arouse old fires of passion, and, if successful, will disunite a people now united and incidentally destroy the party that fosters so calamitous an issue." No truer word has been spoken during the campaign, and Hughes ought to think it over in one of his short rest periods between speeches.

BULL FIGHTS STOPPED

Our bright border correspondent recently described in one of his Sun letters the attendance of some of the soldier boys at a modified Mexican bull fight in which the bull was not killed but taken away wounded. Now comes the news from Mexico

BACKACHE

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. It is only reasonable to believe that they are liable to derangement. Their signals of distress, however, are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, headaches, drowsiness, irritability, depression, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, etc.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state of health, says Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is to drink plenty pure water and obtain from your favorite pharmacy, a small amount of anuric, which is dispensed by most every druggist. Anuric is inexpensive and should be taken before meals.

that the cruel sport has been entirely suppressed. This is good news and it indicates returning sanity in the war-mad country. All through the time of revolutions, when the rabble in Mexico preferred to fight rather than to starve, the bull rings were open in the cities, and despite the widespread poverty the returns were said to have been heavy. Now if Signor or Mr. or President Carranza could be persuaded to get up a world's series there is hope that he and Pancho Villa and their followers might be sitting some day in the bleachers side by side and venting their excitement in a more healthy way than they do now. To paraphrase an old maxim: Show us a nation's pastime and we'll tell you what kind of nation it is.

LOWELL'S SITES

Says the Lowell Digest: "Lowell, situated on the banks of the Merrimack and Concord rivers, and being served by the two important railroad systems of New England, offers plentiful and splendid factory sites which have both rail and water facilities. The area of Lowell being only fourteen square miles presents many available sites within easy reach of an unlimited supply of labor."

This is a rather naive argument in favor of a congested city, and it is questionable if it would not be far better for Lowell to have twice its present area, but the main point brought out is that the city has some splendid "sites." It is very true, but unfortunately out-of-town concerns are more concerned with factories than with sites. The city that covers its sites with up-to-date buildings will get the new business in nine cases out of ten and when Lowell will be able to advertise a new mill or two to let, there will be no lack of demand for locations.

"Now," said the policeman, who was at all a bad sort, "which shall it be—a licking or a summons?"

"Gimme the licking, ossifer," came the tearful response. "Once more won't make much difference. I was the umpire!"

Fellow Worries

The pale-faced passenger looked out of the car window with exceeding interest. Finally he turned to his seat mate: "You likely think I never rode in the cars before," he said, "but the fact is, parden, I just got out of prison this mornin' and it does me good to look around. It is goin' to be mighty tough, though, facin' my old-time friends. I 'spects though you ain't got much idea how a man feels in a case like that?" "Perhaps I have a better idea of your feelings than to think," said the other gentleman with a sad

Plant Juice Has Made Him Like New

Lewis A. Lovering, of 82 Park View Ave., Lowell, Had Indigestion and Dyspepsia

That Plant Juice is repeating its success here, is proven by the large number of local testimonials received daily from people in signed statements, telling of the great benefit they have received from its use.

LEWIS A. LOVERING

Not a day passes but what numbers of Lowell people call to thank The Plant Juice Man for what his remedy has done for them, and to congratulate him on his phenomenal success in Lowell.

Only the other day Mr. Lewis A. Lovering, who resides at No. 82 Park View avenue, and is a well known blacksmith of this city, having lived here all of his life, stated: "I have been troubled for the past ten years with indigestion and dyspepsia; had headaches, dizzy spells, could not sleep at night and got very weak and completely run down. Almost everything I ate would cause me distress and I was badly bloated with gas; had night sweats and my liver and kidneys were out of order. I was badly constipated and had taken all kinds of medicine but never got any permanent relief, until I began to take your Plant Juice. I now sleep well at night, and can eat anything I want and digest it; am not constipated and it has put my liver and kidneys in fine condition. I have gained in weight and never felt better in my life. Plant Juice has made me well and I am glad to recommend it to others."

The Plant Juice acts like magic in stomach trouble, gas, fermentation, heavy, distressed feeling after meals and on retiring. It attacks and destroys all poisons in the blood, corrects diseased conditions of the liver and kidneys and restores them to normal condition. It banishes rheumatism from the blood.

The Plant Juice Man is at The Dows Drug Store, in Merrimack Sq., where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Forcing the Issue

A very small boy was taken to a dental establishment to have some of his first teeth pulled. For a second or so, during which time four teeth disappeared, everything was fairly serene, and then came howls of objections.

"I didn't want them teeth to come out!" cried the young patient, suddenly recollecting something. "I want them to stay in."

"That's all right," consolingly responded the dentist. "They will soon grow again again."

"Will they?" quickly rejoined the boy, with a brightening face. "Do you think they will grow in time for dinner?"

At a certain kindergarten at Milwaukee, recently one of the small pupils seemed especially anxious to tell the teacher something.

"Well, Nan, what is it?" the teacher finally asked, in response to the frantic waving of the tot's hand.

"I got a new sister today!" panted the wee one.

"Oh Nan, that was lovely," said the teacher.

"Yes, but did you get her?"

"Yes, Brown brought her," replied the child.

Another little hand shot up into the air in an excited way, and the teacher

Followed Instructions

The manager of a big Australian sheep ranch engaged a discharged sailor to do farm work. He was put in charge of a large flock of sheep.

"Now, all you've got to do," explained the manager, "is to keep them on the run."

A run is a large stretch of bushland enclosed by a fence, and sheep have many ingenious methods of escaping from their own to neighboring runs and so getting mixed up with other flocks.

At the end of a couple of hours the manager rode up again—the air was thick with dust as though a thousand head of cattle had passed by.

At last he distinguished the form of his new shepherd—a collapsed heap prone upon the ground. Surrounding him were the sheep, a pitiful huddled mass, bleating plaintively, with considerably more than a week's condition lost.

"What the dickens have you been doing to those sheep?" shrieked the all most frantic manager.

"Well, sir, I've done my best. You told me to keep them on the run and so I hunted them up and down and round—and now I'm just dead beat myself."—Reheboth Sunday Herald.

THE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN VICTORY FOR WILSON

The national campaign is progressing very satisfactorily so far as the democratic party is concerned.

President Wilson's popularity is rapidly growing as the people are brought to understand what or even a small portion of what he has done for this country in preserving it from the horrors of war, in having enacted measures to prevent the periodical panics caused by Wall street under republican auspices.

The Federal Reserve act has rendered money panics impossible.

The Rural Credits act has given the farmers facility for obtaining credit such as they never possessed before.

Moreover, President Wilson has overcome republican opposition to the extent of having enacted a merchant marine measure that will put the American flag again upon the high seas and give this nation a commercial standing which it never had and could not have under a republican regime.

Furthermore, by his settlement of the threatened railroad strike President Wilson prevented one of the worst calamities that could befall a progressive nation—one under which starvation would sweep all the large cities of the country while the struggle lasted. If the railroads of this country were tied up for a single week there would be intense suffering. But if they were tied up for two weeks or four weeks the entire nation would be in a state of anarchy and revolution. In preventing this strike, President Wilson preserved our domestic and industrial peace. But by his diplomacy in handling the Mexican trouble and the problems of the European war, he preserved the republic from being embroiled in the horrors of war.

Surely this record is one so vastly important to the nation that even one-tenth of it should be sufficient to induce any fair-minded American to vote for Wilson's return to power for four years more.

Odds on Hughes Drops

A New York despatch says: President Wilson will poll more votes in New York state than ever before given a democratic nominee for president," said Patrick E. McCabe, democratic leader of Albany county, recently. "The sentiment for President Wilson up through the state exceeds anything I have ever seen. The people are for the president because he has kept the country out of the terrible European war and in a prosperous condition."

Secretary George Van Namee of the democratic state committee and chairman of the Jefferson county committee, says: "Republican farmers in every part of my county are announcing that they are going to vote for President Wilson. On the country road, I know of 14 farmers who are republicans who will vote for the president. The tide is all one way."

Influenced by the reports of the trend of sentiment to President Wilson from all over the country, the odds on Hughes in Wall street has dropped, with little Hughes money in sight. It is still going down.

Loyal German Supporter

Ernest W. Pickhardt, editor of the Huntingburg (Ind.) Star, is of German blood, and until recently his paper was printed in the German language. As an American, with no apologies for his German descent, he speaks through the Signal to other Americans of German descent. Among other things, he says: "The Germans of the country, and particularly those of the third congressional district of Indiana, should resent the efforts of certain German professional politicians in the employ of the interests to prejudice the honest, loyal, industrious Germans against Woodrow Wilson. Now is a good time to prove your loyalty to your country."

William A. Walsh for Wilson

Among the radical Roosevelt men who have come out for President Wilson is William A. Walsh of Los Angeles. In a recent letter to Congressman William W. Kent, chairman of the National Woodrow Wilson Independent League, he says in part:

"The Wilson men should take a more radical fighting attitude; the conservatives in the doubtful states will vote for Hughes in any event. One part of the fighting radicalism should be not merely to defend Secretary Daniels but to glorify what he has done. This treatment he has given and has tried to have the officers give the enlisted men in the navy may be said to mark the dividing line between 'preparation' and 'militarism,' and the good results of his methods are shown in decreased desertions and increased re-enlistments."

"I have no special personal interest in Secretary Daniels. He never heard of me and I would not know him if I saw him. I am a reformed Roosevelt worshipper, a radical from the ground up, and I see in Daniels a man who has had a good part in the endless fight for democracy, and who should be loved for the enemies he has made."

PIPE SMOKING WOMEN

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE TALKS TO KENTUCKY MOUNTAINEERS ON 'NEW FREEDOM'

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 13.—Charles Evans Hughes went through the mountains of Kentucky yesterday, a new campaign field for presidential nominees, outlining his views on the maintenance of American rights, and ended his day's tour of the state with a meeting here last night, in which he declared that the "new freedom" advocated by President Wilson four years ago had been transmuted, in one respect, to "the new slavery."

Mr. Hughes spoke in six towns yesterday to audiences that had come for the most part, for miles to hear him. They came down from the mountains, men and women, on foot, on horseback and on muleback.

Some of the mounts had saddles, some had none, and many of the women that came to hear him wore faded sunbonnets and smoked their clay pipes as he talked.

At Pikeville, first stop of the day, hundreds had journeyed since sunrise.

A special train from Marrowbone, crowded to capacity, swelled the crowd.

At several stops the nominee's special train was backed down a spur track and he spoke to audiences in open fields. They sat on their horses and mules and in their farm wagons to listen. Some brought their families along and there were several hundred children, including babies in their mothers' arms, in each of these crowds.

In his speech in Phoenix hall here last night Mr. Hughes devoted much of his attention to the protective tariff and to what he termed "the new slavery."

"We have heard much of the new freedom," he said. "It seems to have a surprising and deplorable range."

"It has meant freedom to ascribe the principles of the moral system which our opponents pledged themselves to enforce. It has meant freedom to embark the government in novel enterprises in competition with private business."

"It has meant freedom to depart from the principles of international law to conduct a personal diplomacy to satisfy personal individualities."

"It means freedom to subvert the principles of government by yielding its authority to the demands of force. In this last phase, instead of the new freedom we have the new slavery."

"The new slavery is government by holdup. It is terrorized government, by the rule of politics assuming terror as an excuse for subversion. The executive is chosen to defend the dictates of constitutional government. Instead he surrenders it. Where shall this stop?"

ENBRAINABLE GLASS

New Invention Which Will Permit Soldiers to Retain the Ready Watch in Battle

Much has been printed in European papers, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger, on the subject of strap watches as a part of military equipment. This has attracted a good deal of attention, since modern warfare has demonstrated the necessity for officers and soldiers to know the time. The telephone and signal service, which play important parts in modern warfare, have made the wearing of watches by soldiers obligatory. The only practical way in which they can wear them is on the wrist, where the time can be ascertained readily, an impossibility with the old-style pocket watch.

There have been instances during the progress of the present war where bad effects have resulted from the wearing of watches. The chief danger has been from the breaking of the crystal, and, when the watch was worn on the wrist, the consequences have been serious, owing to parts of the shattered crystal flying into the eyes, and for a time there was talk of discontinuing the use of wrist watches.

Realizing the seriousness of the defects in the old-fashioned strap watch, European watchmakers set about remedying them. Many devices were introduced, such as grill or glasswork placed over the dial, leaving only the figures exposed. This, however, made it very difficult to ascertain the time readily and consequently it had to be abandoned. Then the hunting case was resorted to, but as its usefulness necessitated the pushing of a spring to open the case, it also was found to be impracticable. Not only this, but the damp condition of the trenches soon rusted the springs, and the difficulty, if not impossibility, of having them repaired confronted the wearer.

Celluloid glass was then introduced. This was during the summer season, but when cold weather set in the crystalline contracted and dropped off, the dial became scratched and the inflammable nature of the celluloid and the danger entailed from its use in close quarters, where candles were the only mode of illumination, soon manifested themselves.

The terrible brain of the inventor finally hit upon unbreakable glass, clear in color and non-inflammable. Being of an unshrinkable nature, unbreakable glass is likewise dust-proof, which is not the case with the ordinary crystal. So great has become the demand for wrist watches equipped with unbreakable glass that European manufacturers are working overtime and are compelled to convert ladies' watches into military timepieces to supply the military needs.

STEPHANO'S PASSENGERS LOST ALL BAGGAGE WHEN U BOAT DESTROYED THEIR SHIP

When the German submarine ordered the crew and passengers off the steamship Stephano before sinking the vessel the men and women had no time to save their baggage, and all was lost with the Stephano. One of the women passengers, Mrs. Martin Kasher of St. John's, N. F., was bringing her household goods to New York city with the intention of establishing a home in that city. "I lost everything," said Mrs. Kasher, "all my household goods." Mrs. Kasher said that she had relatives in Brooklyn and would go to live with them. Mrs. Kasher is seen in No. 3 in the accompanying picture, made on her arrival in New York, with her two children, Katherine and Ethel Maria. The man is a fellow passenger, George Kennedy. No. 1 is the crew of the Stephano, with some of the sailors of the rescuing destroyer Eriessoon. No. 2 is the Kusan, the ship which was held up by the U-53, but permitted to proceed to Boston.

BRITISH OFFICIALS CAREFULLY STUDY EVERY DETAIL OF FALLEN RAIDERS

LORD FRENCH INSPECTS GONDOLA OF WRECKED ZEPPELIN

Every detail of the Zeppelin brought down near London has been studied by high British officials. The two latest "Zepe" which fell on Sept. 21, when ten made a raid, left much intact for the British government to learn about the intricate construction of the raiders. The photograph above, which has just reached this country, shows Lord French, commander of the home forces, inspecting the gondola which fell in a country field in Essex. This "Zepe" came down in a blaze of flame, and her crew was killed while the other landed safely, but the crew set fire to the envelope. The farmer upon whose land the Zeppelin wreck pictured here fell said: "I saw only one bomb drop before the Zeppelin came down, but others were found among the debris. I am told these would burn and not explode. The Zeppelin had broken into two pieces, the larger half hanging over a big oak tree which stood in the middle of the field. I saw some dead bodies lying about. Some of the men had wrapped themselves up in blankets, evidently trying to avoid the flames. I had a herd of valuable dairy cows in the field, and these, very much alarmed at the blazing Zeppelin, galloped around the field in terror. One of them seemed determined to rush into the burning mass, and I had some difficulty in keeping her away."

IN MILADY'S BOUDOIR

THE FACIAL EXPRESSION AND AIR

A woman's facial expression is usually least attractive when she rises in the morning. This is due to the fact that when sleeping the amount of air one breathes is materially reduced compared to the amount consumed when awake and in action.

Upon arising don a heavy dressing gown, and stand before an open window. Indulge in the following breathing exercises which should be practiced every morning:

Begin by inhaling deeply—the length of time consumed for each breath should last from five to ten seconds and increase it as one enlarges the air cells and becomes accustomed to inhaling.

Hold the breath as long as you can, then exhale—consulting the same amount of time in discharging the air as you did in inhaling it.

This is one of the best exercises for increasing the chest expansion, causing renewed action of the circulation and making one immune to colds, that has been discovered.

The average woman faces her mirror and fusses over the waves of hair on her forehead and in her absorption she forgets that not even half of her critics will meet her face to face.

A hat may be completely spoiled by not watching the side angle, or to take heed that the hair fills all awkward hollows.

Just so with hair itself. Not only is the side view important for the sake of those who view us from the side, but the whole structure of the coiffure of the moment depends upon the profile view.

To have a good profile one must be extremely careful as to the pose of the head. If the head is thrust too far forward it makes the chin too prominent, and if the head settles backward too heavily it gives undue prominence to the throat bone.

Noses, which are the last, but most important part of the profile to consider, are the most difficult member to improve. Noses badly made by nature are distressing, but the fault may be wonderfully improved by massage and the effect also lessened by the proper arrangement of the hair.

OWL THEATRE

Muriel Ostriche, the girl with the best known smile in America, the girl better known throughout the country as "The Moxie Girl," will be seen at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow in the new Equitable release, "A Circus Romance."

A few years ago the Moxie Mfg. Co. held a nation-wide contest to discover the girl who owned the most bewitching smile in the country. Needless to say there were thousands of pretty damsels entered. Miss Ostriche, only 16 years of age at the time, was adjudged the winner, and since that time her pretty face has been looking at us through store windows, calling our attention to the good qualities of Moxie.

Soon after Miss Ostriche became famous as "The Moxie Girl," she secured a position with a motion picture concern, playing small parts. Her wonderful beauty and her natural talent soon attracted the attention of the directors, and it was not long before she was appearing in more important parts. In "Circus Romance" this fascinating little star will be seen for the first time in the stellar role of a picture.

CLARK RELEASED AND PUT OUT OF THE ARMY

HOLYOKE PRIVATE SERVED SENTENCE FOR WRITING OF FOOD TO NEWSPAPER

HOLYOKE, Oct. 13.—Congressman Allen Treadway of Stockbridge, who was in Holyoke last evening, received a telegram last night from Adjt. Gen. McCain of the war department, stating that Hugh Clark, the Holyoke private sentenced to six months' confinement at Fort Smith, has been released and discharged from the service.

The despatch states that Gen. Funston had been notified that no word had been received from him; also that Hugh Clark would have to pay his own way home.

Clark was tried by a court-martial on Sept. 7 on charges of writing to a Holyoke newspaper, which published the letter, that the food given to the soldiers on the border lacked variety and was insufficient in quantity. Clark reiterated his charges at the trial when testifying in his own behalf.

The case aroused much interest on the border, a great deal of testimony being submitted from mess sergeants, soldiers and officers. It was brought out that many of the soldiers haunted other mess tents after eating a meal at the 2d's kitchen. Several soldiers testified in corroboration of Clark's charges and several officers testified that they drew the same rations and found them satisfactory.

Private Francis J. Bowe admitted circulating a petition, in line with Clark's charges, that was signed by several soldiers, 10 of whom testified that they could not get "second help" and found the food monotonous.

It was brought out in the testimony that a letter to the Holyoke newspaper was written to be sent home in case a

WIFE OF CAPTAIN LOST WITH BARGE CORA

REFUSED TO LEAVE CRAFT WHEN IT WAS SINKING AND WAS DROWNED

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Oct. 13.—The wife of the captain of the barge Cora refused to leave the craft when it was sinking today and was drowned when the barge went down. The captain had endeavored to have her join him in a dory in which he rowed to the tug Elymer Keeler, which had the barge in tow. She was afraid to get into the small boat, according to the coast guards who later went out to the barge and tug. They did not obtain the woman's name.

The tug, bound from New York for Providence with the Cora, put in here today in a southerly storm. The barge was leaking and when the storm became severe it began to founder and distress signals were hoisted.

The coast guards received the signals too late to be of assistance.

LEGISLATION FOR HEALTH INSURANCE URGED AT CONFERENCE IN NEW HAVEN

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 13.—Assertions of speakers, that the annual wage wastage due to illness in this country was about $500,000 and the necessity of legislation for health insurance as a means of reducing this wastage, were subjects of interesting discussion among the delegates to the third annual New England conference on tuberculosis when they met today for the closing sessions. Speakers at today's meetings included Seymour H. Stone of Boston, secretary of the Massachusetts Anti-Tuberculosis league, and Lawrence Voller of New York, secretary of the National Housing association, who spoke on housing and its relation to tuberculosis.

DEMAND RESIGNATION OF PRESIDENT BRILL

DIRECTORS OF DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE ACT IN MILK SITUATION IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Efforts by Jacob S. Brill of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., president of the Dairymen's league, to settle the milk strike with the four leading distributors of this city apparently have been thwarted by the action of the board of directors of the league who were awaiting today Mr. Brill's resignation in compliance with their request.

As a result of this action John J. Dillon, selling agent of the league and state commissioner of foods and markets, said the partial supply of milk which has been sent by farmers to the four distributors would be cut off today. Dealers who have signed the league agreement for six months are receiving their normal supply, Mr. Dillon said.

TO STRIKE AT PITTSBURG

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 13.—Because Pittsburg dealers have decided to refuse the demands of the Northern Ohio Milk Producers' association a strike to start next Monday appears probable. Farmers who supply a large share of milk for Pittsburg will meet today at Jefferson, Ohio, to consider what the next move will be. The principal demands of the association are an increase of 12.5 per cent over present prices and a six-month contract. Dealers say these demands are impossible.

DISEASES OF CHILDREN

I find worms one of the most common of children's diseases—either pinworms or stomach worms. These parasites make their presence felt through deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

For over 60 years Dr. Tru's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Expeller, has been the standard remedy for worms, stomach disorders and constipation, both for children and adults.

COLUMBUS DAY PARADE
PERHAPS BEST OF KIND
HELD IN LOWELLCAPT. WALTER R. JOYES

Marchers of many nationalities, attractive floats, excellent marching, good music and good weather featured in the big parade in Lowell yesterday in celebration of Columbus day. The number of marchers in line was estimated at between five and six thousand. More than 60,000 persons thronged the line of march to witness the spectacle. It would be impossible to conceive of more perfect weather and there was just breeze and snap enough in the air to give the marchers the proper uplift. The parade was a little slow in getting away and the spectators were becoming the least bit edgy when the words "here they come" was heard all along the line. It was stated later that the parade actually got underway very close to 1:30 o'clock, but at the courthouse in downtown Lowell, a five minute wait was ordered by Chief Marshal Joyes to enable one out-of-town organization to get into the line. After that, however, there were no stops or waits of any consequence.

In the mayor's reception room at city hall, beginning at 1 o'clock or was a little slow in getting away and

U. S. FLEET SEEKS
REPORTED NAVAL BASE OFF COAST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Admiral Mayo, commanding the Atlantic fleet, notified the navy department today that he had ordered a survey of the New England coast to investigate reports that belligerent ships had established a base there, or that wireless plants were being operated in violation of American neutrality.

In announcing Admiral Mayo's action, Secretary Daniels said today that several destroyers already had been despatched from Newport north and that the work would be done under the admiral's direction and without instructions from Washington.

Naval officials here characterized the reports as an outcome of the recent operations of the German submarine U-53 off Nantucket shoals. Numerous reports of the same character have been received by the department since the beginning of the war. Investigation was made in each instance but was unproductive.

TO ENFORCE NEUTRALITY
NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 13.—A far flung patrol line of torpedo boat destroyers, charged with the double duty of enforcing neutrality observance and saving lives in the event of further submarine raids on shipping off these shores, went into service from Bar Harbor, Me., to New York today. Official authority from the statement that such a patrol under such orders was ordered from Washington was obtained this morning although the officer withheld use of his name.

The limits of the line of coast surveillance, as at present effective, were shown today with the arrival of the destroyer Paulding off Bar Harbor, Me., and the activity of the destroyer Sterrett in New York harbor. Between these two outposts, nine other destroyers were weaving a net of observation that extended for a considerable distance out to sea, well beyond the lanes of coastwise vessels.

In Narragansett bay seven other destroyers were kept at routine target practice with steam constantly up, available for an emergency call. The fuel ship Jason, which left here recently with a full supply of oil, came in during the night for more. All vessels, it was said, were well provisioned.

The operations of the patrol are being directed from the flagship Birmingham, headquarters of Rear Admiral Albert Gleaves. The Birmingham is at this port, also in readiness to move at any moment.

Except in war game maneuvers, the coast has not been covered by naval forces in such manner for years.

Two destroyers are operating at Boston harbor, fulfilling the new orders by which the neutrality service of recent months has been increased. They are the Warrington and Reid, with the Davis, a new destroyer, almost ready for commission.

Another destroyer was added to the patrol forces just before noon when the Cummings headed out of Narragansett bay at top speed.

SAW CRUISERS AND DESTROYERS
BOSTON, Oct. 13.—A fleet of foreign cruisers and destroyers, is off the American coast, according to Capt. Linderoos of the Russian steamship Hesperus, which arrived here today from Huelva, Spain.

To the pilot who boarded his vessel this morning, Capt. Linderoos reported that "a lot of cruisers and destroyers" passed his vessel off Cape Sable, N. S., on Wednesday, heading southwest. At their rate of speed he said they must be off the coast by now.

The Hesperus had not heard of the German submarine's raid of last Sunday, having no wireless equipment on his ship.

COURT CASE FAVORING BIRTH
REGULATIONSREFUSED TO SENTENCE WOMAN WHO STOLE TO SUPPORT CHILDREN—FATHER TUBERCULAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Questioning whether the law which forbids the circulation of information regarding birth control is "intelligent," Judge Williams of the court of general sessions yesterday refused to send to jail Mrs. Rebecca Schurr after her confession that she stole to provide bread for her six children. He suspended sentence.

Husband Tubercular
The woman's husband has been prevented by law from working on children's garments because he is tubercular. Judge Williams pointed out, his written opinion containing:

"Nevertheless he goes on producing children who have very little chance under the conditions to be anything but tubercular and themselves growing up to repeat the process with society. There is no law against that."

"But we have not only no birth regulations in such cases, but if such information is given, people are brought to the bar of justice for it. I believe we are living in an age of innocence, which at some future time will be looked upon as aghast."

"This woman had to have assistance from time to time in order to keep them from starvation, and in order to give her family bread she steals. I will not send her to jail."

SET FIRE TO LEAVES
Some boys gathered a large pile of leaves in front of 327 Bridge street about 2:15 o'clock this afternoon and after setting them afire ran away. People who saw the blaze sent word to Engine Co. No. 5 in Fourth street and in a short time the apparatus was on the scene and extinguished the blaze before any damage was done.

URGE USE OF CANADIAN PORTS AS TERMINALSMOVE TO AVOID DIFFICULTIES ARISING FROM SUBMARINE
RAIDS

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 13.—The use of Canadian ports as the terminals of steamships in trans-Atlantic trade to avoid difficulties arising from submarine raids such as that which occurred off the Massachusetts coast last Sunday, was urged in a resolution adopted by the executive council of the board of trade today. It was ordered sent to the government at Ottawa.

The resolution points out that such defections of trade routes from United States ports would obviate complications because trade with Canadian ports is protected by the British navy, and any submarine menace could be dealt with directly and more effectively. The support of all boards of trade in Canada is requested to the end that Canadian ports should be used instead of American.

BIG U-BOAT OFF COAST
YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A German submarine, identifying herself as such by wireless and stating that she was "from Newport" was sighted Tuesday, more than 100 miles east of Nantucket lightship by a neutral ship now in port, it became known today. The submarine was moving in an easterly direction.

SIGHTED BY BOVIC

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—A submarine of unidentified nationality was reported about 200 miles east of New York by the steamer Bovic in a wireless message today. The course of the submarine was not stated.

The Bovic, which is due to arrive in New York today or tomorrow from Manchester, England, reported sighting the submarine in latitude 40.17 north, longitude 68.77 west. It was added that the submarine was "astern," but whether pursuing the Bovic or keeping an independent course was not stated.

The figures of longitude as received are not correct, the degrees given being wrong, but it was said the error probably was one of only a few degrees.

The Bovic is a British freight steamer owned by the White Star line. She sailed from Manchester on Sept. 30. Her commander, who probably made the report of the submarine having been sighted, is Capt. Summers.

SAID TO BE GERMAN CRAFT
NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 13.—Confirmation that the British steamship Bovic sighted a submarine off the coast was contained in a statement by a naval official here today. He said that "a passing steamer reported to Nantucket shoals lightship that she had sighted a German submarine well astern this morning." No position was given nor was the direction being followed by the submarine stated.PRES. WILSON RETURNS

SIX FIREMEN INJURED BY FINE PHEASANTS WERE FALLING WALL

PROMPT ARRIVAL PREVENTED SERIOUS CONFLAGRATION NEAR PITTSBURG

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 13.—Prompt arrival of firemen from Pittsburgh and nearby towns prevented a serious conflagration at McKee's Rocks, a suburb, early today when fire destroyed the pattern and coach erecting departments of the shops of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, together with several Pullmans, passenger coaches and other valuable rolling stock, causing a loss estimated by railroad officials to be $225,000. Six firemen were slightly injured by a falling wall. The flames destroyed a portion of the company's high tension wires and all of the great shops are crippled for lack of power.

BAGGED YESTERDAY

Mr. Albert, who is quite an expert with the gun, left yesterday noon with a party, taking the latter to a camp at Long Point on the pond. He then continued to Maynard and upon his arrival in the woods he shot and brought down a fine 3½ pound cock pheasant. Later, while returning to the pond, he stopped at Westford and there was fortunate enough to bring down a 2½ pound cock pheasant. Mr. Albert also tried his luck at the pond and there succeeded in killing three fine rabbits and a couple of grey squirrels, and tomorrow Mr. Albert and his friends will partake of a delicious meal.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Edmond H. Pettit, a sparrow man employed at the junction of Moody and Allen streets, one of the most dangerous corners in this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury late Wednesday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile while at his work.

The machine, a large touring car, containing six passengers was going through Allen street at a fair rate of speed, while Mr. Pettit was employed at the junction of Moody. The latter claimed there was ample room for the machine to go by, but the chauffeur did not seem to take the right measure and struck the sparrow man. Mr. Pettit was injured on the leg, but his injuries will not be serious. The chauffeur stopped his car and took the name and address of the sparrow man.

CURIORITY CAUSED ARREST

Whelan, Charged With Auto Larceny at Lawrence, Taken Under Strange Circumstances

LAWRENCE, Oct. 13.—City Marshal M. P. McKenna and Inspector John J. Keliher of the local police department returned home today with Albert M. Whelan, who will be arraigned in superior court on the charge of larceny of an automobile from the Robinson Hardware company.

Whelan's curiosity as to what action the grand jury had taken in his case led to his being located by the police. Recently a letter was received from Washington inquiring as to the reputation of Whelan. Suspecting that he was the author of the letter or that he had imitated it, the local authorities sent his photograph to the Washington office and it was followed. Whelan is said to hail from Pittsburgh.

the jamb the shelves are built. With good bracing these may be rounded out to make them deeper than the ordinary door frame would allow for. When finished, the shelves may be stained or enameled to correspond with the other woodwork in the room.

"I remember there is an arched niche between the two closets in your bedroom. Built-in shelves will make a desirable bookcase or dressing table. In the latter case one shelf should be made at the usual height of a bureau or table.

"One lower than this can be hidden by a cretonne curtain gathered to the shelf above. A looking glass in the niche above, which should, by the way, be papered in white or a plain pale tint, will complete a very attractive little corner.

"The niche is, I am sure, large enough to accommodate a desk. In this case several roomy shelves can be built in above, or a hanging bookshelf can be bought to place there.

"Again the niche can be made into a cosy seat by the aid of a home-made bench and some cushions.

GUY SMALL CONFESSES HE MURDERED AUNT

CLEAR UP MYSTERY OF MT. DESERT ISLAND—WOMAN FOUND WITH HEAD CRUSHED

BAR HARBOR, Me., Oct. 12.—That Guy Small of Otter Creek, now held as a prisoner awaiting trial at this time of court, killed his own aunt, Mrs. Emma Turnbull, crushing in her head with repeated blows of a mallet; that he put another fallon in his pocket and dragged the half-dead body to the bushes and tall grass in the rear of her home; that, arriving there he completed the ghastly work, beating her head to a pulp by repeated blows of the mallet, then took his departure, and burned his bloody clothing, about the disappearance of which the chief issue arose at the preliminary hearing—these were, in substance, the main points of a confession made yesterday by Guy Small to his counsel and the county attorney.

It was expected that County Atty. Mason would spring this as a dramatic surprise when Small is arraigned for the crime. The grand jury yesterday found an indictment against Small.

Small, according to his admissions, was in the Turnbull home, presumably for the purpose of robbery, when found by Mrs. Turnbull. A struggle ensued and he picked up a mallet and nearly killed her, crushing in her head.

That evening he called at the Turnbull home and assisted in the search for the body and was the one detailed to guard the corpse until the arrival of the medical examiner.

The body of Mrs. Emma Turnbull, an elderly widow, was discovered in the evening of Aug. 4, at her home just out of the village of Otter Creek, which is near Seal Harbor, at the southeast corner of Mt. Desert Island. The head was smashed almost to a pulp by a club or some other heavy instrument, and the body had been thrown out of the back door in a half-dressed condition. The corpse was found in some woods at the rear of the house by her young son, who had just come home from work.

Mrs. Turnbull had been spending the afternoon on one of the neighboring mountains, blueberrying, and had apparently just returned from her expedition and was changing her clothes when the crime occurred. The body was only partially clothed. Her shoes were left in the middle of the kitchen floor, where she had been changing them.

TRADE WITH ICELAND

Chief Industries of Iceland Are Cattle Breeding and Fishing—People Highly Intelligent

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—While considerable interest was manifested in the arrival of an Icelandic vessel in the harbor of New York recently, the importance of the event was sentimental rather than commercial, says a bulletin issued by the National Geographic Society.

A hearty welcome was extended to the islanders whose home is on the fringe of the Arctic circle, but the cordiality of their reception was due to the fact that their vessel was one of the few to arrive in this country from that land since the days of Left the Lucky, and not to any high expectations of trade possibilities for Iceland with its more than 40,000 square miles and a scant population of scarcely more than two persons to the mile, sends most of her mutton exports, valued at $1,000,000 a year, to Denmark, and also buys most of her $3,750,000 imports from that northern country.

The fact that Iceland is so seldom visited by tourists and is almost a terra incognita to American traders has caused a false impression to obtain in this country concerning its sombre but on the whole highly intelligent people. Indeed, it has been estimated that in proportion to its population more books and papers are printed and read in this tiny frozen island than in any country of continental Europe.

When the Scandinavian sea rovers discovered Iceland about the middle of the ninth century they found a small colony of Irish Celts in possession. During the succeeding century and a half there was a strong wave of immigration to the bleak island, and in addition to the Norse nobles and the vikings there came Queen Aud, widow of Olaf White, king of Dublin, and numerous followers. Trade with the island underwent many cycles in succeeding centuries, being confined first to Norway, then with the smuggling merchants of Bristol, England, and lastly to the Hanseatic towns of Germany. Finally, Denmark established a governmental monopoly which was in force

When My Customers Ask For a Thing I Know It Is Popular

FREE PANTS FOR TODAY AND SATURDAY

IN MY FALL OPENING TWO WEEKS AGO I HAD A SPECIAL OFFERING OF A PAIR OF TROUSERS FREE FOR THAT OCCASION. SINCE THAT TIME I HAVE HAD SEVERAL INQUIRIES THROUGH THE MAIL FROM OUT OF TOWN CUSTOMERS. SOME SAID THE SEASON WAS A LITTLE EARLY TO ORDER THEN, OTHERS WROTE AND TOLD ME THE TIME LIMIT WAS SHORT AND THEY COULDN'T TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT AT THAT TIME. NOW AT THIS READING I AM GIVING YOU TWO DAYS' NOTICE AND I WANT MY OUT OF TOWN CUSTOMERS TO RESPOND IN LARGE NUMBERS, AND FOR TODAY AND SATURDAY (TWO DAYS ONLY) I WILL GIVE

A Pair of $5 Trousers Free

WITH SUIT OR OVERCOAT ORDER.

When some people see my advertisements at $12.50 or $15 they jump at the conclusion that the goods must be something terrible to sell at such prices.

Any man who thinks that way was never more wrong on anything in his life; far from being ordinary or average, the goods I sell you are as high class as the industry in America produces. Let us understand each other on this custom clothing question at my prices.

You can't buy better goods in any store in America or any tailor shop in America than I can show you. I am safe in making this assertion because from one source or another I get goods from all of the best makers we have.

I am a firm believer in the theory that life is always getting better—that the people are coming up and not going down. I know the people want good things—better, maybe, than they can afford. More power to them! I say—the best is none too good for any man, and believing this, I try to live up to it when I buy the goods you in turn buy from me. Understanding that, you may believe me when I say I am giving you as good as the best of them—a whole lot better than many of them.

OF WOMEN

Special Treatment Required.

Many women suffer from a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms are similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines usually prescribed do not restore the patient's normal condition.

There seems to be a kind of dyspepsia caused by derangement of the female organism. While this appears to be the same as ordinary indigestion it can be relieved only by a medicine which, besides acting as a stomach tonic, is good for female ailments. Read what such a medicine did for Mrs. Williams:

"I was troubled with dyspepsia and bearing down pains in my back and sides, and after my meals my stomach would bloat up till I could scarcely get my breath. At times I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet and I looked hollow-eyed and my skin was yellow. Now I have a good color, have gained in every way and can do my work without any pains. I think it is the best medicine on earth for stomach troubles of women."—Mrs. NELLIE WILLIAMS, 31 West 3d Street, New Albany, Ind.

until 1788 when all Danish subjects were permitted to enjoy trade relations. The island was opened to all nationalities in 1854, and 20 years later, when the Danes granted local government to the Icelanders, commercial life received a strong impetus.

"The chief industries of Iceland are cattle breeding and fishing, the latter activity having had a remarkable growth in the last few years. Herring, which constituted the sole cargo of the ship which arrived in New York recently, is one of the principal products of the neighboring seas, but cod and train-oil and the salmon fisheries are also considerable. Other exports are live sheep, salt meat, elder down, wool, and hides. Imports include salt, cereals, metal ware, coal and various manufactured articles. Owing to the long winters, which are extremely severe, the islanders find ample time to devote to spinning, weaving and knitting at home and the tweed which they make is the chief material used for clothing. Tourists, however, find oilskins invaluable as the climate is extraordinarily damp in the southern half of the island, where the capital and principal city, Reykjavik, is situated (population about 12,000).

Many Icelanders emigrated to America from 1872 to 1900, and several thriving colonies have been established in Manitoba, but during the last decade there has been a decided tendency to stay at home. Under its own legislation (Villing), which has all members elected by household suffrage and six appointed by the king of Denmark, the island is apparently prospering, for there is no public debt, and no contribution is required for military or naval purposes. The import taxes are few—on tobacco, sugar, coffee and spirits, and there are no burdensome. All higher education is free. The annual expenses of the government do not exceed $175,000.

"With a length of nearly 500 miles, and a width slightly under 200 miles there are no railroads on the island, and practically all transportation is confined to horseback, the trade being narrow and rough. The habitable regions of the country are practically confined to the lowlands, which embrace not more than one-fourteenth of the total area.

FIRE IN DRUG STORE AT LINCOLN SQUARE

An alarm from box 41 at 11.50 o'clock last night summoned a portion of the fire department to a lively blaze in the cellar of the Lincoln Square drug store which is conducted by L. T. Steeves. The firemen had a lively time in keeping the blaze from spreading and, although they did very efficient work, the damage to the store and contents will amount to about $1500.

The cause of the fire is not known. Smoke was seen cutting from a portion of the store just before midnight and an alarm was sounded. The fire confined itself largely to the basement, although the flames ate their way to a room in back of the store. In the basement was stored a valuable stock of drug store findings and this was badly

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by every one, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

damaged. Smoke and water also spoiled much of the stock in the store proper.

FOOD SUPPLY IN IRELAND

DUBLIN, Ireland, Oct. 12.—The efforts of the Irish department of agriculture to increase the food supply have resulted in an addition of over 58,000 acres of land to the area under cultivation. Instructions have been sent about the country advising farmers as to the best means of utilizing their land, and the growing of catch crops.

Although Ireland has a flourishing linen trade in Belfast it does not, to any great extent, grow its own flax, and the department has been endeavoring to remedy this. Early in August, 1914, the department issued a memorandum advising flax-growers to save flax-seed for their sowing requirements the following spring. The procuring of seed during the season of 1914-15 was attended with considerable difficulties. Upon representations of the department of agriculture, facilities were obtained, through the intervention of the foreign office, for the export of seed from Russia and Holland to this country. Through these supplies helped the flax-growers, it was insufficient to meet their full requirements. A Society of Flax-growers has been formed, and arrangements have been made for the cultivation of the crop on a more extensive scale.

SAVE GRAIN IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—The newest suggestion for saving grain in Germany is offered by Dr. George of Klein Plotbeck, who asks in a petition to the Imperial chancery, that a rule be passed whereby beer may be served only on presentation of a bread card. His plan is in effect to require all Germany to choose between bread and beer as daily nourishment, instead of allowing an unlimited consumption of the latter. The petition is signed by some 50,000 persons.

The petition declares that 12,000 hundred-weight of barley is used daily to make beer, or sufficient to feed ten million persons for one day. A liter of beer requires 230 grams of grain, whereas the average daily bread ration is but 220 grams. Dr. Bonne insists that barley is just as much a food as rice and white flour.

SLEEPYTIME TALES

BABY GRACE'S PARTY

Once upon a time Baby Grace had the measles and, although she was not very sick, she had to stay in the house and none of her friends could come and play with her, for they were all afraid they, too, would be sick. Aunt Grace had had the measles so she came one afternoon to play with little Grace.

They played house, had a tea-party and a game of dominoes. Baby Grace was beginning to get tired so Aunt Grace said: "You lie down a few minutes and shut your eyes and I will have a surprise for you." Of course you know all little girls love surprises so Baby Grace lay down on her bed and shut her eyes as tight as she could.

In the meantime Aunt Grace cut out of colored tissue paper a lot of lovely paper dolls. Some had told of each other's hands, others had long trains to their dresses, and she cut four together all in a circle. Then Aunt Grace found two books, which she stood up on ends, and on top of these she laid a piece of thin window glass and, under the glass on the table, the tissue paper dolls.

"Open your eyes, Grace, and come to the dolls' dance," said Aunt Grace, and she began to rub briskly with a linen handkerchief on the top of the glass in a circle round and round.

Baby Grace's eyes nearly popped out of her head for there were the dolls hopping, turning and dancing at a great rate. "Oh, Aunt Grace! isn't that fun, just see that pink one dance. Oh look at the blue one!" Grace was so pleased she could not keep still. At last she asked her aunt if she could rub the glass, and Aunt Grace showed her how and Baby Grace thought that more fun than anything else and they were both busy until grandmother brought her supper.

Baby Grace showed grandmother just how the dolls danced and she thought it quite a trick. When Baby Grace was better, so the twins could come and see her, she amused them by showing off her dancing dolls, and they all thought them wonderful.

HELD LARGE MEETING

Retail Grocers and Provision Dealers Met in Elks Hall—Will Co-operate in Cleanup Campaign

There was a large attendance at the regular meeting of the Lowell Retail Grocers and Provision Dealers association Wednesday night in Elks hall. President John H. Burke occupied the chair and considerable business was transacted. During the evening Warden Rindard, city solicitor of weights and measures, gave an interesting address, explaining the duties of the state and city sealers and other matters connected with his office.

A communication from Secretary John H. Murphy of the Lowell board of trade, relative to the cleanup campaign, was read, and it was voted "that the grocers association co-operate, insofar as possible, with the board of trade and all others interested in a cleaner city and in improved health conditions."

Much dissatisfaction was expressed by many of the members at so many small stores keeping their doors open for business during the day, at night and on Sundays. The association voiced its belief that these stores should keep better business hours and urged that the proprietors do so.

TRIUMPH FOR GERMANS

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The German electrical industry is scoring a triumph in the midst of the distractions of the war by building the largest generator and transformer in the world, according to advices received here. The Siemens-Schuckertwerke of Berlin are building a generator and transformer, each sixty thousand K.W., this transformer having the power to transform the voltage to 110,000 volts. The order is being executed for the Rheinisch Westphalian Electrical works. It is said the largest turbo generators in the United States are 25,000 or 40,000 K.W.

Bathe Internally

Over 500,000 People Are Now Doing So

For many years physicians have agreed the vast majority of human ills were caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestines; that in our present way of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance; no matter how regular we might be, and that the poisons from this waste circulating through the blood pulled us away down below par and were responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

"During this time the 'J.B.L. Cascade' for Internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor. Recently, however, the startling news which has been coming from this country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the lower intestine for the most chronic and serious diseases, has caused Americans to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this lower intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Baths.

If you try the 'J.B.L. Cascade' you will find yourself always bright, content and capable; the poisonous waste makes us listless, blue-dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for constipation—just warm water properly applied. Druggists force Nature's 'J.B.L. Cascade' gently assist her.

THE SPELLBINDER

With Gov. McCall here this evening and Hon. Frederick T. Mansfield present last Sunday and again yesterday, it is quite evident that Lowell is decidedly on the political map at the present time. Congressman Rogers will be heard in Lowell on the stump before the close of the campaign while Hon. Roger Sherman Hoar will also be heard here. Senator Hoar already has started a publicity campaign in this vicinity. When in Lowell recently on a non-political matter he took occasion to state that neither Congressman Rogers' popularity nor the republican strength of the fifth district worried him in the least.

William R. Scharton, democratic candidate for district attorney, has applied at city hall for permission to hold out-door political meetings in this city beginning Oct. 11 and terminating Nov. 5, which would indicate that he intends to make several speeches in this city. Up to date the excitement over the office of district attorney has been confined to the republican side of the fence and Nate Tufts was the nomination after a campaign that was spirited. Now Mr. Tufts stacks up against a gentleman on the democratic end who is also a lively campaigner and a fine talker, and between the two the voters of Lowell may expect to hear some "big league stuff" concerning the way the office of district attorney should be run. Mr. Scharton is a member of the Boston law firm of McVey, Scharton and McVey, and is a well known and successful attorney.

The Senatorial Situation

Cecil P. Dodge, the sticker candidate for senator in the eighth district, avers that he will not withdraw from the contest, but will appear on the ballot on election day. Rep. Colburn's friends are greatly pleased at this announcement because they believe that without him to split the vote of ex-Senator Sparks, the Democrat republican candidate would have a look-in. Mr. Sparks would be pleased to have Mr. Dodge withdraw, but he has assumed that he will not and is governing himself accordingly. Mr. Sparks and his supporters are confident that he can carry the district against Rep. Colburn, even with Dodge on the ballot. Mr. Sparks will file his nomination papers on Monday. They have been verified locally and contain hundreds of names in excess of the required number, republicans and democrats alike having signed them.

The 14th District

As the result of the controversy between Messrs. Brennan and Slowey, over the recount, with its disputed ballot, the republicans of that district are quite hopeful of success on election day, claiming that conditions are right for the election of at least one of their men. The district on paper is democratic by a few hundred, but its exact strength cannot be determined until after the election. It is not strongly enough democratic, however, to permit of any wrangle in that party without the defeat of one or both of its democratic candidates. Now that Lowell has been given a chance after many years to send three democrats to the house, it would be most unfortunate if the democrats lost their opportunity through internal trouble.

Evening School Changes

It is surprising how few have been the protests following the recent decision of the school committee relative to the employment of evening school principals and teachers, although the committee will displace a number of competent teachers who have had years of experience. Perhaps the disappointed ones are marking time, awaiting the publication of the names of those who are to succeed them, before protesting vigorously. There is a growing belief that employing day school teachers in the evening schools is going to impair the efficiency of the school system, and one of the two schools is to suffer thereby.

"The Judicial Gravel"
"It makes the thoughtless laugh but the judicial gravel" complained the editor of the Courier-Citizen when a day or two ago gave Woodrow Wilson a momentary breathing spell while he handed a brief "knock" to Mayor O'Donnell, concerning his controversy with the superintendent of police. Of course by the "judicial" is meant the Courier-Citizen, for the republicans are the boneheads and hence not judicial, while the democrats are mostly law-abiding and hence thoughtful, and therefore the Courier-Citizen grumbles, and grumbles alone. If its judgment on the O'Donnell-Welch controversy is no sounder than it was on the Tufts-Brown and Barlow-McIntire affair then even the judicial will be forced to crack a smile. The Courier-Citizen talks about turning the department over body and boots to the superintendent, etc. There was no such advice as that in the Courier-Citizen when a police board and the police department and a member of the Courier-Citizen company was on the board.

The police board and nobody else ran the police department in those good old days, and any suggestion that the police board turn over the department to the superintendent would have been hoisted at by the Courier-Citizen. The Courier-Citizen asks the mayor to turn everything over to the superintendent of police. The mayor did turn the matter of law enforcement over to him, and the law hasn't been enforced according to citymen who it is said have been getting their information from the superintendent himself. The Courier-Citizen wants the assignment of officers given to the superintendent exclusively. But the superintendent states that he has the confidence or support of but only a few members of the department. Therefore if given the authority he would assign the few to the work of enforcing the liquor laws. But they had those assignments for two years and yet disorderly houses and speak-easies, and unlicensed clubs continued to thrive, until all were put out of commission at the beginning of the year. By the mayor who felt that some change was necessary to effect an improvement.

NO VILLA FOLLOWERS ARE IN MADERA

REPORTS OF RECENT OPERATIONS RESULT OF IMAGINATION, SAYS INVESTIGATORS

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, Punitive Expedition, Mex., Oct. 13.—Investigation of recent rumors concerning the operations of the bandits under Francisco Villa and Julio Acosta virtually has confirmed the belief that the result of imagination of field headquarters. Although many Mexicans from country south of El Valle have sought safety in that town, which is within two miles of an American camp, it is believed the fear that prompted their flight was unfounded. No Villa followers it was learned today.

Villa has not ventured north of Temosachic, which is more than 100 miles from the American lines. A recent report that Villa followers were at Galana, within ten miles of the American line of communication, has also been disproven. Apparently there has been a full in bandit activity since the fight at Culhuatichile.

Through Jimmy,

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The bewitching Hawaiian melodies, played and sung by a corps of natives of the beautiful Pacific Isles, rightly command the greatest amount of attention on the bill at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week. Toots Paka, who introduced the hula-hula dance to the western hemisphere a few years ago, is the head of this organization, and she gives her remarkable performance. If one wants to hear the familiar "Aloha" given properly he should attend the theatre this week and hear the Hawaiian scater sing and play it. Julia Curtis, who is correctly called "the girl with a thousand voices," is one of the best entertainers we have seen this year. Her songs are sung very well and then gives a long list of personations of noted stage characters, likening the manner of each to some well known bird or quadruped. This is a happy and profitable way to entertain. Her whistles, sings, dances, talks and plays the piano-acordeon, and is very well liked. The little comedy, "Me and Mary," given by Thomas F. Swift & Co., is a comedy done while the Kayses, dramatists and handlers of hot temperaments, are a positive novelty. Murphy & Lachmar are straight comedians and Black and McCone mix acrobatics with talk and variety, a chapter of "Glorious Romance" is interesting.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Frances Nelson and Arthur Ashley will again appear in the five act picture at the Merrimack Square theatre. This is the story of an honest girl whose disreputable stepmother tries to ruin her by an evil trick. She revolts. Also shown again today and tomorrow is the gripping play, "The Storm," which is a story of the great storm which swept in the leading role. This is one of the most interesting pictures ever shown here. Burton Holmes' comedy will also be continued today and tomorrow.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"

Here comes the great announcement which will excite the joy by thousands of Lowell people. For all next week at the Merrimack Square theatre there will be presented, D. W. Griffith's masterpiece, "The Birth of a Nation." When this masterpiece was presented at this theatre last February the time and place of its showing was such that it was shown rendered it impossible for all to witness this grand historical photoplay of the Union after the civil war. It was shown here at a price of fifty cents to $2, but this time it will be offered at prices which were never before charged. The prices during the entire period of next week will be 10 and 25 cents no more no less. No seats will be reserved. These new and novel prices will be in effect for each and every performance of this masterpiece. Those who saw "The Birth of a Nation" when it was presented here about a year ago will find that the play is best but inadequately described by the word "stupendous." It is, in fact, useful to try to describe this mighty production for it beggars description and to realize its greatness it must be seen, and so great is it then that it takes in all of it and it is to the fullest extent must be seen more than once. There will doubtless be many who saw this patriotic historical play when it was first shown at the Merrimack Square theatre next week to witness once more this significant production which is founded upon the greatest of American novels, "The Birth of a Nation," and showing the formation of the Ku Klux Klan bent upon suppression of outcasts and rebelling against the southern after the close of the civil war.

ROYAL THEATRE

The picture purveyors are turning out a greater number of serials than ever before thought of. The first serial was "What Happened to Mary," which was a great success. The Edison company, since then, hundreds have been filmed and the market is literally flooded with the two-reel episodes of many fine stories. The Royal management keeps in step with progress, and the best obtained day of the week today and tomorrow the seventh episode of both great serials, "The Birth of a Nation" and "The Birth of a Nation," are to be shown. The serials are wide different in theme, they both preach preparation for America and Americans—which is the topic of the day in our progressive country. Coming Sunday, Great Britain's Francis A. Bushman and other celebrities. Monday and Tuesday Anita Stewart in "The Combat"—some play.

WILSON DENIES CHARGE OF SECTIONALISM

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—President Wilson yesterday replied to the republican charge that the democratic party is a sectional party with the statement that "any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation."

The president came to Indianapolis to address meetings of good roads advocates and farmers, review an automobile parade celebrating Good Roads day of the Indiana Centennial, and attend a non-partisan luncheon of leading Indians. He was seen by crowds which packed the streets for blocks. In his first speech he spoke of the good done by highways in preventing sectionalism.

He Alone Is National

"My fellow citizens," he continued, "I need not tell you that I did not come here to talk politics, but there is one thing that is pertinent in this connection, which I cannot deny myself the privilege of saying. Any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation. He shows himself a provincial, he shows that he himself does not know the various sections of his own country; he shows that he has shut his own heart up in a little province, and that those who do not seek the special interests of that province are to him sectional, while he alone is national. That is the depth of anti-patriotic feeling."

President Wilson spoke in part as follows:

"My fellow citizens, we have had time and opportunity until this present to do pretty much what we wanted in America and to do different things in different parts of America. But just as soon as this great European war is over, America has got to stand for one thing, and only one thing, in the world, and she must be ready with united force. We can't play with the elements of our life any more."

Why America Exists

"America came into existence, my fellow citizens, not in order to show the world the most notable example it had ever had of the accumulation and use of material wealth, but in order to show the way to mankind in every part of the world to justice and freedom and liberty."

"So that the world I want you to carry in your mind are these: First, nationalization; getting all the fibres of this great vital people united in a single organism; second, mobilization, getting them so related to each other, so co-ordinated, so organized, so united, that when they move, they move as a single, great, irresistible, conquering force. And the third word that I want you to consider is the word that I supply to the key to doing these things. That word is the word of co-operation."

"I wish that each one of us could fix in his mind the difference between the way we have been trying to do things and the way we ought to do things. We have been trying to do things by combination, by getting off one powerful group against another, by setting up groups in particular industries or spheres of our life which try to exclude all other groups by the power or by the method of their destroying competition. That is not the way to build a nation together. That is the way to build it up into warring elements."

"There is one field in which we are particularly sluggish in respect to this. I mean the relations between capital and labor. Nothing can be for the interest of capital that is not in the interest of labor; and nothing can be in the interest of labor which is not in the interest of capital. If men want to get rich, they must have human relationship with those who help them to get rich. That is a lesson that men have been exceedingly slow to learn, slower than any other lesson of co-operation in America."

"I pray God that their eyes may be opened and that they may see that the future of this country lies in their co-operation, open, candid, cordial, and not in their antagonism, and that if they will once get together and plan in the same spirit the same things, the industry of America will go forward by leaps and bounds such as we have never yet conceived."

"Sometimes it is necessary in order to attract attention to pull men up with a round turn and say 'stop, look, listen,' because presently if you don't, the great forces of society will correct things that have gone wrong. Society is the jury. The nation is going to settle, and I am counsel for the nation."

"I have said and shall say again that

Good Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs who, having tried advertised food-stuffs, physical culture stunts and sub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered combination of assimilative agents has made fat grow after years of thinness, and it is also unequalled, judging from the reports, for repelling the waste of sickness of faulty digestion and for strengthening the nervous system. This remarkable preparation is called Sargol. Six strength-giving, fat-producing assimilative elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this preparation, which is endorsed and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A few weeks' systematic use of Sargol should go far to produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying nourishment to the blood. If not, every druggist who sells it is authorized to return the purchase price. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fact that thin people need it is thus provided. Lowell Pharmacy and other leading druggists supply Sargol and say there is a large demand for it.

When the great present war is over it will be the duty of America to join with the other nations of the world in some kind of league for the maintenance of peace.

America Has Kept Poise

"Now, America was not a party to this war, and the only terms upon which we will be admitted to a league, almost all the other powerful members of which were engaged in the war and made infinite sacrifices when we apparently made none, are the only terms which we desire, namely, that America shall stand for national aggression, but shall stand for the just conceptions and bases of peace, for the competitions of merit alone, and for the general rivalry of liberty."

"Are we ready always to be the friends of justice, of fairness, of liberty, of peace, and of those accommodations which rest upon justice and peace? In these two trying years that have just gone by we have forborne, we have not allowed provocation to disturb our judgments, we have seen to it that America kept her poise when all the rest of the world seemed to have lost its poise."

"Only upon the terms of retreating that poise and using the splendid force which always comes with poise can we hope to play the beneficent part in the history of the world which I have just now intimated."

PRES. WILSON GREETED

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 12.—When President Wilson stopped here for a few minutes early today, a small crowd was at the station. He shook hands with as many men as possible, stepping down to the station platform to greet the people.

The president received word on his way to Long Branch from Indianapolis today that Pennsylvania day at Shadow Lawn tomorrow will be attended by more than 3000 voters.

The president is due to arrive at Shadow Lawn at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The return trip from Indianapolis was made without any long stops. The president worked in his private car this morning on public correspondence.

AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

A high mass for the members of Lowell county, Knights of Columbus was celebrated at St. Peter's church yesterday morning with a very large congregation in attendance. The service was held at 9 o'clock with Rev. W. George Mullin, chaplain of the council, as the celebrant.

The members of the organization gathered at their rooms in the Associated building and at 8.30 o'clock formed in line with the Salem Light Infantry band at the head. The men attired in their regular regalia marched to the church by way of Merrimack, Central and Gorham streets. The sermon was given by Rev. Fr. Mullin, who spoke at length on the life of Christopher Columbus, what his deeds had accomplished in helping mankind in general and the wonderful attainments resulting from his discoveries. Present at the service was the pastor, Rev. Dr. D. J. Secker, who at the close of Fr. Mullin's sermon delivered a brief address of congratulation, extending his compliments to the K. of C. for their fine appearance and their faithfulness to their religious duties. During the mass appropriate hymns were sung by the regular church choir under the direction of James E. Donnelly. At the close of the service the members of the society returned to their quarters, where they were dismissed until parade time.

MAN RUN DOWN AND KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Edward Powers, 55 years old, of Winsor street, Cambridge, was killed in Weymouth last night by an automobile operated by Harrison Loring Wirt of 1635 Beacon street, Brookline, a nephew of Abner Loring, with whom he makes his home. Wirt is a student of Technology.

With Wirt in the car were his two brothers and two women. The women gave the names of M. the Beren and Alida Tenken, and both gave their addresses as 1351 Beacon street.

Struck Head-On

Powers, who was formerly a driver in the Boston fire department, was leading two horses from an auction stable in Weymouth, to Hingham. Wirt was hitting about 30 miles an hour, the police say, and he struck the man head-on.

He was hurled fully 10 feet over the side of the road and lay a shallow ditch. Wirt crossed the road and picked up the man; then he cashed at ten speed for the Quincy City hospital, but the man was dead when the hospital was reached.

Wirt told the Weymouth police that he could not see the man in the road. He was arrested for manslaughter and released in $1000 bonds furnished by his uncle, Abner Loring.

UNITARIAN CONFERENCE HELD

The 1916 session of the North Middlesex conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches was held at Weymouth yesterday and afternoon with the first service of Tyngsboro. Rev. Frank B. Crandall of Ayer made the opening prayer and Mrs. Wendell Blanchard of Tyngsboro played the organ for the congregational singing of hymns. The president of the conference, Thomas H. Elliott of Lowell, presided.

WHAT THE COOK SAYS

A simple method of pressing embroidery is done over a heavy padding or toweling, says Cook. Turkish toweling is excellent, but the imprint is apt to show, especially if the embroidered article is of a delicate material. To avoid this, place an old piece of fine muslin between the toweling and the embroidery.

The majority of people press directly on the back of the embroidered article with the iron. This is a great mistake, as the iron may catch on a thread and cut or strain the stitches. Always place a thin piece of muslin over the wrong side and press over it. You will find that your embroidered centerpieces, etc., will last longer, as it is largely due to careless handling that many pieces wear out so quickly.

Cook serves the following recipes regularly to us, as they are great favorites with all of our family. Eggs baked with cheese are made by melting three tablespoons of butter, blending in three tablespoons of flour and adding by degrees one and a half cup of milk. Cook, stir until smooth and season with half a teaspoon of salt, a pinch of pepper and a few grains of cayenne. Pour half of this in a shallow buttered baking dish, break over it six or eight fresh eggs, cover with the remaining sauce, sprinkle with half a cup of grated cheese and two tablespoons of fine crumbs moistened with melted butter. Bake about ten minutes or until the eggs are set and serve at once.

Cook has given me instructions on how to clean highly polished woods such as pianos. She says there is nothing better than raw linseed oil half a pint and pure elder vinegar half a pint. Put this into a bottle and shake until it becomes creamy. Dampen a piece of cheesecloth and go over the article to be cleaned, then with a dry, soft cloth rub the piece of furniture until it is dry and shines. This will not only clean the furniture but will preserve its new appearance. It is fine for leather furniture, polished floors, etc.

An excellent wall paper cleaner is two cups of flour, one cup of salt, one cup of cold water and one teaspoon of kerosene. Mix and cook until transparent. Then knead into a ball and when cool use on the paper.

To clean brass bedsteads dampen a cloth with ammonia, rub briskly over a piece of pumice stone and then over the brass. Very little rubbing is required.

Metal jar lids which have become corroded from dampness may be made as bright as new by being kept for several hours in hot water to which a large amount of baking soda has been added. Put the solution and the lids into a granite pan and let stand on the back of the stove.

If powdered borax is put around the edge of your carpet it will keep the moths away. A little borax in the water before washing red or red bordered tablecloths and napkins will prevent their fading.

Turpentine and beeswax to the consistency of thin cream makes a fine polish for leather upholstered furniture.

When you find you cannot finish the ironing, after the clothes are thoroughly dampened, just slip the unfinished ones into the lower part of the refrigerator. They will not mildew even if left there for three days.

Walnut molasses cookies made as follows are nice to serve occasionally, thinks Cook. One-fourth of a cup of butter, the same of lard, the same of boiling water, one-half cup each of brown sugar and molasses, one teaspoon of soda, three cups of flour, one-half tablespoon of vinegar, one-third teaspoon of cloves, one teaspoon of salt, and chopped walnut meats. Pour water over the butter and lard, add the sugar, the molasses mixed thoroughly, roll one-fourth of an inch thick, and cut in strips three and a half inches wide. Sprinkle with nut meats and bake ten minutes.

Marshmallow paste is also excellent. Put three-fourths of a cup of sugar and one-fourth of a cup of milk into a saucepan. Heat slowly to the boiling point without stirring and boil six minutes. Break one-quarter pound of marshmallows in pieces and melt in a double boiler. Add two tablespoons of hot water and cook until the mixture is smooth. The hot syrup gradually, stirring constantly. Beat until cool enough to spread, then add one-half tablespoon of vanilla. This may be used for both filling and frosting.

To wash lace curtains try this plan, says Cook. Shake out the dust and fold evenly, from four to eight times according to size. Now wet, wash, boil, and rinse, always keeping them folded until they are ready for the stretching frame. When they are washed in this way none of the fine threads will give way and they will last much longer.

Places on doors near the knobs that have become soiled by hands can be easily cleaned by a cloth dampened with turpentine and gently rubbing until the dirt disappears. Then use moderately warm water in which a small portion of borax has been dissolved. Have ready a dish of finely ground Spanish whiting, and, after dampening the cloth in the borax, dip it well into the dry whiting and so over the soiled places carefully. Allow the whiting to dry and then, with clear water and a clean cloth, remove all the whiting.

Many people fail to realize that the common habit of coffee drinking may, sooner or later, handicap ability and hinder progress.

It is a scientific fact that coffee contains a harmful drug, caffeine, which with many, through regular use, causes nervousness, headache, heart flutter, or other annoying ills.

Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN

The teams that started the campaign to increase the membership of the Y.M.C.A. to 2000 will make their second report at a luncheon to be held at 6.15 o'clock this evening. From what could be learned today the workers have met with good success since Wednesday noon's meeting and it is expected that a much better report will be made than at the latter meeting.

Two banners will be awarded, one to the division bringing in the largest number of members, and the other to the team with the highest number. A check has been built and placed on the front of the association building, showing the progress made each day.

John Byaski, a junk collector, was this morning sentenced to four months in the house of correction at Cambridge by Judge Enright after being found guilty of receiving copper bonding wire which had been stolen from the rails of the Bay State Street Railway company by Albert Bergeron and Charles Ayard. Both Bergeron and Ayard had pleaded guilty to charges of larceny and the former's case was continued for disposition until next Wednesday. Bergeron after being found guilty of larceny was sentenced to four months in the house of correction and after pleading guilty to neglecting to provide for the support of his two minor children an additional sentence of five months in the house of correction was imposed.

As related in Wednesday's issue of The Sun, Ayard and Bergeron have been stealing the copper bonding wire from the rails of the Lawrence division of the Bay State St. Ry. Co. and they claimed they had disposed of it to Byaski.

When Byaski was called this morning he was asked to plead to a complaint charging him with the larceny of 17 pounds of copper wire valued at 25 cents per pound and a second complaint charging him with the larceny of 33 pounds at 25 cents per pound. The first witness called for the government was Charles Ayard who said he was 18 years of age and that he and Bergeron had stolen considerable wire from the rails along the Lawrence road and sold it to Byaski. He said that on the third of this month they went to the defendant's house and sold him $4 worth of copper wire. He said he knew where they got the wire and told them that there was a better opportunity to get it along the Lawrence road where much of it was exposed. Witness said that Byaski gave them a saw and hammer in order to expedite matters in getting the wire. Ayard said that on the 6th of October he and Bergeron sold Byaski about 40 pounds of the wire for which they received $9.

Bergeron corroborated the testimony told by Ayard. Patrolman Kennedy told Byaski that he and the two young men were called and testified relative to the arrest and Lieut. Martin Maher testified as to his going with Capt. Brennan to the home of the defendant and accusing him of receiving the wire, knowing that it was stolen.

W. E. HALL LEAVES SHAW STOCKING COMPANY

William E. Hall, treasurer and general manager of the Shaw Stocking company, Smith street, for 19 years, has resigned his position to enter the service of Putnam & Wood Co. of Boston. The Sun learned last evening that Mr. Hall had resigned and also learned that the board of directors were sorry that he had determined to quit the company. It was stated, too, that all influence possible would be brought to bear on Mr. Hall to have him remain. The Sun learned that Mr. Hall at the meeting and asked if it were true that he had resigned. "It is true that I have resigned," he said, "but I think it rather premature to make the announcement at this time. I did not suppose any others than the directors knew it and I thought it would not be announced until I had actually finished here. But I presume it makes no difference, and if you consider it an item of news I will not ask you to withhold it."

Mr. Hall then stated that he had engaged in an official capacity with the Wood, Putnam & Wood company of Boston, but that he will still continue to make his home in Lowell. No one has yet been named as Mr. Hall's successor.

Paul Flanders, who is in the employ of the Bay State St. Ry. Co., said that the pieces of wire were worth between 60 and 65 cents each and that to his knowledge 53 bonding wires have been stolen during the past month.

Lawyer Bennett Silverblatt, who appeared for the defendant, asked for clemency for his client, but Deputy Downey said that if there were not so many people to receive state prisoners that the number of larcenies would be reduced. The court then found Byaski guilty and sentenced him to four months in the house of correction, from which sentence he appealed.

Guilty of Forgery

Joseph H. Kenney entered a plea of guilty to drunkenness, the forging of a check for $14.75 and the attempted forgery of a check for $40.65. After the particulars in connection with the case had been related to the court, Judge Enright found the defendant guilty and held him under $500 bonds for his appearance in court next Tuesday morning for sentence.

According to the police Kenney and another young man thought up the scheme. One went into the Old Lowell National bank, where they secured blank checks and then going to the postoffice one check was made payable to Robert Madden or bearer for $14.75. This check was given to a man named Ordway, who knowing Kenney, had it cashed. When placed under arrest, a check for $40.65 was found in his possession.

Drunken Offenders

William H. White after working in The Wiers all summer came to Lowell last week and when he arrived in this city had a roll of about $75, but he so managed to get rid of the greater part of it and this morning in court he said he had but $5 left. He was given until 5 o'clock tonight to get out of Lowell.

A woman was given a suspended sentence to the state farm, an offender was fined $10, another $5 and 11 first offenders were released by the probation officer.

SOLDIER BOY SHOT AND KILLED IN GUARD TENT

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 13.—Leo C. Graham, of Framingham, Mass., a private in the Thirty-first Michigan Infantry, was shot and fatally wounded in the guard tent of that regiment by Alvin Sauer, a member of the guard of that regiment, early last evening. Some mystery appears to surround the manner in which he met his death. Officers of his regiment say he was accidentally wounded, but surgeons who tried to save his life and who talked with him prior to his death think he was shot as the result of a card game.

Graham's regiment is now on a hike with the tenth army division, but he and Sauer, having been confined to the guard for a minor offense, were left behind with other prisoners.

Last evening just before 5 o'clock a report of a rifle was heard in the guard tent, and Graham immediately afterward staggered out of the tent and fell in the road, near by. Blood poured from holes in his back and chest, the bullet having entered the back on the right side and emerged through the chest on the left side.

Guards ran over to the Ninth Massachusetts regiment headquarters, a few yards away, and asked for medical assistance. Lieutenant Joseph O'Connor, a Worcester physician, a line officer in the Ninth, hurried to the wounded man's assistance, giving orders at the same time that the doctors of the division hospital be notified.

Dr. O'Connor rendered first aid, and the dying man was hurried to the division hospital, where he died about half an hour later.

PRAYS THAT ALLIES WILL NOT PERMIT HIS COUNTRY TO SUFFER FATE OF BELGIUM

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Times publishes an interview given to its correspondent with the Rumanian king by the king of Rumania in which the monarch appeals to the allies not to permit his country to suffer the fate of Serbia and Belgium.

"The Rumanians will not falter," the king said, "in their allegiance to the cause, nor can the enemy wear them from their faith in their allies. Yet the Rumanians pray that in spite of their existing exigencies and their own huge problems the allies will not allow the affairs of Rumania, who has asked her all in this conflict to pass into the hands of the enemy and to suffer her to meet the fate of either Belgium or Serbia."

King Ferdinand said Rumania had not been moved to enter the war by mere expediency but that her decision was based on the biggest principles of nationality. "Against Germany," continued his majesty, "there was, at the beginning of the war, no hostility, rather perhaps friendship, for economically Germany was an asset to the development of our industry and a potent instrument in forwarding the prosperity of our country. But with the progress of the war, Rumania began to feel the subtle force of enemy intrigue endeavoring in every way to force us into the struggle against our own real interests.

"If Rumania has been criticized heretofore, let the world consider her position. A small power with a small army surrounded by giants faced a practical problem. With a western frontier nearly seven hundred miles long, which alone was greater than the English and French fronts combined, and Bulgarian frontiers, almost undefended and near her capital, stretching for other hundreds of miles to the south, she had to await the time when she could act with reasonable assurance of protecting herself and of having the support of her allies."

"A small country in a great war, which promises to last for at least another year, faces certainly internal sacrifice and the consumption of her resources. But such is the confidence of Rumania in the justice of her cause and the faith of her allies that she has cast her lot with them in the conviction that her great associates will see that she does not prove to be the third small power destroyed in this great conflict."

THE IRON GATE IS LAST DEFILE OF THE DANUBE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct.—The Iron Gate, the last great defile of the Danube in its course to the Black Sea and the first point at which the Austrians launched an offensive against their new enemies, the Rumanians, is described in the following war geography bulletin which the National Geographic society issued today:

"Contrary to the general belief of readers to whom the term 'Iron Gate of the Danube' is familiar, this famous defile of the chief waterway of Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria and Serbia does not derive its name from precipitous walls of rock through which the waters dash in a narrow channel, as at the Scazz defile, but from the dangerous boulders that fairly litter the river bed for a distance of nearly two miles, beginning at the once strongly fortified island of Ada Kaleh, which was captured by Hungary in 1878 and is still inhabited by a picturesque colony of 600 Turks. Opposite this island, on the left bank of the Danube and at the mouth of the inconsequential Bachna river, which here forms the Hungarian-Rumanian boundary, is the attractive little Rumanian customs village of Veretorova on the Buda-pest-Bucharest railway, 287 miles west of the latter city."

"It was not until 1890 that work was begun in a definite and comprehensive manner to rid the Iron Gate of some of its gravest dangers to navigation. In that year a Hungarian engineering company undertook the

"KNIGHT OF THE GRIP" TELLS STORY

Edward Pilz, Jr., of Worcester Tells of Benefit He Received Since Taking Tanlac—Can't Say Too Much For It He Declares.

The day of the old time traveling salesman, the verbal drummer with his jokes and perennial snail has passed. In his place has come the modern "Knight of the Grip" with his newer methods of business developing the faculty of approach and variety of knowledge, regarding people, places and products, and its absolute correctness and clearness that never ceases to surprise us.

Edward Pilz, Jr., Franklin Hotel, Worcester, is well known to hundreds of business men throughout the country comes pretty near typifying the sincere and true American.

Continual traveling, changing hotels, drinking different kinds of water, eating different kinds of food and catching trains at all hours of the night finally produced indigestion and stomach trouble.

While talking to Mr. Healy the Tanlac Man at William L. Davis Co.'s drug Store, Worcester, Mr. Pilz said:

"I have suffered from indigestion and acid stomach, also catarrh of the head which gave me a good deal of trouble. I have suffered from catarrh of the head for so long, I thought it was chronic, nothing seemed to give me any relief. After eating an acid sour liquid would back up in my throat and I belched a great deal of gas. I bought Tanlac because it was recommended to me by a friend in task of removing nearly a million and a quarter cubic yards of stone from the watercourse. Eight years after the enterprise was inaugurated the canal which had been hewn from the solid rock on the Serbian side of the river was ready to be thrown open to the steamers which ply the Danube from Budapest to the Black Sea. The canal was designed to provide a year-round channel ten feet deep. There was the original course of the river was not navigable for more than nine months out of every twelve.

"The opening of the waterway was the occasion for a great celebration in which three monarchs participated—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, Hungary, King Alexander of Serbia, and King Carol (Charles I) of Rumania. The festivities of the day were somewhat marred by the discovery that the current through the canal was so swift that while steamers could rush through it in their downward journey they could not make the trip upward, so that the old river course had to be used for westward-bound traffic.

"When the water is high the rocks of the Iron Gate are completely submerged but they are only a few feet beneath the surface and the boiling, churning waves present a terrifying sight to the timid passenger as his steamer fights its way to the calmer reaches in the vicinity of Orsova (pronounced Orshova), the first town in Hungarian territory, five miles above the rapids and a ten-hour journey by boat below Belgrade, the peace-times capital of Serbia.

"Instead of the gloomy gorge which most travelers expect to find, the banks on each side of the Iron Gate present a beautiful picture of gently sloping hills, beautifully wooded. In the early summer these woods are a fairland of flowers and the winds are fairly weighted with the fragrance of wild blossoms in countless variety, while a short distance from the river the huntsman finds deer, wild boar, bear and other games in abundance. Enhancing the charm of the scene are the songs of myriad birds which make their home in the forest.

"As the river progresses eastward into Rumania the wooded hills disappear and are succeeded by barren sand ridges."

JAVA TO EMULATE JAPAN
THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Oct.—Correspondence of the Associated Press—Java is turning its gaze on the enormous modern industrial development in Japan, and asking why, with its 30,000,000 industrious people, it should not emulate Japan. The Dutch minister for the colonies charged Henri Hubert van Kel, socialist member of the first chamber of parliament, with an inquiry into Japan's industrial evolution and the qualities of the Japanese, as Mr. Van Kel's report strongly urges that the Japanese government's many-sided activities in encouraging and fostering the large industries shall be adopted and improved upon by the Dutch authorities in Java.

Mr. Van Kel shows that, while in 1890 Japan's export of industrial products formed 15 per cent of the whole, in 1907 this had risen to 28 per cent and in 1913 to 45 per cent; whereas agricultural exports declined from 51.6 per cent to 37.8 and 36.7.

His main recommendation to the Netherlands government is that a central bureau for native industry shall be established in Java, following the example of Japan, which body would further industrial development by the gathering of data, by subsidies, erection of model factories and the like, and incidentally by an inquiry into the possibility of silk culture in the Dutch East Indies.

The theory of racial incapacity of adjustment to industrial conditions has been exploded, says Mr. Van Kel, by the experience with the Japanese. Indeed, he regards conditions in Java and the qualities of the Javanese, "the most docile people on earth," as in many respects particularly favorable to industrial development.

RUSSIA RELEASES 21 SWEDISH VESSELS

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Russian government has released 21 Swedish vessels which have been held in Russian harbors, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. Will Never Be Without This Simple Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieved Her Baby When Nothing Else Would.

Little Max Pendergrast is now four years old, and a fine healthy boy. When but a tiny baby, in fact almost from birth, he suffered a great deal from constipation. His mother, Mrs. Carl W. Pendergrast, Red Key, Ind., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, obtained a bottle of it from the drug store, and with it was able to quickly correct this condition.

Mrs. Pendergrast says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has saved them from calling the doctor many times, and that she will never be without a bottle of it in the house to use when needed. She found it really effective as a laxative for herself and other members of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, pleasant to the taste, mild in action and positive in effect. It does not grip or strain, and contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is the ideal family laxative, mild and pleasant for baby, yet acting quickly on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 435 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

thereabout, a buffet lunch was served to invited guests, including the lieutenant governor, members of the governor's staff, visiting mayors and others. The mayor marched with Lowell Council, Knights of Columbus, receiving a very flattering reception all along the line of march. Upon reaching city hall and while the parade was going up Moody street, his honor left the line and went over, through the building, to the reviewing stand on the Merrimack street side. Lieutenant Governor Calvin Coolidge was received by the mayor and others at city hall, but because of a Boston engagement the lieutenant changes in it. The composition was specially dedicated to the Knights of Columbus. Dennis A. McCarthy, the poet-author and lecturer, who wrote the words for the march, was the guest of Mr. Gilday over the holiday and was with Mr. Gilday on the reviewing stand.

The Lowell aerie of Eagles and the Buffalo club had floats that attracted a great deal of attention and it was plain to be seen that a great deal of care had been exercised in their preparation. The Buffalo float represented Columbus greeting the Indians and was replete with Indians and Indian girls. It was a splendid feature and very appropriate. Riding on the Eagles float were a number of little girls dressed in the national colors.

E. Drury, Commissioner Newell F. Putnam, Commissioner William W. Dunham, Robert F. Marden, president of the board of trade; Henry T. Gilday, Dennis A. McCarthy of Boston, Daniel J. Gallagher of Boston, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus; George C. Shields of Mansfield, master of the Fourth degree, K. of C.; Mr. and Mrs. James F. O'Donnell, Mrs. James E. O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. James Hearn, Miss Katherine Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Connor and Mrs. Dorothy Connor, Harold A. Varnum and Edward H. Foye, City Messenger Owen F. Monahan and others.

First Division

ment all along the route. Next in order came the Royal Club Italian band of Lawrence which headed the St. Anthony of Padua society, Italian, of this city. Large banners of green and red and American flags were carried by the members of the Michaelmas society, Portuguese, which was headed by the Nolas Portuguese band of this city.

The Royal Italian band of Lawrence headed the Christoforo Colombo society and following this organization came the Bellini band of Lawrence, the members wearing long white ostrich plumes in their hats. The St. Jose Portuguese society was next in order, there being about 200 members in line. As this organization was passing the reviewing stand they uncovered their heads and waved the small American flags which they carried.

Next in line came the German-American club which had about one hundred men in line. One of the features of this division was the showing made by the Benevolent Order of Buffaloes who besides having a large number of members in line they had a float which represented the first greetings to Columbus extended by the Indians. There were numerous outsiders made up as Indians, cowboys and cowgirls.

Fourth Division
The fourth or civic division was headed by Cornelius J. O'Neill and John J. Gilbride was the chief of staff.

The American band was at the head of this division and then came the members of the Young Men's Catholic Institute, with President John Cox leading. Rev. Mrs. L. F. Tighe and O. P. McQuaid, O.M.I., occupied a barouche.

Foss' band of Lawrence led about 400 members of the Holy Name society of St. Michael's church. Rev. Francis J. Mullin, chaplain of the society, headed the line.

The Mathew Temperance Institute was headed by the South End drum corps. Patrick Kane and Edward F. Slattery were prominent figures at the head of the line.

Next came the Hellenic band of this city after which were about 100 Boy Scouts headed by Scout Executive Luther W. Paulsen and Executive Alex. Williams. Large scout flags and the American colors were very conspicuous.

Next came the Butler Vets hauling their hand tub and after the veterans came the Lowell fire department, headed by Chief Edward F. Saunders and District Chiefs James C. Sullivan and Daniel H. Crowley followed by about 75 men in uniform. Then came the fire machines including nine pieces of motor apparatus and twenty pieces of horse-drawn apparatus.

Fifth Division
The fifth division of the parade was made up of councils of the Knights of Columbus, the greater part coming from cities and towns of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Fittingly enough, owing to the name they bear, the knights made the most impressive showing of the parade, and their splendid appearance was widely commented on by the people along the line of march.

Thomas B. Delaney was chief marshal of the division with Walter H. Hickey as his chief of staff. Both men had worked untiringly for the success of the day, and the result was due largely to their efforts. Twenty mounted aids, among whom was Rev. W. George Mullin of St. Peter's followed, and music was supplied by the Lowell Military band.

The chief aids to Marshal Delaney were P. J. Garrity and John A. Hart, and the aids were: James Donahue, Boston, representing Bishop Cheverus assembly; James D. McKeon, Manchester, N. H.; William H. Loneragan, Manchester, N. H.; John F. Reynolds and Peter Graham, Lawrence; P. J. Sweeney and Arthur Walsh, Haverhill; Thomas Collins, Newburyport; T. F. McDonald, Amesbury; Charles McCue, Mystic Nobles of Granada, Boston, and the following from Lowell: Christopher J. McSorley, William Gallagher, Patrick Cogger, Mark McCann, Thomas Tobin, George Tobin, Joseph P. O'Neill, John Lawton, Jr., John Lawton, Sr., John F. Roane, Jr., and James Reynolds.

After the chief marshal and his staff came the impressive Bishop of Cheverus assembly, four degrees of Boston. There were over 200 in line and all wore tall hats, frock coats, swords, and the effective baldric of the order. Frank Ferguson, faithful navigator of the assembly, walked at the head.

The Mystic Nobles of Granada, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Caroline, a band of 30 pieces, afforded a picturesque feature. The men wore red fez caps and as they passed the reviewing stand they made a deep salutation. Bunker Hill council followed, headed by a Charlestown band.

An impressive showing was made by Manchester City council, which was next in line with the Manchester military band. Grand Knight Charles McKeon was in command, and Joseph Cyr followed with a delegation from Nashua council.

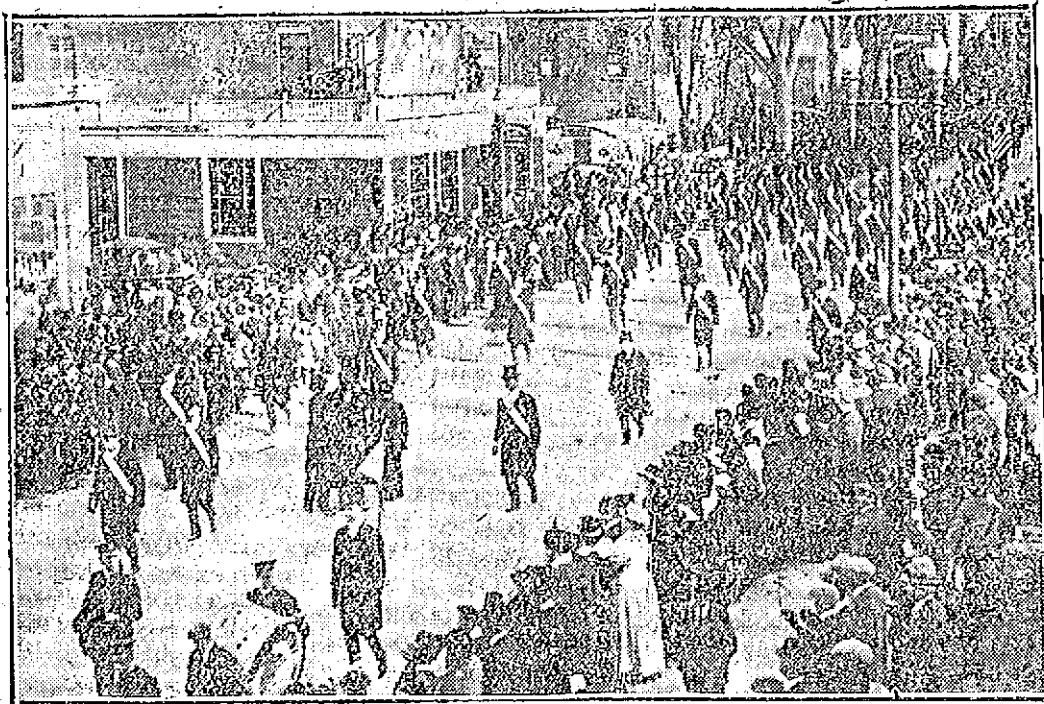

One of the largest groups in the division was the Haverhill council, headed by Dr. James Fleming. The eighth regiment drum corps furnished the music. Grand Knight Bernard L. McDonald led the Andover council. Haverhill council, with the Haverhill military band, made a good showing. Daniel F. Fitzgerald led the continuing line. The Haverhill City band led the Knights from Newburyport, its specialty being spirited Irish airs that were roundly applauded all along the line. Joseph O'Connell was in charge of the Newburyport men.

Amesbury council was headed by the Lowell Brass band, and after them came members of the fourth degree Waltham under Faithful Navigator Quirk. Ayer council was commanded by Grand Knight Hurley.

At the close of the division were the Lowell Knights, who made a showing of which the city might be proud. The Salem Light Infantry band of 30 pieces played the "National Emblem" as they went by the reviewing stand, and there with over 300 men in line. District Deputy William F. Thornton headed the group with Grand Knight Joseph F. McGinnis. The committee in charge of the parade having been left with $69, which had been intended for the hire of an extra band, and which was found not to be needed, spent the money by having the poles of the Bay State Street Railway Co. decorated from Tower's corner to city hall, the decorations of national colors extending out from the pole arms over the streets.

Entertained Visiting Councils
The local council Knights of Columbus had made ample arrangements for the entertainment of out-of-town delegations, and their efforts were appreciated. Bishop Cheverus assembly, Bunker Hill council, the Mystic Nobles and others were served luncheon in the high school annex, and enough food was left over to feed a regiment.

The men from Lawrence and Andover were served at the hall of the street railway men in the Rurels building; Newburyport, Haverhill and Amesbury marchers got lunch at the rooms of the Y.M.C.A. and those from Manchester, Nashua, Waltham, etc. were served in St. Patrick's school hall on ant governor was obliged to leave before the parade reached city hall. Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield, democratic nominee for governor, was on hand, having made the trip from Boston by auto. He first called at Mr. Humphrey O'Sullivan's headquarters in the Associate building and then went to city hall where he met several of his friends and admirers. It was not the time, day nor place to talk politics and to the question as to how things were lining up for the campaign, the stalwart, smiling Mansfield answered "beautifully." That was the nearest approach to politics spoken at city hall.

One of the features of the occasion and a very pleasant and important one, especially to the composer, was the playing by at least three of the bands of the march "Columbian," composed by Henry T. Gilday of this city. The march was eagerly awaited everywhere and gave great satisfaction through Mr. Gilday, after the parade, stated that he would make some

The float held big bouquets of flowers placed on the top of pillars with a monster eagle, wings expanded, keeping watch over all and ready to scream at a moment's notice.

The procession formed on Highland and Thorneike streets and proceeded to Davis square, to Corham street, to Appleton street, to South, to Middlesex, to Central, to Merrimack, to Bridge and across central bridge, to Fifth street, to Read, to Sixth, to Bridge, to Merrimack square, to Merrimack street, to Moody street, to Aiken street, to Merrimack street where the line was reviewed at city hall and later dismissed at Fulton street. The route was about three miles long. But for the countermeasures in line would have been but little of the procession. It took 50 minutes to pass a given point at a brisk marching gait.

On the reviewing stand were Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield, Mayor Hurley of Lawrence, Mayor Bartlett of Haverhill, Capt. James N. Greig, Hon. John

of the parade. They rode in a wagon and passed the reviewing stand at just 2 o'clock. That was about one hour and twenty-five minutes after the parade started. Following them were two mounted police officers, John Clark and John Kelley. A platoon of eight police, commanded by Capt. James Brosnan, led the parade, and a finer or better drilled platoon was never seen in Lowell.

Chief Marshal Walter H. Jeyes wore the uniform of a captain of the National Guard. Lieut. Winfred C. MacBrayne was chief of staff and Thomas J. O'Donnell, chief aid. The chief marshal had a mounted staff of 20 aids, representatives from the various divisions in line.

The approach of the first, or military division, was made known by a little Boy Scout, carrying a marker. Then came the Sixth Regiment band, Z. I. Bissonette, chief musician. The band was playing the "Columbian" march. The battalion of militia, composed of Companies K, C and G of the Sixth regiment, was commanded by Major Col. Kittredge, with Lieut. Schuyler K. Waller as adjutant. Company K was commanded by Lieut. Melvin P. Master; Company G was commanded by Lieut. Thomas Doyle, and Company C was under command of Lieut. James J. Powers. The men wore the fatigue khaki uniforms and marched splendidly. Their military bearing and appearance elicited great applause all along the route.

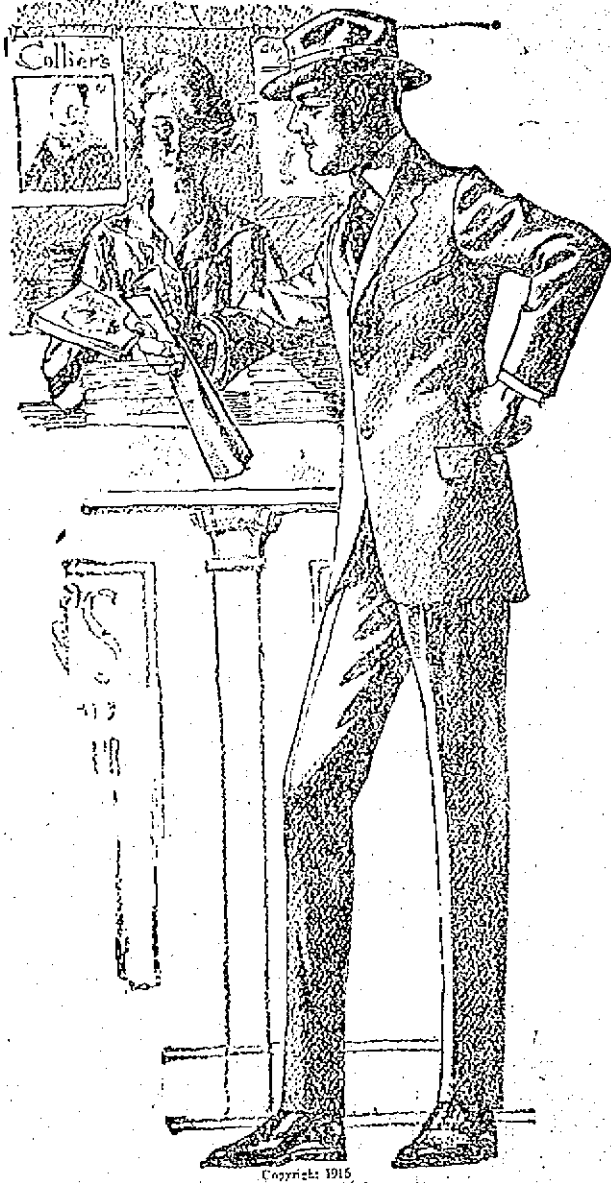

Second Division
The second division composed of semi-military organizations was headed by Gilbert W. Hunt of the Spanish War Veterans as marshal and Col. Albert Bergeron of the Second regiment, P.A. V.B. of the U. S. as chief of staff, and proved to be one of the most attractive in line for the marching of the various organizations, particularly that of the French companies was perfect, while the various handsome uniforms worn by the companies in line presented a pretty scene.

This division was headed by the U. S. Cartridge Co. band, which while passing the reviewing stand played the "Columbian" march, William Regan conducting. The first company in line was the Spanish War Veterans headed by Commander Alexander D. Mitchell and including members of camps from various places along the Merrimack valley. In the rear of the company were the three commanders of the local G.A.R. companies in a carriage.

A battalion of Irish guards with Major Daly in command came next headed by the Fifth Irish Regiment Drum corps. This battalion was composed of the Wolfe Tone, Sheridan and Medgarh guards and their marching was good. Next in line were five companies and a battalion of the A. G. Cadets, all connected with the French-American Volunteer brigade of the United States, and this section of the parade made a decided hit, receiving considerable applause all along the route for their excellent marching and general appearance. The first company in line was Garde Frontenac with Lieut. Alphonse Valierand in command. Then came Garde Sacre-Coeur, Capt. Horace Desilets; Garde d'Honneur followed next with Capt. Nelson Phillips in command and Garde St. Louis, Capt. Arsene Guy. The A.G. Cadets' battalion of four companies with Major Bellefeuille in command and Garde Nationale of Haverhill, Capt. A. St. Jean, took up the rear of the French companies. The Cadets were headed by the A.G. Cadets' brass band, J. B. A. Lebrun, leader. Company F of the Boys' Brigade of the First Congregational church came next and they were followed by the O.M.I. Cadets' army, in command of Major William Conroy. The boys turned out in large numbers and were preceded by 18 mounted orderlies and scouts. The O.M.I. Cadets furnished music for this organization, which received favorable comment throughout the route of the parade.

Third Division
Patrick J. McCann was marshal of the third or fraternal division and he had a large mounted staff. Following the staff came the Spindle City band which led the first section of Eagles. In this section was a float containing little girls who were attired in the national colors. The float was decorated in an artistic manner, many bouquets surrounding the pillars.

The second section of the Eagles was headed by St. Mary's Cadet drum corps of Lawrence. There were about 500 members of the Eagles in line and they presented an excellent appearance, keeping good step and align-

Suffolk street. Provision had been made for 2500 persons and the food left over was sent to charitable institutions of the city. Both as parades and as hosts the local knights established a high reputation and the men from out-of-town were loud in their praise of their enthusiastic and kind reception.

The Decorations
The decorations along the route of the parade were magnificent, many of the business men having decorated the front of their establishments in a very elaborate way. City hall was aglow with numerous American flags, one floating from each window and this scene was very attractive. The committee in charge of the parade having been left with $69, which had been intended for the hire of an extra band, and which was found not to be needed, spent the money by having the poles of the Bay State Street Railway Co. decorated from Tower's corner to city hall, the decorations of national colors extending out from the pole arms over the streets.

CHILDREN WAVED FLAGS AS PARADE PASSED

GRAND SPECTACLE WITNESSED AT ST. MICHAEL'S SCHOOL—OVER 500 CHILDREN WAVED FLAGS

One of the prettiest sights seen yesterday along the entire route of the parade was presented at St. Michael's on Sixth street where over 500 children were lined in tiers in front of the building all waving American flags as the parade passed by. It is usual in such cases that the spectators applaud the paraders but in this instance many of those in the parade clapped hands as they passed in recognition of the beautiful scene presented. Standing behind the children were the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw and Rev. Fr. Lynch, one of his assistants. Several of the Dominican sisters in charge of the school were also seen in the background. The building was elaborately decorated as were the paraders. The parade they sang a number of patriotic songs and enjoyed the occasion immensely. Chief Marshal Jeyes expressed his admiration of the spectacle presented by the children and in this he voiced the sentiments of all in line.

M'CALL SAYS STATE TAX LESS BY $1,725,000

GARDNER, Oct. 12.—Gov. McCall at a republican rally held here last night discussed his administration and declared that the state government had made real progress upon important lines, which could not be paralleled in recent years. "The contribution of the cities and towns to the state under the tax of the present year, is $1,725,000 less than a year ago," Mr. McCall said. "From mounting upward the rising flight of the state tax has been stopped and it has abruptly declined. The contribution of Gardner is nearly $5000 less than a year ago."

Gov. McCall said with regard to the questions affecting the workman, it had been his aim to deal with them in a spirit of the utmost fairness. Nothing permanent could be based on injustice. He said the principle of the workmen's compensation act had been maintained.

"I take satisfaction in having supported both in the committee of ways and means and upon the floor of the house, legislation doing away with the hideous disease growing out of the manufacture of white phosphorus matches, and the same energetic treatment would do away," he said, "with similar evils growing out of our industrial system and without the slightest injury to anybody."

KINGSTONIAN NOT A SUBMARINE VICTIM

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—Rumors that the British steamer Kingstonian was not among the victims of the German U-boat off Nantucket, Sunday, were confirmed yesterday when John H. Thomas, Boston manager of the International Mercantile Marine, owner of the Kingstonian, stated that he had received advice that the Kingstonian was at a far distant port on a trip for the British admiralty. He stated he could not name the port.

It is now certain that the toll of the German raid was five instead of six steamers. It is thought the story of the sinking of the Kingstonian was the result of an error in transmitting the news of the sinking of the Christian Knudsen, the Norwegian steamer which was destroyed by a U-boat.

Last night the group of British steamers at this port which has been in effect since the news of the raid's activities was received here early Sunday, was broken when the steamer Corunna sailed from here for Louisburg, Cape Breton. The steamer brought a cargo of coal here and returned in light trim. The Leyland liner, Memphis, with a gigantic cargo, including nearly 100,000 bushels of grain, also sailed last night for Manchester, England.

Today the American steamer Kanawha will leave port for St. Nazaire, France, and Genoa, Italy, taking out 1500 horses and a large consignment of steel. Her charter here has been costly to her charterers, the Franco-Canadian line, for the vessel costs them $2300 a day whether she lies at the dock or is ploughing her way through the Atlantic.

No orders have been received concerning the sailing of the steamer Great City or the Lord Cromer. The Marengo of the Wilson line is expected to sail this morning for Hull, England, via New York.

Yesterday morning the White Star liner Canopic with more than 1400 passengers from Mediterranean ports and the Azores raced into port, completing the fastest passage she has ever made from the Azores to this port.

FOR CLEANER STREETS

Board of Trade Sends Out Request to Large Number of Merchants Relative to Disposal of Rubbish

The board of trade has sent out a communication to 670 merchants asking them to cease the practice of sweeping refuse into gutters, to sweep it into piles instead and pick up the refuse for deposit in barrels. The suggestion has been made to the board of trade and the public has been induced to take a hand in this clean-up campaign, not alone the storekeepers but householders who often sweep refuse into the gutters.

The following is a copy of the letter sent out to the merchants:

Lowell, Mass. Oct. 6, 1916.

One item of the clean-up campaign now being planned for Lowell is something in which you and every storekeeper in Lowell can assist without cost or material difficulty.

Will you not instruct your sweeper not to brush anything from the sidewalks into the street, but rather to accumulate all refuse, whether inside or out, in proper refuse barrels, to be carried away?

Every ounce of litter or rubbish that is swept into the street simply transfers the nuisance from one location to another, and remains equally offensive to you and to the public. We believe the streets and sidewalks can be kept clean, but that they cannot be so long as the sidewalk accumulations are swept into the street.

The board of trade committee desires your hearty co-operation. The committee feels that it is not asking much, but that the effect of the general adoption of this sweep-up idea established, will be tremendously effective in helping the city to keep clean.

We ask your co-operation.

Yours respectfully,

John H. Murphy,

THE LADY'S WORKBAG

The gift drawer is the thing now and into it go all pretty boxes, pieces of ribbon, scraps of silk, tissue paper and articles that do not seem to fit into any particular place in the home. Any gift suggestions clipped from magazines or paper should go into a labelled envelope. Many places of finished hand-work and gifts picked up now and then.

A dainty envelope-shaped case for a nightdress, made of fine white pique and embroidered in white, is a very acceptable gift and one that most of us have felt the need of when traveling. The edges may be scalloped and the flap finished with initials, or they may be a design for eyelet and solid work if you have time and courage for something more elaborate.

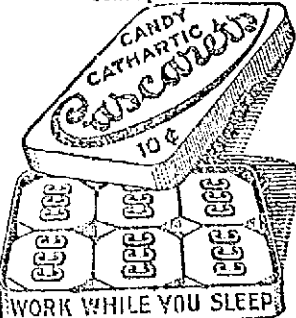

When hemstitching, if after the hems are basted, the corners are worked that and then the edges, you will find that there is no trouble in having the work slip along and making the corners uneven.

To prevent the finger from becoming pricked when hemming or embroidering, put a small piece of surgeon's adhesive plaster over it. This plaster can easily be removed, and a roll may be kept in the work basket for this purpose. This device is much more practical than the celluloid and silver finger shields that can be bought.

CASCARETS SELL TWENTY MILLION BOXES PER YEAR

Best, safest cathartic for liver and bowels, and people know it.

WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Tonight sure! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or bother you all the next day like calomel, salts and pills. They act gently but thoroughly. Mothers should give Cascarets, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascaret any time. They are harmless and children love them.

On the beach your bathing costume may have the most conventional of skirts, along with a daintily trimmed bodice in the prevailing style for swimming costumes but as soon as you are in water up to your hips you can turn the conventional skirt into comfortable swimming bloomers in a twinkling.

The skirt overlaps at the front and back and there are sloping panels or revers which run from the belt to the hem at each side of the front and the back centre, and button to the skirt with snap fasteners or loops and buttons.

When in the water these panels may be snapped or buttoned to each other at either side of the skirt, the panel at the front fastening to the panel at the back and the fullness at the side of the skirt is held close against the leg, bloomer fashion.

Under this clever skirt is a short, scantily cut bloomer attached to the knee with an elastic strap and buckle. In black or navy pussy willow taffeta with trimmings of striped satin this suit is particularly fetching.

Where baby is concerned, crocheting is very much to the fore—quite as much so as embroidery. It is doubtful whether very small babies will ever wear anything but crocheted socks, for there is not anything that is quite so comfy. The small sock offers opportunity for the crocheter, for baby can't have too many pairs.

These socks may be all white or of the palest blue and pink, or they may be white ornamented with one or the other, or a combination of the two. In making these socks into a stocking both for the little baby or for the somewhat older baby.

In home dressmaking a very important point to remember, especially in making coats and skirts is the frequent use of the iron. Unless the seams are carefully pressed with a hot iron over damp cloth the garment, however well cut, will have an amateur look.

Every sheer dress material should be pressed on a soft surface and without dampening.

A good play dress for a child can be made from a man's worn shirt. Cut in kimono style and the work is very little, not to mention the saving in the young one's clothes.

A travelling convenience that is as useful at home as abroad is made after the manner of the old-time needle book that rolled up. The foundation of it is a strip of ribbon about six inches wide and 24 inches long. Lay this flat and cover it with the thickness of cotton batting; put a layer of coarse white dannel next to it and then one of coarse holid white net.

Blend the edges together with a satin ribbon, matching the outside of the convenience, and then turn up four or five inches of the bottom of the strip and tack the ends to form a pocket. About five inches from the top put a pincushion with corners reaching to the edges; have this an inch and a half deep and stick it full of vari-colored pins, as well as the ordinary sort, in the space above the pocket, or it could contain several needles, or assorted buttons. A ribbon sewed to the top which is cut to a point is tied about the convenience when it is rolled for travelling.

once by having a triangular and square eyelets embroidered lavishly, instead of oval and round ones. The most difficult part about embroidering the new eyelet is to keep its regular form, but a little practice will soon make this possible. The square and triangular eyelets are made in the same way as the round eyelets. They are first outlined with running stitch, the linen is then clipped and turned back with the needle to the wrong side, and the work is then done closely to the run-in line.

Eyelets of these shapes are not only effective on neckwear. They will serve beautifully to decorate tea napkins, aprons, linen cases and centre pieces. The woman who knows how to crochet will be very glad to hear of a way whereby she can add a line of this work to the surface of material, rather than joining it to the extreme edge. This is done by pinching up the material on the right side and with a very fine crochet needle taking up a tiny cover of double crochet, returning with the slip stitch and plecting in every other stitch.

Cording is a very pretty decoration for collars. One collar of pink crepe de chine is made of two layers of the material. Before the first piece of the crepe were joined a thin cord covered with the material was slipped between the two and caught at intervals. Between the points where it was caught the cord was allowed to flare out and form scallops.

The newest shirtwaists are quite plain but are enriched by having covered buttons of the material embroidered in combinations of colors.

When covering a mold with silk, first cover the top with a thin layer of cotton wadding, cut just a little larger than the mold and caught in around the edge with loose stitches. The silk must be cut in a circle nearly twice as wide in diameter as the diameter of the mold itself.

A good way to do is to cut a paper pattern—a circle of paper the correct size—then cut all the silk pieces like this. After the silk is cut it can be decorated in any pretty way you choose.

When the holes in the heels of stockings are too big to darn with a crochet needle and darning cotton or Saxony, go round and round with single crochet, gradually diminishing the stitches until the hole has been completely filled.

LEANNESS OF WAR TIMES

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Is the national English type becoming thinner than it used to be? Professor Keith, before the British association at Newcastle, said that John Bull is reflecting in his physical being something of the leanness of war-time.

Professor Keith told the association that the face of the typical Englishman is becoming longer and thinner. London is now full of colonial soldiers—bronzed, spare, lean, aquiline and with prominent cheekbones, and the speaker infers that the English type in the future will come nearer in their faces to approximating these visitors than the blunt, country squire, John Bull.

It is pointed out that the typical "City Man" or financial district business man is perceptibly thinner than was his father. The farmer has lost his plumpness. The retired army officer is a sparer figure. Even the country squire—the last survival of the now fast-disappearing England—bears a closer resemblance to Don Quixote than to John Bull.

"I had Catarrh for thirty-nine years, and I doctored with a great many doctors and took all the patent medicines that I heard of. At last, I went to Canada and saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised. I commenced taking them in 1914, and kept right on for a year and my Catarrh was entirely relieved. Thank God for the relief as it is an awful disease to have. The 'Fruit-a-tives' have helped me in other ways, also. Now, if you want to publish this, you may do so for it is nothing but the truth, and the whole truth."

Destroyer Sterrett Brings Back British Steamer City of Madras, Which Ignored Order to Stop

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The British steamship City of Madras was overhauled off Ambrose channel lightship last night by the United States torpedo boat destroyer Sterrett and brought back to Clifton, Staten Island, after she had ignored the war vessel's signal to stop when she left quarantine. Capt. McDonald of the steamship Uluksuan, which arrived yesterday from Cuba, reported that while off the Jersey coast yesterday, an American destroyer dashed up through the mist and circled his vessel. Capt. McDonald broke out the United States flag and the destroyer disappeared into the northeast.

MAN SENT DEATH NOTES THEN CAME HOME

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—George R. Sparrell, Marblehead shoe manufacturer and prominent resident of Dedham, who, after disappearing from his home on Wednesday morning, sent letters to his wife and brother-in-law declaring he was to commit suicide, returned to his home late yesterday afternoon, after an absence of 36 hours.

"I do not want to make a statement and shall not," declared Mr. Sparrell when seen at his residence in Dedham last night by a reporter. "I shall not say where I spent the intervening hours between the time when I left home and made my return."

"I shall say nothing about the so-called suicide note. I am at home with my family. That should be enough for all to know. I prefer to let matters remain as they are, with no further statement from me. I prefer to let people think just what they like."

Mr. Sparrell, who is the senior member of the firm of Sparrell, Vickery & Bragdon of Marblehead, left his home in Dedham on Wednesday morning to go to his place of business. He told his wife he would return in the evening at 6 o'clock.

In the evening he mailed two letters, one to his wife, Mrs. Ella Sparrell of Woodleigh road, Dedham, and the other to Frank B. Carter, a brother-in-law, also of Woodleigh road. The letters contained the suicide threat and were mailed from Boston shortly before 10 p. m. Wednesday.

R. M. Bailey, Jr., Mrs. Sparrell's brother, who lives nearly opposite, received the letters yesterday morning when he called at the Dedham post-office.

The letters designated the exact place where he was to commit suicide. It was Motley's pond, a section of the Charles river, off Common street, Dedham.

Changed Mind at Pond

Mr. Bailey went to the border of the pond soon after the receipt of the letters. At the water's edge he found an envelope fastened to a twig of a tree. On the envelope was written in a rough

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this!

Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be tight, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; and incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

hand, "Tell Ella I will be home tonight."

The police were informed of the situation. They and firemen of the town dragged the river for two hours during the morning and then, at the request of the relatives of the missing man, discontinued their operations. It was planned to recommence the dragnets last evening if Sparrell had not returned.

Late yesterday afternoon, unheralded save by the brief note he left on the pond's edge, addressed to his wife's attention, Sparrell returned to his home. He at once shut himself up from the questioning of neighbors and friends.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure. There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from A. W. Dows & Co., or any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footsteps become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more pleasant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES FOR MONTH OF AUGUST

INTERESTING REPORT CULLED FROM BOARD OF HEALTH BULLETIN

In a resume of communicable diseases for August, 1916, published in the public health bulletin issued monthly by the state board of health, the following appears:

Infantile paralysis has overshadowed in interest all other communicable diseases during the month of August. Another striking fact is the sudden drop in the number of cases of measles reported.

Prevalence.—Communicable diseases were reported in slightly greater numbers during August, 1916, than during the same month in 1915. However, there was a marked drop in the total of reported cases of diseases dangerous to the public health as compared with July, 1916. This was due to the sudden cessation of the epidemic of measles, which has been prevalent in the state for some months.

Measles.—There has been a marked decrease in the number of cases of measles reported during the month. This seems to be the usual phenomenon. During July, 1916, there were 2713 cases reported, while in the month just closed there were only 595. As compared with August, 1915, this disease was considerably more prevalent this year.

The following cities and towns have exceeded their endemic index for the month of August:

[Endemic index signifies the average for five years of reported cases exclusive of epidemics. This index is applied to each city and town for each month for every communicable disease.]

Amherst	(1)	3
Cambridge	(8)	24
Fitchburg	(1)	31
Lowell	(1)	31
Malden	(1)	15
Milton	(2)	13
Newton	(2)	15
North Adams	(1)	69
Somerville	(2)	15

Diphtheria.—Diphtheria showed a slight decrease during the month of August as compared with the previous month and a considerable decrease as compared with August, 1915. Lindlow has had a sharp outbreak of this disease during the month, while the number of cases reported from Fitchburg is well above the average.

The following cities and towns have exceeded their endemic index for diphtheria:

Fitchburg	(5)	24
Lawrence	(2)	10
Lowell	(2)	15
Lindlow	(1)	18
Reading	(0)	10
Watertown	(1)	13
Westfield	(0)	7

Whooping cough.—The number of cases of this disease reported during the month is smaller, both in comparison with August, 1915, and with July of this year.

Typhoid fever.—Typhoid fever has been reported in exactly the same amount during 1916, as it was during August, 1915. As compared with July of this year there has been an increase in the number of cases reported from Lynn.

The following cities and towns have exceeded their endemic index for typhoid fever:

Beverly	(1)	6
Chelsea	(2)	18
Fall River	(12)	41
Gloucester	(1)	4
Lowell	(8)	17
Lynn	(4)	29

North Adams	(3)	6
Whitman	(0)	3

Pulmonary Tuberculosis.—There was a decrease in the number of cases reported to this department during August, both when compared with the same month of last year and July, 1916. The explanation of this decrease is not clear in view of the fact that we have largely increased dispensary facilities.

MORSE- MADE CLOTHES

UNION MADE

FEW great industries have been so severely affected during the past two years as garment making.

Leaps and bounds in the costs of wools and workmanship have put Men's Clothing manufacturers to a merciless test of their ability.

Because of the decades of long experience, the long established knowledge of the industry, and the far reaching resources that back their makers, we have placed supreme dependence this season on Morse Made Suits and Overcoats for Men and Young Men.

Careful comparison of values will unfailingly convince you that as SMART, faultlessly styled garments of an unusually high grade of fabric and tailoring, Morse Made are unsurpassed. And not the small est assurance of quality is the fact that

Anterior Poliomyelitis

During the month of August there were 267 cases of anterior poliomyelitis reported to this department. This is a considerable increase over July, during which month there were 107 cases. The distribution of this disease is interesting. While cases have been reported from almost every part of the state, there is a distinct tendency to localization in certain important areas. In the northwestern portion of the commonwealth there is a group of cases in the Pittsfield-North Adams area and a similar group of cases in the Greenfield-Montague area. Another important area of infection includes Northampton, Holyoke, Springfield, West Springfield and Westfield. In the central part of the state there is not the same tendency to grouping of cases. Worcester has reported 14 cases, but this is not a high incidence when the population is considered. The Metropolitan district, from a comparative standpoint, has had a low incidence of the disease. The latest active focus of infection has localized along the Merrimack river, and includes Amesbury, Haverhill, West Newbury, Lawrence and Lowell. While there are scattering cases in the Cape district, Fall River and New Bedford are remarkably free from the infection.

The reported cases are distributed as follows: Boston 34, North Adams 20, Springfield 17, Amesbury 15, Pittsfield 10 each, Somerville 8, Holyoke 7, Cambridge, Haverhill and Montague 6 each, Eastampton, Salem and Worcester 5 each; Adams, Fitchburg, Lowell, New Bedford, Northampton, Revere, Southbridge and Wareham 4 each; Bourne, Dudley, Erving, East Longmeadow, Fall River, Hadley, Lawrence, Milton, Newton, Stoughton and Westfield 3 each; Beverly, Braintree, Charlton, Greenfield, Malden, Medford, Newburyport, Peabody and Uxbridge, 2 each; 1 case each in Abington, Agawam, Barre, Blackstone, Brookline, Canton, Chelsea, Dartmouth, Douglas, Fairhaven, Framingham, Georgetown, Hopkdale, Lancaster, Leominster, Lynn, Littleton, Milford, North Brookfield, Norwood, Orleans, Plympton, Reading, Savoy, Southwick, Sturbridge, Taunton, Webster, Whitman, West Boylston, West Springfield and Yarmouth.

Mortality.—There were 39 deaths reported to this department from anterior poliomyelitis during August. This gives a fatality rate of 15.2 per cent. While the returns of deaths upon which these figures are based are admittedly incomplete, it indicates that the infection is of a moderately virulent nature.

BOXING, GOLF
AND ATHLETICSRed Sox Again Win World's Championship
by Completely Outclassing Brooklyn Dodgers

(By Sporting Editor of Sun)

Hail to the Red Sox, champions of the world!

By defeating Brooklyn yesterday by the score of 4 to 1 and thereby making it four out of five victories, the Sox again captured the highest honors in America's greatest game. Again the American league team triumphed over the National league entry, and again it was demonstrated that superior team work could smother individual slugging.

The greatest gathering in the history of the game, over 42,000 people, saw the fourth downfall of Brooklyn in five playing days and cheered with enthusiasm as the Boston batters hammered their way to a decisive victory.

Win Without Spoke and Barry

The Boston club, despite the loss of the great Speaker and the injury that incapacitated the brainy and brilliant Barry, showed during the series and the entire season that it is a genuinely smart ball club, game to the core and one that fights hardest when in the most desperate predicament.

To another club the "holes" created by the absence of two such stars would undoubtedly cause it to fall to pieces, but not so with the clan of Carrigan. Under the magnificent leadership of this brilliant manager they went into the games with the determination seldom if ever equalled by any ball club. While in their own league they encountered more strenuous opposition than ever before, they battered down these obstacles and then by completely routing the Brooklyn team they again rose to the highest pinnacle in baseball's hall of fame.

Tribute to Carrigan

Bill Carrigan, who led his team to this remarkable accomplishment, has, according to reports, ended his career as a baseball leader, and in his departure the game sustains a great loss. He has proven one of the greatest leaders the game has ever produced. He performed miracles with his charges. He said little, but thought much; he rarely attacked a player, but often praised him; he studied his men and his adversaries, and he knew all that he could get and he got it. He never lost faith or confidence in his players and they reciprocated, and he leaves the game with the respect of friend and foe alike.

Carrigan won two pennants and two world's championships as boss of the

Shore in Great Form

Long Ernie Shore had the honor of pitching the game that brought the title to the Red Sox. This lanky slabman, who opened the big classic and twirled a fine game for eight innings and retired with his team still leading, came back yesterday and gave a spectacular exhibition of pitching. He pitched one of the very best games ever shown in a world's series. But two legitimate hits were made off his pitching in nine innings. One scratch and clean strikes by Mooney and Stengel of the National league could accumulate. Shore passed but one man. His control was perfect and his fielding, especially his covering of first, was of a high order.

Janvin Came Through

Janvin, the youthful substitute for Barry, again came through with flying colors. He not only fielded his position in a Barry, but he connected with two hits, one a two-bagger. With Duffy Lewis, who also made two hits, he shared the honors of leading stick artist.

Janvin's double and a three-bagger

by Lewis were the only extra base hits of the game. Scott, whose fielding up to yesterday had been sensational, made his first misplay of the series in the final game. He made two errors, but also executed several clever plays. Gardner, the home run king, failed to get a hit yesterday, but his fielding was especially good. Shorten contributed an opportune bingle, as did Cady and Hooper.

Wheat's Remarkable Catch

For Brooklyn, Big Jeff Pfeffer carried the task of stopping the onrush of the Sox, but his efforts proved futile. While he pitched a fair game, his support was erratic and the inferior playing around second, which was off color throughout the series, proved disastrous. While Wheat failed to come up to expectations in the series he contributed the fielding feat of the game yesterday. He made a wonderful catch of a blow off Shore's timber in the fifth inning. His throwing, however, was very mediocre and his fielding of Lewis' hit in the second was not up to the standard. This crack should have been cut down to a single, but by Wheat allowing the ball to go by him, it was converted into a triple.

Olson's Playing On Color

Olson at shortstop again fell down and he had the distinction of making two errors yesterday and it was the turning point of the game. With one out and first and second occupied by Cady and Hooper respectively and two strikes on Janvin, Janny hit a bouncer to Olson. With a double play in sight, the Dodger shortstop juggled the ball and then made a wild toss to Cutchaw to force Hooper, with the result that Cady scored and Hooper went to third. Hooper later scored on Shorten's single. This was the break that brought ultimate victory to the Red Sox.

Chief Meyers, caught a good game for the vanquished team and worked hard to steady his mates. His efforts were in vain and he again emerged

Scenes at Game

The scenes attending the final game were inspiring. The vast multitudes, which formed a hedge of humanity around the largest ball park in the world, included many famous men and women, who came from all parts of the country to see the final struggle. Representatives from practically every state in the union, with newspaper editors, and even Cuba occupied seats in the elevated press box. Music was furnished throughout the game and when the band played the national anthem all stood and uncovered. This was a most beautiful spectacle. And when the final play was headed a parade around the field and grounds. Cheers for the winners and cheers for the losers were given. The Brooklyn players, led by Manager Robinson then rushed over to the Boston dugout and congratulated the victors. President Hubert of Brooklyn grasped the hand of President Lannin of the Red Sox while the other notables shook and exchanged compliments. Then to see the expedition in manner in which that crowd of almost 50,000 was transported back to the depots and hotels was certainly a picture no artist could paint.

SOME CLOSE FINISHES

WEYMOUTH, Oct. 13.—Close finishes featured the racing at the special holiday matinee meet of the Old Colony Gentlemen's Driving club at South Weymouth yesterday afternoon.

In the 2:17 class it required four heats to decide the winner, with Spir- it coming from sixth place in the first heat, beating out True Fall by small margins in the second and third and then leading the procession all away around the fourth mile.

In the free-for-all, pacing, the gelding Northern Spy won the fast two heats in 1:07½ each, the fastest time of the afternoon, but was unable to repeat and the Lowanda took the next three and the race. Spirit ran a mile in 2:19½, the fastest of the meet.

FELTMAN MAY BUY ROBINS

Charles J. Feltnan, proprietor of Feltnan's restaurant in Cohey Island and prominent business man of Brooklyn, may soon become the owner of the Brooklyn Nationals.

"I had a long talk with Mr. Eb- berts about the sale of the Brooklyn club in Boston," said Mr. Feltnan. "I have nothing definite to say on the matter. I believe that the owners of the Brooklyn club will take the matter under consideration."

According to one of the details of the club, its franchise is worth $500,000 and the plant at Joliet field $250,000.

President Ebber's controls 51 per cent. of the common stock and Steve and Ed McKeever the remaining 49 per cent. There is $10,000 in preferred stock outstanding.

The three races on the card were won in straight heats. Locust Bug took the 2:20 trot, Little Frank D the 2:10 pace and Binville the 2:12 trot. Valentine held the reins on Little Frank D and Locust Bug, putting him up among the leading drivers of the meeting. Cox leads the list with eight victories and Murphy is second with six.

In the first heat of the 2:10 pace The Deputy Sheriff fell going up the back stretch. Whitehead, driving Hal Leaf, was thrown, but was not injured.

WORLD'S SERIES MELON
DIVIDED TODAYPLAYERS MET AT FENWAY PARK
AND SHARED SPOILS—CARRI-
GAN'S CHECK CALLS FOR $97,750.47

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—Melon cutting for the Boston Red Sox occurred at the club dressing room at Fenway park at noon today. Manager Carrigan dressed in haste after the game yesterday, pausing only before he left the field to empty his managerial satchel of baseballs, old and new, which he tossed into the crowd for souvenirs.

He hurried to the quarters of the National commission, whose members were less than 10 minutes in hastening back to the lights of Broadway and Chicago. He received a certified check for the entire amount due the Boston players, 60 per cent of the receipts of the first four games, $97,750.47. This check is made payable to Carrigan's order, and he will deposit it at a local banking institution, receiving in exchange a new check book, with which he wrestles at the neonide gathering.

Practically all of the players will receive each a full share. It is reported that Helme Wagner and Vann Gregg will divide one and three-fourths shares, and that Pennock will be given a quarter share. Wyckoff and Walsh will divide one share, according to the same report.

The players voted on the question of division, and it is understood that Forest Cady made a fine impression on his teammates by a speech in which he advocated an even break for everybody. The players were unanimous in voting "Right" in the end, and prizes will be made up for various attacks of the club out of the play-off share.

TRACK RECORD CLT

TAUNTON, Oct. 13.—The Taunton Gentlemen's Driving club had its last meet of the season yesterday. W. J. Minkley of Providence driving Foxy Jane and Barbara B. lowered the track record of 1:02 1-2.

CARRIGAN TO RUN FOR MAYOR OF LEWISTON

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—Bill Carrigan, the man who has given Boston two world's championship baseball teams, may or may not retire from baseball. Just now this is uncertain, and it may be a couple of months before the final decision comes. That it will come there is assured, for by that time Bill Carrigan expects to be mayor of his home city, Lewiston, Me.

Some Campaigner
If Bill is elected mayor, and there is every reason to believe he will be, it is quite likely he will retire from baseball, for up to date there never has been a mayor of any place holding down that job and acting as manager of a big league club.

Bill's campaign for mayor will be handled by himself, and as Boston fans know Bill is some campaigner. He is to be the standard bearer of the democrats and, although Maine was swept by the republicans in its recent election, people in Lewiston feel positive that when the day for the city election rolls around it will be a complete reversal—a clean sweep for Carrigan—something like the one he and his team mates have just handed the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Meets Fans After Game
At the conclusion of the game yesterday Manager Bill met most of the fans who have been his most ardent admirers and he expressed his statement that he is to retire from baseball. In fact he let it be known that yesterday was his final appearance in professional baseball, and that he could find no more fitting way to observe his retirement than win a world's championship.

When the news that Carrigan was to retire became known in Boston, the team was on the road fighting hard for first place, and many fans were of the opinion that the announcement would undoubtedly the Red Sox and force them out of the race. Instead, the Red Sox plugged all the harder, and with Bill leading them they went into the den of the Tiger and the lair of the White Sox and emerged victorious, holding aloft the American league pennant—an other tribute to Carrigan's leadership.

Jack Barry May Be Manager.
Rumors have had it since that Pat Donovan will be the manager of the team next year, but those who keep their ears close to the ground believe that Jack Barry, this year's captain, will be the one to step into Carrigan's shoes. They point out that Barry's great work in the series has shown the Boston boy to be a capable second-sacker, so Lannin need not worry on that score. The one particular thing he must be sure to get is a manager who can keep the team at the top, and that Jack Barry can do this is practically certain.

NEW BEDFORD RACES

NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 13.—Seven races were held at Evergreen Track yesterday under the auspices of the New Bedford Driving Club. Cheerful Charley defeated Prince Gleason in straight heats in the fastest event of the day. Nyder won from a field of five starters in the 220 class.

LOWELL HIGH ELEVEN BLANKS ACADEMY BOYS

Lowell high completely outclassed the Lawrence academy of Groton in an uninteresting football game played at Spaulding park before a crowd of 1000 or more yesterday morning. After 44 minutes of play during which the Lowell backs tore through their opponents line almost at will the score stood 55 to 0.

Once more the followers of the local high school team were impressed with its work and they expect to see one of the best teams that has represented the school in many seasons. The pronounced superiority of the back line has been evident in the three games played this season.

After the game had been won and the cheering squads had quieted down, Coach Conway sent 10 substitutes onto the field, withdrawing all the regulars except McCann but even the second team fairly outplayed the weak academy eleven.

Warren Mansur, a substitute back, kicked a field goal from the field, something that had not been done by a Lowell high man in several seasons. Capt. Liston's work was a feature of the game. He scored four touchdowns and booted five goals. The other members of the backfield, Lynch, Heathcock, Mansur and Mahoney, gave some flashy exhibitions while the front line held like so many stones.

The first period ended with Lowell 20 points to the good, they added 19 more in the second, four more in the third and 18 in the last.

HENIGAN WINS BUNTING MARATHON RACE

James Henigan, running under the colors of the Dorchester, A.A., was an easy winner in the modified marathon race held yesterday in connection with the eighth athletic carnival of the United States Cricket Club and Athletic association. In spite of the cold wind that swept across

JIMMY HENIGAN

Bunting park there were about 500 on hand to see Henigan finish and to watch the list of track events that followed.

The marathon was run over a course of 12 miles, starting at the Vesper Country club and finishing with five times around the Bunting track. Henigan, in a field of 12, started from scratch. His time for the course was 51 minutes and 16 seconds.

Henigan ran a great race and finished strong with a half lap lead over Merchant, the second man. Merchant's time was 51 minutes and 21 seconds. F. Nagel and J. Starr of the St. Alphonsus A.A. took second and third places, respectively. Nagel's time was 51 minutes and 35 seconds and Starr finished in 54 minutes and 14 seconds.

Following the marathon a program of track events was carried out. The events were all of a high class order and provided plenty of entertainment for the spectators.

One of the features was a pursuit race between Michael Murphy and William Shore. One of the participants started from in front of the grand stand and the other half way around the track. Shore won the race. The summary of the events follows:

TOFALOS THROWS VOGEL TWICE IN 8 MINUTES

Demetrius Tofalos, of Greece, wrestler, acting as using a fighting body hold threw Carl Vogel of Germany to the mat in just eight minutes in one of three bouts staged at the Playhouse last evening. A half minute later Tofalos made the second fall, throwing Vogel by a waist lock.

The preliminary was between Jim Pappas of Lowell and John Carlson, the clever Boston boy. Both struggled for 30 minutes and tried to execute all sorts of holds and tricks but neither was successful.

Prokos was given a great hand when he entered the ring for his match with Young Hinkelenschmidt of Boston. Prokos, who comes from this city, threw his opponent twice in nine minutes and his followers shook the theatre with applause.

The matches were refereed by Joseph Lustig, one time American middleweight champion of America. It was announced that Tofalos had accepted a challenge from Dr. B. F. Roller of New York City and that a match between the pair might be arranged for this city.

Pete Hartley of New York knocked out a boxer named Johnny Duffy, also of New York, in three rounds in Lawrence last night. Duffy put up a miserable exhibition and the management announced during the progress of the bout that the coupons would be good for the October 25th meeting. Walter Bartlett of California stopped Joe Clark of Lawrence in four rounds in the semi-final. Bartlett shaped up as a likely performer during the short time that he was in the ring and will show at the same club shortly.

At last Phinney Boyle of this city is to meet Willie Jones, the tough and rugged New Yorker. The pair will meet in the main bout at the commercial A.C. tonight. For some time Jones manager has tried to arrange a bout with Boyle and while the latter was under Manager Wagner there was a chance. It seems strange that at this time Jones should be obtained to replace Tommy Reagan who withdrew earlier in the week.

SO. ENDS TO MEET O.J.A.C.
Tomorrow afternoon Spaulding park will be the scene of another battle royal of the Pitts So. End team. This time they will meet C.M.A.C. Both teams have defeated every team worth while and of any account, and are, therefore, out to win. A fine stimulus is announced in the fact that they will play for a purse of $200. No doubt this will be the real championship game of the season. The probable batteries for Pitts are Devlin and Freeman; and for C.M.A.C. Constantineau and Sullivan. Both pitchers are in fine condition and of course confident of their game. The usual supporters are ready to back up and defend their players, and feel that the world's series has nothing on this contest. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

FOOTBALL GAME
The Indians will play the Orioles of Wintthrop at Bunting park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. John Nelson will referee the game. Williams, a former Colby star, will appear in the Indian lineup. DEFECT IN THE CHARTER

Our city charter has several very grave defects but perhaps the worst of all is the provision by which the heads of departments or the administrative officers are made responsible to the municipal council as a whole instead of to the individual commissioners.

The municipal council elects the superintendents of the various departments so that the commissioners chosen by the people to conduct these departments often find themselves in conflict with their respective superintendents.

Suppose Commissioner Donnelly had a superintendent who showed disregard of the orders given him; it is plain that the business of the city could not be properly conducted so far as that department is concerned. There might be a conflict of authority equal to a deadlock or at least a lack of healthy co-operation. If the commissioner who hears the responsibility calls the superintendent to account for non-performance of duty, the latter can snap his fingers at the official, feeling that he is responsible only to the body that elected him. Thus he can defy the commissioner unless the municipal council steps in to remove him; but in such cases the council usually avoids the responsibility. It is not popular business to fire any superintendent, however well he deserves to be removed.

Here is where the chief trouble lies and where the city charter is woefully weak and defective. The commissioner who is responsible for a department should have the power to hire and fire his subordinates. Vested with that power he will not be hampered by the contention of any superintendent who may be badly affected with a feeling of exaggerated ego.

The differences aired in the press between Mayor O'Donnell and Supl. Welch of the police department illustrate the point. Mayor O'Donnell is responsible for law enforcement; but the superintendent holds that unless he has absolute control of the department, which the charter does not permit, he cannot guarantee an enforcement of the law.

If Mayor O'Donnell had the power as he should have, we have no doubt he would reply: "Very well, Mr. Superintendent, if you cannot enforce the law with the entire department at your command, I will find a man who can."

If His Honor could remove the superintendent, there would be none of this haggling over what is beyond question the ordinary exercise of the mayor's functions as commissioner of public safety.

It would be well to have the charter amended so as to have all superintendents accountable to the commissioners in charge of the various departments. Until this is done there will still be more or less trouble such as we now find between Mayor O'Donnell and the head of the police department. With the power of removal vested in the commissioner of public safety, there would be no question of divided responsibility and there would be nobody to blame but the mayor if the law were not strictly enforced in every particular.

If we are ever to have an ideal charter the defects should be noted and remedied as soon as possible.

THE WRONG WAY

If a park or a street be needed in any part of the city and if no more pressing things demand immediate attention the park or the street should be provided; but to form parks or streets as an excuse to get rid of a block of buildings is not a good policy and it is not good business. Therefore, the extension of Dummer street stands as an example of a mistaken policy and of bad municipal business.

If what was done at Dummer street as a result of the mistaken zeal of a previous administration were done everywhere else, the city would have more street and park space than it has building space—and we surely need more building space than we have. If the problem of congested and ramshackle properties could be solved by street extension, it is about time we extended every street in Lowell as far as to blot out our bad spots. If pursued in the neighborhood of city hall even, the municipal palace would eventually stand in the middle of a space as large as one of the common, and with few other buildings in the vicinity.

The Sun did not favor the Dummer street extension from the first and time has shown that The Sun's view was sound. There was no general demand for the "improvement" even though the few who favored it may have been pressing in advancing its advantages. Pedestrian traffic there is not unduly heavy and there is practically no teaming. The two streets that run parallel to the extension more than take care of all practical needs, and so far as the park argument is concerned, it is not needed and it is not important enough to take any change in existing conditions. Then again, the city cannot afford to spend $100,000 in experimental whims while so many real needs go begging for attention. The extension of the street was foolish, and the park plan as far as Broadway is equally so. If the administration acts wisely the present plan will stand where it is, and indeed it would be a benefit to the people of Lowell if the action could be rescinded and a public hall or some other beautiful and useful building erected where it is proposed to have two unnecessary streets and a negligible park.

WILSON'S NEUTRALITY AGAIN

President Wilson's neutrality in this war has been nowhere shown more strikingly than in the note which has just been sent to France, Great Britain, Russia and Japan on the submarine issue. Those who accuse him of too great firmness against Germany and too great partiality to the allies ought to read the full text and then ask if there is any intimation in it that the president takes his policy from anything but sound American doctrines and established canons of international law.

Looking with apprehension on the success of the submarine and fearing that it might be developed so as to menace their naval interests, the allies sent a note to the neutral powers, stating plainly that the submarine should not be given the privileges of warships. In other words, the allies would like very much to have the United States tell Germany that German submarines could not enter our harbors or remain for the established 24-hour period. The allied demand had special application to the merchant submarine Deutschland and if the United States conceded their point no other merchant submarine would be allowed to land here.

To give point to their arguments the allies hinted that the submarines of neutrals might be sunk at sight by them, being mistaken for German submarines. This, by the way, may make for new complications if German submarines operate as one or more did last Sunday off Nantucket, with the American fleet in the immediate vicinity.

In his answer, President Wilson flatly refused to take the dictation of the allies as to American procedure. He said that so long as submarines obey international law and respect American rights, we shall give them the same privileges that we give warships of the allies. He says also that if any belligerent fires on an American ship, it will have to answer to this government and cannot hide behind new excuses of expediency. Was there any indication of weakness or lack of neutrality in that stand? And wherein is it contrary to sound American doctrine?

THE SECTIONAL ISSUE

Echoing the most partisan of all the campaign cries, Mr. Hughes goes through the country crying that under President Wilson the "South is in the saddle." It is a catchy phrase, but using it is a very dangerous game, especially when it is untrue. When the cry was raised after the Civil war, it used to be called "waving the bloody shirt," but Hughes was not expected to go to such extremes. Already it is having its reaction, like the rumpus raised by the foreign sympathizers. President Garfield, of Williams college, son of former President Garfield and a life-long republican, recently declared in favor of President Wilson and after praising him for his achievements said: "Permit me to add that the sectional issue raised by some of our republican leaders is repugnant to the American spirit and the welfare of our institutions. Under the circumstances it offends the sense of fair dealing with political opponents, it tends to arouse old fires of passion, and, if successful, will disunite a people now united and incidentally destroy the party that fosters so calamitous an issue." No truer word has been spoken during the campaign, and Hughes ought to think it over in one of his short rest periods between speeches.

BULL FIGHTS STOPPED

Our bright border correspondent recently described in one of his Sun letters the attendance of some of the soldier boys at a modified Mexican bull fight in which the bull was not killed but taken away wounded. Now comes the news from Mexico

BACKACHE

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys. The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. It is only reasonable to believe that they are liable to derangement. Their signals of distress, however, are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depression, drowsiness, irritability, headache, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state of health," says Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "is to drink plenty pure water and obtain from your favorite pharmacy a small amount of auric, which is dispensed by most every druggist." Auric is inexpensive and should be taken before meals.

that the cruel sport has been entirely suppressed. This is good news and it indicates returning sanity in the war-mad country. All through the time of revolutions, when the rabble in Mexico preferred to fight rather than to starve, the bull rings were open in the cities, and despite the widespread poverty the returns were said to have been heavy. Now if Signor or Mr. or President Carranza could be persuaded to get up a world's series there is hope that he and Pancho Villa and their followers might be sitting some day in the bleachers side by side and venting their excitement in a more healthy way than they do now. To paraphrase an old maxim: Show us a nation's pastime and we'll tell you what kind of nation it is.

LOWELL'S SITES

Says the Lowell Digest: "Lowell, situated on the banks of the Merrimack and Concord rivers, and being served by the two important railroad systems of New England, offers plentiful and splendid factory sites which have both rail and water facilities. The area of Lowell being only fourteen square miles presents many available sites within easy reach of an unlimited supply of labor."

This is a rather naive argument in favor of a congested city, and it is questionable if it would not be far better for Lowell to have twice its present area, but the main point brought out is that the city has some splendid "sites." It is very true, but unfortunately out-of-town concerns are more concerned with factories than with sites. The city that covers its sites with up-to-date buildings will get the new business in nine cases out of ten and when Lowell will be able to advertise a new mill or two to let, there will be no lack of demand for locations.

Plant Juice Has Made Him Like New

Lewis A. Lovering, of 82 Park View Ave., Lowell, Had Indigestion and Dyspepsia

That Plant Juice is repeating its success here, is proven by the large number of local testimonials received daily from people in signed statements, telling of the great benefit they have received from its use.

LEWIS A. LOVERING

Not a day passes but what numbers of Lowell people call to thank The Plant Juice Man for what his remedy has done for them, and to congratulate him on his phenomenal success in Lowell.

Only the other day Mr. Lewis A. Lovering, who resides at No. 82 Park View avenue, and is a well known blacksmith of this city, having lived here all of his life, stated: "I have been troubled for the past ten years with indigestion and dyspepsia; had headaches, dizzy spells, could not sleep at night and got very weak and completely run down. Almost everything I ate would cause me distress and I was badly bloated with gas; had night sweats and my liver and kidneys were out of order; I was badly constipated and had taken all kinds of medicine but never got any permanent relief, until I began to take your Plant Juice. I now sleep well at night, and can eat anything I want and digest it; am not constipated and it has put my liver and kidneys in fine condition. I have gained in weight and never felt better in my life. Plant Juice has made me well and I am glad to recommend it to others."

Plant Juice acts like magic in stomach trouble, gas, fermentation, heavy, distressed feeling after meals and on retiring. It attacks and destroys all poisons in the blood, corrects diseased conditions of the liver and kidneys and restores them to normal condition. It banishes rheumatism from the blood.

The Plant Juice Man is at The Dows Drug Store, in Merrimack Sq., where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Forcing the Issue

A very small boy was taken to a dental establishment to have some of his first teeth pulled. For a second or so, during which time four teeth disappeared, everything was fairly serene, and then came howls of objections.

"I didn't want them teeth to come out!" cried the young patient, suddenly recollecting something. "I want them to stay in."

"That's all right," consolingly responded the dentist. "They will soon grow again again."

"Will they?" quickly rejoined the boy, with a brightening face. "Do you think they will grow in time for dinner?"

A Great Provider

At a certain kindergarten at Milwaukee, recently one of the small pupils seemed especially anxious to tell the teacher something.

"Well, Nan, what is it?" the teacher finally asked, in response to the frantic waving of the tot's hand. "I got a new sister today!" panted the wee one.

"Oh Nan, that was lovely," said the teacher. "Where did you get her?" "Dr. Brown brought her," replied the child.

Another little hand shot up into the air in an excited way, and the teacher

Followed Instructions The manager of a big Australian sheep ranch engaged a discharged sailor to do farm work. He was put in charge of a large flock of sheep.

"Now, all you've got to do," explained the manager, "is to keep them on the run."

A run is a large stretch of bushland enclosed by a fence, and sheep have many ingenious methods of escaping from their own to neighboring runs and so getting mixed up with other flocks.

At the end of a couple of hours the manager rode up again—the air was thick with dust—as though a thousand head of cattle had passed by.

At last he distinguished the form of his new shepherd—a collapsed heap prone upon the ground. Surrounding him were the sheep, a pitiful huddled mass, bleating plaintively, with considerably more than a week's condition lost.

"What the dickens have you been doing to those sheep?" shrieked the alarmed manager.

The ex-sailor managed to grasp out: "Well, sir, I've done my best. You told me to keep them on the run and so I hunted them up and down and round—and now—I'm just dead beat myself."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

THE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN VICTORY FOR WILSON

The national campaign is progressing very satisfactorily so far as the democratic party is concerned.

President Wilson's popularity is rapidly growing as the people are brought to understand what or even a small portion of what he has done for this country in preserving it from the horrors of war, in having enacted measures to prevent the periodical panics caused by Wall street under republican auspices.

The Federal Reserve act has rendered money panics impossible.

The Rural Credits act has given the farmers facility for obtaining credit such as they never possessed before, and the Child Labor law has removed the advantage which the southern mills enjoyed over the northern.

Moreover, President Wilson has overcome republican opposition to the extent of having enacted a merchant marine measure that will put the American flag again upon the high seas and give this nation a commercial standing which it never had and could not have under a republican regime.

Furthermore, by his settlement of the threatened railroad strike President Wilson prevented one of the worst calamities that could befall a progressive nation—one under which starvation would sweep all the large cities of the country while the struggle lasted. If the railroads of this country were tied up for a single week there would be intense suffering. But if they were tied up for two weeks or four weeks the entire nation would be in a state of anarchy and revolution. In preventing this strike, President Wilson preserved our domestic and industrial peace. But by his diplomacy in handling the Mexican trouble and the problems of the European war, he preserved the republic from being embroiled in the horrors of war.

Surely this record is one so vastly important to the nation that even one-tenth of it should be sufficient to induce any fair-minded American to vote for Wilson's return to power for four years more.

Odd on Hughes Drops
A New York despatch says: President Wilson will poll more votes in New York state than ever before given a democratic nominee for president," said Patrick E. McCabe, democratic leader of Albany county, recently. "The sentiment for President Wilson up through the state exceeds anything I have ever seen. The people are for the president because he has kept the country out of the terrible European war and in a prosperous condition."

Secretary George Van Nance of the democratic state committee and chairman of the Jefferson county committee, says: "Republican farmers in every part of my county are announcing that they are going to vote for President Wilson. On one country road, I know of 14 farmers who are republicans who will vote for the president. The tide is all one way."

Influenced by the reports of the trend of sentiment to President Wilson from all over the country, the odds on Hughes in Wall street has dropped, with little Hughes money in sight. It is still going down.

Loyal German Supporter
Ernst W. Pickhardt, editor of the Huntington (Ind.) Signal, is of German blood, and until recently his paper was printed in the German language. As an American, with no apologies for his German descent, he speaks through the Signal to other Americans of German descent. Among other things, he says: "The Germans of the country, and particularly those of the third congressional district of Indiana, should resent the efforts of certain German professional politicians in the employ of the interests to prejudice the honest, loyal, industrious Germans against Woodrow Wilson. Now is a good time to prove your loyalty to your country."

"There are some professional politicians in this country who are disloyal citizens. They, aided and abetted by their republican allies, will do all they can to defeat President Wilson. But these professional politicians are neither large in number nor representative of the Americans of German ancestry or birth in the United States."

William A. Walsh for Wilson
Among the radical Roosevelt men who have come out for President Wilson is William A. Walsh of Los Angeles. In a recent letter to Congressman William W. Kent, chairman of the National Woodrow Wilson Independent League, he says in part:

"The Wilson men should take a more radical fighting attitude; the conservatives in the doubtful states will vote for Hughes in any event. One part of the fighting radicalism should be not merely to defend Secretary Daniels but to glorify what he has done. The treatment he has given and has tried to have the officers give the enlisted men in the navy may be said to mark the dividing line between 'preparation' and 'militarism,' and the good results of his methods are shown in decreased desertions and increased re-enlistments."

"I have no special personal interest in Secretary Daniels. He never heard of me and I would not know him if I saw him. I am a reformed Roosevelt worshipper, a radical from the ground up, and I see in Daniels a man who has had a good part in the endless fight for democracy, and who should be loved for the enemies he has made."

PIPE SMOKING WOMEN
REPUBLICAN NOMINEE TALKS TO KENTUCKY MOUNTAINEERS ON "NEW FREEDOM"

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—Charles Evans Hughes went through the mountains of Kentucky yesterday, a new campaign field for presidential nomination, outlining his views on the maintenance of American rights, and ended his day's tour of the state with a meeting here last night, in which he declared that the "new freedom" advocated by President Wilson four years ago had been transmuted, in one respect, to "the new slavery."

Mr. Hughes spoke in six towns yesterday to audiences that had come for the most part, for miles to hear him. They came down from the mountains, men and women, on foot, on horseback and on muleback.

Some of the mounts had saddles, some had none, and many of the women that came to hear him wore faded sunbonnets and smoked their clay pipes as he talked.

At Pikeville, first stop of the day, hundreds had journeyed since sunrise. A special train from Marrowbone, crowded to capacity, swelled the crowd.

At several stops the nominee's special train was backed down a spur track and he spoke to audiences in open fields. They sat on their horses and mules and in their farm wagons to listen. Some brought their families along and there were several hundred children, including babies in their mothers' arms, in each of these crowds.

In his speech in Phoenix hall here last night Mr. Hughes devoted much of his attention to the protective tariff and to what he termed "the new slavery."

"We have heard much of the new freedom," he said. "It seems to have a surprising and deplorable range."

"It has meant freedom to sacrifice the principles of the moral system which our opponents pledged themselves to enforce. It has meant freedom to embark the government in novel enterprises in competition with private business."

"It has meant freedom to depart from the principles of international law to conduct a personal diplomacy to satisfy personal vindictiveness."

"It means freedom to subvert the principles of government by yielding its authority to the demands of force. In this last phase, instead of the new freedom we have the new slavery."

"The new slavery is government by holdup. It is terrorized government, by the rule of politics assuming terror as an excuse for submission. The executive is chosen to defend the citadel of constitutional government. Instead he surrenders it. Where shall this stop?"

UNBREAKABLE GLASS
New Invention Which Will Permit Soldiers to Retain the Handy Wrist Watch in Battle

Much has been printed in European papers, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger, on the subject of strap watches as a part of military equipment. This has attracted a good deal of attention, since modern warfare has demonstrated the necessity for officers and soldiers to know the time. The telephone and signal service, which play important parts in modern warfare, have made the wearing of watches by soldiers obligatory. The only practical way in which they can wear them is on the wrist, where the time can be ascertained readily, an impossibility with the old-style pocket watch.

There have been instances during the progress of the present war where bad effects have resulted from the wearing of watches. The chief danger has been from the breaking of the crystal, and, when the watch was worn on the wrist, the consequences have been serious, owing to parts of the shattered crystal flying into the eyes, or for a time there was talk of discontinuing the use of wrist watches.

Realizing the seriousness of the defects in the old-fashioned strap watch, European watchmakers set about remedying them. Many devices were introduced, such as grill or diaphragm work placed over the dial, leaving only the

Much has been printed in European papers, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger, on the subject of strap watches as a part of military equipment. This has attracted a good deal of attention, since modern warfare has demonstrated the necessity for officers and soldiers to know the time. The telephone and signal service, which play important parts in modern warfare, have made the wearing of watches by soldiers obligatory. The only practical way in which they can wear them is on the wrist, where the time can be ascertained readily, an impossibility with the old-style pocket watch.

There have been instances during the progress of the present war where bad effects have resulted from the wearing of watches. The chief danger has been from the breaking of the crystal, and, when the watch was worn on the wrist, the consequences have been serious, owing to parts of the shattered crystal flying into the eyes, or for a time there was talk of discontinuing the use of wrist watches.

Realizing the seriousness of the defects in the old-fashioned strap watch, European watchmakers set about remedying them. Many devices were introduced, such as grill or diaphragm work placed over the dial, leaving only the figures exposed. This, however, made it very difficult to ascertain the time readily and consequently it had to be abandoned. Then the hunting case was resorted to, but as its usefulness necessitated the pushing of a spring to open the case, it also was found to be impracticable. Not only this, but the damp condensation of the trenches soon rusted the springs, and the difficulty, if not impossibility, of having them repaired confronted the wearer.

Celluloid glass was then introduced. This was during the summer season, but when cold weather set in the crystals contracted and dropped off, the dials became scratched and the inflammable nature of the celluloid and the danger entailed from its use in close quarters, where candles were the only mode of illumination, soon manifested themselves.

The fertile brain of the inventor finally hit upon unbreakable glass, dense in color and non-inflammable. Being of an unshrinkable nature, unbreakable glass is likewise dust-proof, which is not the case with the ordinary crystal. So great has become the demand for wrist watches equipped with unbreakable glass that European manufacturers are working overtime and are compelled to convert ladies' watches into military timepieces to supply the military needs.

THREE MEN KNOCKED OUT ONE NEARLY KILLED

DISGRACEFUL FRACAS JUST BEFORE CLOSING OF BARROOMS—MAN WHO DID INJURY GOT AWAY

There was another wild and disorderly scene in Worthen and Fletcher streets Wednesday night, about half an hour before the barrooms closed, when three men were knocked out and one nearly killed by the time the ambulance arrived.

The row was said to have started in a saloon and it has been suggested that as long as the mayor has ordered cops in the hotels on Sunday he might as well take another step and order cops stationed in the saloons. The worst witnessed at this notorious corner for many moons, and as usual the only arrest made was that of the man who was taken to the hospital in the ambulance.

The man in question was knocked down and his head struck the curbstone. He remained motionless and it looked as if he were done for. The policeman who came along and arrested a man and hat, summoned the ambulance. By the time the ambulance arrived the man was able to stand up, but he was bleeding from cuts in his head and face and it was decided to send him to the hospital. At the hospital it was found that his injuries were not as serious as at first supposed and inasmuch as he showed signs of intoxication he was sent to the police station.

At the police station he was booked for drunkenness and was released, either yesterday morning or this morning. The fellow who was punched everybody in sight in Worthen street, while women and children screamed and wildly called for the police, was not arrested. It was the same old gag of getting the fellow who is knocked out and lifting the culprit get away. An officer was seen to pick up a coat and hat from the sidewalk, presumably the coat and hat of the fellow who had knocked three men out, but at police station this afternoon it was stated that nothing had been seen there of either the hat or coat.

The people living in the vicinity of Wednesday night's disgraceful scene were sick, tired and disgusted with the condition of affairs existing there and they have decided to petition the authorities for the protection to which citizens are entitled. The place has become actually dangerous and people living there want some assurance of peace and safety in future.

HIGHER RANGE OF PRICES AT THE OPENING

ACTIVE BUYING OF ROCK ISLAND

CLOSING HSAVY

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Resumption of trading over the holiday was accompanied by a higher range of prices, and other manifestations of confidence. Mercantile Marine pf. soon rose over three points and some of the war and equipment issues were better by one to two points. Rails were irregular but substantially higher, Norfolk & Western and Union Pacific leading at gains of 1 to 2 points and Mexicans were decidedly firmer.

The usual backing and filling occurred in the first hour, due to profit-taking. Many initial gains underwent material reduction but in several important instances, notably rails and shipping issues, early advances were extended. Norfolk & Western rose to the new record of 145 1/2, Marine pf. increased its gain to five points, with four for Atlantic Gulf & West India, while Rock Island Steel featured its particular class at a 4 1/2 point advance. Bonds were firm.

Active buying of Rock Island, which advanced two points, featured the early afternoon. Other low priced shares were prominent and strong, but standard issues were more quiet and one to two points below the best of the morning.

Rumors of a possible renewal of submarine activities accompanied the general decline of the final hour, war issues displaying pronounced weakness. The closing was heavy.

US. S. PATROL

and from North Atlantic ports today, but for what purpose is known only to naval authorities. It was reported that they went out to maintain the neutrality of American waters but Rear Admiral Knight, commandant of the naval station at Narragansett Bay, is authority for the statement that no official action toward establishing such patrol had been taken. He said, however, that this soon would be done.

The seaward dash of eleven destroyers from Newport yesterday aroused much speculation. At least one other United States destroyer is known to have been on guard outside New York since the German submarine raid off Nantucket last Sunday.

Efforts to explain the activity of the destroyers ranged from a report of discovery of a foreign submarine base to a rumor that a liner had been driven into Bar Harbor by a German submarine stationed off Rockland, Me. All these stories lacked verification.

Rear Admiral Gleaves, a commander of the torpedo flotilla at Newport, said the sending of the destroyers to sea had no connection with the sailing of the White Star liner Adriatic from New York for Liverpool yesterday. "There have been important developments," said he, "but you could not call them submarine developments because they are not on the submarine end."

Since the advent of the German submarine off Nantucket, the navy department has shut down all coast wireless stations. Navy officers have been sent to the Seagate station, Tel. efrunkton station, the National Electric Signaling company's Brooklyn station and all local wireless plants, to instruct the operators as to the exact meaning of neutrality.

It was stated that one newspaper wireless station here had sent out last Sunday to ships at sea an announcement of the raid of the U-53 and that this was regarded as an unusual proclamation issued two years ago.

The deportation of aliens from New York and Boston has been suspended by the bureau of immigration until the submarine peril is met. About 500 foreigners are at Ellis Island awaiting deportation. Half of these are Germans or Austrians.

The British steamship Madras, which was overhauled by the United States destroyer Sterrett and brought back to New York harbor, was tonight being attempted to pass out for Singapore, ignoring the Sterrett's order to stop, is expected to sail again today.

The British steamship City of Madras later resumed her interrupted voyage sailing from quarantine about 10 o'clock.

STEPHANO'S PASSENGERS LOST ALL BAGGAGE WHEN U BOAT DESTROYED THEIR SHIP.

When the German submarine ordered the crew and passengers off the steamship Stephano before sinking the vessel the men and women had no time to save their baggage, and all was lost with the Stephano. One of the women passengers, Mrs. Martin Kasher of St. John's, N. F., was bringing her household goods to New York city with the intention of establishing a home in that city. "I lost everything," said Mrs. Kasher, "all my household goods." Mrs. Kasher said that she had relatives in Brooklyn and would go to live with them. Mrs. Kasher is seen in No. 3 in the accompanying picture, made on her arrival in New York, with her two children, Katherine and Etie Marie. The man is a fellow passenger, George Kennedy. No. 1 is the crew of the Stephano, with some of the sailors of the rescuing destroyer Ericsson. No. 2 is the Kan-san, the ship which was held up by the U-53, but permitted to proceed to Boston.

ROMANIAN RESISTANCE IS BROKEN, SAYS VIENNA

While the entente armies in northern France and in the Austro-Italian war theatre are keeping up their heavy blows on the lines of their Teutonic foe, the latter is continuing to counter heavily by delivering crushing strokes on the Transylvania front.

Rumanians Forced Back

The Rumanians are being forced back in northeastern Transylvania as well as along the Rumanian border in the Hercegovina and Kronstadt regions, according to the current war office reports. Vienna claims that the Rumanian resistance has been broken on both sides of the Maros river, where Berlin yesterday announced an encircling movement in progress. The Rumanians are declared to be in flight here, while their retreat continues near Kronstadt, where King Ferdinand's troops are falling back towards the frontier passes.

Italians Make Gains

Italian gains in the fighting of Wednesday on the Carso front, where Gen. Cadorna is pushing towards Trieste, are admitted by Vienna, which mentions progress for the Italians east of Oppachasella and their capture of the town of Novvas. Elsewhere, however, they are declared to have failed in their attempts to advance and to have lost a total of 2700 prisoners in the recent engagements incident to their offensive. An air raid carried out by the Kaiser and British machines on the Mauer works at Oberndorf, Germany, during which four tons of explosives were dropped and six German machines shot down as they attempted to defend the works, is announced by Paris.

Artillery Activity Along Somme

No infantry action in the Somme region is reported by Paris today, but intense activity is in evidence both north and south of the Somme. In the former region the French apparently are preparing for another drive in the regions of Morval and Bouchavesnes, while their guns are pounding the neighborhood of Chaules, south of the river.

British Advance

On their end of the Somme front the British advanced south of Bapaume during yesterday's fighting, pushing further towards the Bapaume-Peroone road in the region of Gueudecourt and taking about 150 prisoners.

German Success

Some activity has developed on the northern front in Russia which has been quiet for some time. The Germans attacked and captured a Russian trench section on the Shara river, near Goldevitche, but, according to Petrograd, were shortly afterward driven out with heavy losses. No heavy fighting is reported in either Volhynia or Galicia in the Russian official bulletin.

To Macedonia

East of the Struma river in Macedonia the British apparently are making ready for a further effort against the Bulgarian positions. Their patrols are pushing out and their armored cars have been successfully employed for reconnoitering, according to London. The Bulgarians were found to be holding the Sere-Demir-Hissar railroad in strength.

NO IMPORTANT CHANGES ON RUSSIAN FRONT, ACCORD- ING TO REPORT

NOT TO SINK ALL SHIPS BOUND BY WAY OF ENGLISH PORTS

THE HAGUE, Oct. 13, via London.—The special correspondent in Berlin of the Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant telegraphs the following:

"I have been authorized by competent naval authority to say that the submarine commander cannot have made a statement to the captain of the Bloemerdijk that all ships which had to touch at British ports would be sunk."

A Rotterdam despatch on Oct. 10, quoted from a report to the Holland America line, owners of the steamer Bloemerdijk, which was sunk off the New England coast during the German operations of last Sunday, that the submarine's commander "informed the Bloemerdijk's captain that he would sink any ship bound by way of an English port."

BRITISH ADVANCE GUARDS PUSH ON TO EAST OF STRUMA RIVER

SALONIKI, Greece, Oct. 13, via London.—British advance guards have made some advance to the east of the Struma river, in Greek Macedonia, says an official statement issued at the entente allied headquarters today. British armored cars explored the region where the Sere-Demir-Hissar railroad joins the Sere-Saloniki line and found that the railway was being strongly held by the Bulgarians.

DENY REPORTS OF PEACE BEING SOUGHT BY RUSSIA AND GERMANY

LORD FRENCH INSPECTS GONDOLA OF WRECKED ZEPPELIN

Every detail of the Zeppelins brought down near London has been studied by high British officials. The two latest "Zeps" which fell on Sept. 24, when they made a raid, left much intact for the British government to learn about the intricate construction of the raiders. The photograph above shows Lord French, commander of the home forces, inspecting the gondola which fell in a country field in Essex. This "Zep" came down in a blaze of flame, and her crew was killed while the other landed safely, but the crew set fire to the envelope. The farmer upon whose land the Zeppelin wreck pictured here fell said: "I saw only one bomb drop before the Zeppelin came down, but others were found among the debris. I am told these would burn and not explode. The Zeppelin had broken into two pieces, the larger half hanging over a big oak tree which stood in the middle of the field. I saw some dead bodies lying about. Some of the men had wrapped themselves up in blankets, evidently trying to avoid the flames. I had a herd of valuable dairy cows in the field, and these, very much alarmed at the blazing Zeppelin, galloped around the field in terror. Of them seemed determined to rush into the burning mass, and I had some difficulty in keeping her away."

that he would ask the mayor to call a special meeting of the municipal council tomorrow to take action on a water rate increase to be voted on the Phoenix avenue sewer. The sewer runs through land owned by Edward Cawley, and Mr. Cawley ordered Mr. Morse to suspend operations there unless certain things were done to protect his property. Mr. Morse spoke today in the presence of the city solicitor about something that Mr. Cawley had said relative to the matter, and the solicitor said there would be no grounds for the action threatened. The commission, however, seemed disposed to think that there is some virtue in what Mr. Cawley claims and believes that the matter can be fixed up so as to make things satisfactory on all sides.

Muriel Ostriche, the girl with the best known smile in America, the girl better known throughout the country as "The Moxie Girl," will be seen at the Oval theatre today and tomorrow in the new Equitable release, "A Circus Romance." A few years ago the Moxie Girl, who held a nation-wide contest to discover the girl who owned the most bewitching smile in the country, needed to say there were thousands of prize-danquets entered. Miss Ostriche, only 16 years of age at the time, was adjudged the winner, and since that time her pretty face has been looking at us through store windows, calling our attention to the good qualities of Moxie.

Soon after Miss Ostriche became famous as "The Moxie Girl," she secured a position with a motion picture company, playing small parts. Her wonderful beauty and her natural talent soon attracted the attention of the directors, and it was not long before she was appearing in more important parts. In "Circus Romance," this fascinating little star will be seen for the first time in the stellar role of a picture.

Asking for More Pay

Commissioner Newell F. Putnam is being besieged by water department employees seeking an increase in wages. On Wednesday of this week the pay of four clerks, seven stationary fireman and one motorman was increased per order of Mr. Putnam and just for that everybody wants a raise. Mr. Putnam feels that the raises granted Wednesday, amounting in all to about $1200 a year were well deserved, and he stated today that he did not intend to make any more increase this year. The amount that the clerks are to receive are the same as they received under Commissioner Barrett three years ago.

James H. Carmichael, succeeded Mr. Barrett as commissioner and took away from the clerks the increase granted by his predecessor.

M. W. Harrington, who has charge of the hydrants, succeeds Thomas Holland and works seven days a week. The stationary firemen are receiving $3 a day elsewhere and it was because of this fact that the water department firemen were advanced from $2.75 to $3 a day. Arthur McQuade, the motorman, will receive under the new schedule only the same wage that is paid to motormen elsewhere.

EXPECT FRAMINGHAM BOMB PLOT ARREST

POLICE ON TRAIL OF CULPRITS—EVIDENCE AGAINST SUSPECTS IN HANDS OF CHIEF

FRAMINGHAM, Oct. 13.—The excitement growing out of the attempt Tuesday night to blow up St. Stephen's church with a bomb is abated, but the police are keeping on the trail of the culprits from clues developing in the course of the investigation. Yesterday morning the force of investigators who are on the trail of the perpetrators of the act, renewed their search, and it is not improbable that an arrest may be made inside of 24 hours. It is stated on reliable authority that Chief Holbrook has in his possession evidence directed against certain suspects of their connection with the explosion of the bomb.

THE FACIAL EXPRESSION AND AIR

A woman's facial expression is usually least attractive when she rises in the morning. This is due to the fact that when sleeping the amount of air one breathes is materially reduced compared to the amount consumed when awake and in action.

Upon arising don a heavy dressing gown, and stand before an open window. Indulge in the following breathing exercises which should be practiced every morning:

Begin by inhaling deeply—the length of time consumed for each breath should last from five to 15 seconds and increase it as one enlarges the air cells and becomes accustomed to inhaling.

Hold the breath as long as you can; then exhale—commence the same amount of time in discharging the air as you did in inhaling it.

This is one of the best exercises for increasing the chest expansion, causing renewed action of the circulation and making one immune to colds, that has been discovered.

The average woman faces her mirror and fusses over the waves of hair on her forehead, and in her absorption she forgets that not even half of her efforts will meet her face to face.

A hat may be completely spoiled by not watching the side angle, or to take heed that the hair fills all awkward hollows.

Just so with hair itself. Not only is the side view important for the sake of those who view us from the side, but the whole structure of the coiffure of the moment depends upon the profile view.

To have a good profile one must be extremely careful as to the nose of the head. If the head is thrust too far forward it makes the chin too prominent, and if the head settles backward too heavily it gives undue prominence to the throat bone.

Noses, which are the last, but most important part of the profile to consider, are the most difficult member to improve. Noses badly made by nature are distressing, but the fault may be wonderfully improved by massage and the effect also lessened by the proper arrangement of the hair.

HOLYOKE PRIVATE SERVED SENTENCE FOR WRITING OF FOOD TO NEWSPAPER

HOLYOKE, Oct. 13.—Congressman Allen Treadway of Stockbridge, who was in Holyoke last evening, received a telegram last night from Adj. Gen. McCain of the war department, stating that Hugh Clark, the Holyoke private of Co. D, 2d Regiment, sentenced to six months' confinement at Fort Smith, has been released and discharged from the service.

The despatch states that Gen. Funston had been notified that no word had been received from him; also that Hugh Clark would have to pay his own way home.

Clark was tried by a court-martial on Sept. 7 on charges of writing to a Holyoke newspaper, which published the letter, that the food given to the soldiers on the border lacked variety and was insufficient in quantity. Clark testified in his own behalf.

The case aroused much interest on the border, a great deal of testimony being submitted from mess sergeants, soldiers and officers. It was brought out that many of the soldiers haunted other mess tents after eating a meal at the 2d's kitchen. Several soldiers testified in corroboration of Clark's charges and several officers testified that they drew the same rations and found them satisfactory.

Private Francis J. Bowe admitted circulating a petition, in line with Clark's charges, that was signed by several soldiers, 10 of whom testified that they could not get "second helpings" and found the food monotonous.

It was brought out in the testimony that a letter to the Holyoke newspaper was written to be sent home in case a

REFUSED TO LEAVE CRAFT WHEN IT WAS SINKING AND WAS DROWNED

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Oct. 13.—The wife of the captain of the barge Cora refused to leave the craft when it was sinking today and was drowned when the barge went down. The captain had endeavored to have her join him in a dory in which he rowed to the tug Elmer Keeler, which had the barge in tow. She was afraid to get into the small boat, according to the coast guards who later went out to the barge and tug. They did not obtain the woman's name.

The tug, bound from New York for Providence with the Cora, put in here today in a southerly storm. The barge was leaking and when the storm became severe it began to founder and distress signals were hoisted. The coast guards received the signals too late to be of assistance.

DEMAND RESIGNATION OF PRESIDENT BRILL

DIRECTORS OF DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE ACT IN MILK SITUATION IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Efforts by Jacob S. Brill of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., president of the Dairymen's league, to settle the milk strike with the four leading distributors of this city apparently have been thwarted by the action of the board of directors of the league who were awaiting today Mr. Brill's resignation in compliance with their request.

As a result of this action John J. Dillon, selling agent of the league and state commissioner of foods and markets, said the partial supply of milk which has been sent by farmers to the four distributors would be cut off today. Dealers who have signed the league agreement for six months are receiving their normal supply, Mr. Dillon said.

Farmers who supply a large share of the milk for Pittsburg will meet today at Jefferson, Ohio, to consider what the next move will be. The principal demands of the association are an increase of 12.75 per cent over present prices and a six months' contract. Dealers say these demands are impossible.
